Hebrew Words for Curse

According to Brichto, four Hebrew words are translated into the English as curse: alah, arur, qualet, and qabab. Only qabab means imprecation - curse

Deuteronomy 28:15 is qualet. But it shall come to pass, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments and His statutes which I command you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you.

Deuteronomy 28:15 is qualet. But it shall come to pass, if you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments and His statutes which I command you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you.

Deuteronomy 28:20 uses another Hebrew word, arur. The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings in which you have forsaken Me.
