This is very important.

For many are called, but few are chosen. I have chosen you to be here tonight to unveil to you ... for there are things that I am going to show you what few are shown. As you walk through the double doors that are before you, you will see 4 more double doors. And as you align with me this night, hold on, let go and let me show you. For I will give you words that you've never heard. And with these words, they are weapons that you will use to unveil my truth as you take my words and uproot the evil. For I have placed a sword in your mouth. And there are those that have a double edged sword. So as you take the sword of the words I speak, I am going to show you no defeat. My treasures that have been hidden and the gold that is written. Treasures unfold just as I have written. There is not one nugget, but millions. Nuggets with words that I have spoken. So take those words and take the sword, it's in your mouth. When you speak these words, they will cut all the evil out. I am taking you up to a higher level that only few know of. High above where my throne and where I have my abode. As the fire illuminates out of your mouth, it comes out of your ears, and maybe your nose. For it's the fire of me from my nostrils. For I give you the breath to breathe. So don't take it lightly that you are here, declare and decree the words, for it'... by my spirit, yes indeed.
