

Word from Jana on the morning of 7-15-17 during the meeting

Wisdom comes first to take you out of lack for if any of you lack wisdom you just need to ask. To separate the foolish and the wise things of God like the Sons of Zadok the holy and the profane from the knowledge of Yah.

You were lining up with the fullness of time – things in earth as it is in heaven to be defined and all things have been given to you for the witness of creation, the restoration of all things for all generations. They lay dormant as it says that we know that the worlds were framed out of things unseen. You were accessing the true witness to bring into seeing.

Things hidden are given to you when once the veil is removed the eyes will break through. Now you will all practice your senses to learn from the upward call, the original creation with the Father before the Fall. You will break through the membranes of time for a memorial marker as limited the divine.

And from eternity you step into now, the things unseen to the seen, the invisible to visible. Get the evidence to make it real, a platform of justice from the chambers revealed.

Now the eyes of the Lord that go to and fro all seven were written on each and every stone. You will all connect with the inheritance of life, the living Word, in humanity and the divine aligned.
