Biblical Discernment Exploration sessions with Dr. Paul L. Cox are for groups who would like to dig deeper into the giftings and revelation that God grants all of us through his grace.

As opposed to public sessions, where Paul must often review past material, customized sessions allow Paul to cover material that is in line with how God moves in your group.

These sessions are an interactive experience where Paul shares our latest understanding of new revelation. Paul then welcomes the group to test this revelation Biblically. We are also finding that God brings new revelation and understanding to each session!
