Gulf Shores – Saturday

As I roar my enemies flee. As I roar they will no longer taunt you. As I roar my glory falls upon you. As I roar you find your rest in me. My roar is my heart. I will put my church in order. I don't know if that was the exact words. I am infinite. I am multi-dimensional. 'm all seeing. I'm everywhere. I am love. I am grace. I am all. I am the source.

My sense was, I don't know how to put this in words other than the I guess whatever the Catholic church is presented as the Queen of Heaven. The true authentic is Wisdom as the Holy Spirit

So man who taught their children to look to the stars for the answers for some and have taught their children to look, look to the waters for the answers. You have taught their children to look in all different directions to all different things for the wrong answers. I am the answer. I am the way. I am The truth. I want to release myself into the earth and a greater measure in a greater way. I want to release myself that you will be used as an agent of my son's wonders and miracles. I want to release myself that what I what was prophesied and what I spoke when I walked on earth you shall do, and I shall confirm as you do it. I want to release myself down on earth this day forward in a greater way.

Storms are moved away. Clouds are moved away. Clear view. Sound of Kairos is now. Step in. Step in, step in, step in, step into the pure water. Step in. Step on the water. Walk on the water, see the path. See the path to the sun. The sound is light. Here's the sound. Hear the light. It's now. It's now.

Sense an archangel. So what I've seen looks like, and it's in front of Paul, a very powerful, but it almost looks like a military type angel.

Okay? I'm not hearing something, but I'm seeing is there's like a on either side, there's darkness, but there's a way made in the middle of the darkness and it's and it's lit up. The Path is lit up and I'm hearing at the same time. This is the way that I have come through and I'm here to now bring you through this passage that because of everything, the combination of everything done here, this passage can now be made and now it's time to step through. This will take you to the place that God has prepared for you.

It's like it's like if a commander had put across that table. It's like a layout of a strategy on the table here with door. There's just like there's like a road was really was right here.
