Meeting Guidelines

Ask questions!

66 books of the Holy Bible
are our final test of truth.

God is our focus

John 3:16&17

John 5:19&20

John 14:12

Discernment

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

1 Kings 3:9

Do not fear.

Instead, worship and test!

No Names!

Avoid using names of ministries, prophets, etc.

Meeting Guidelines

Submit all supernatural questions to the (Father, Son and Holy Spirit).

- Don't ask spiritual servants of God questions and don't ask them to do tasks.
- Any information we receive and any tasks completed from spiritual servants will be initiated by God.
- Don't trust any information that comes from evil (John 8:44)

Meeting Guidelines

Let us know if you discern evil.

- Keep in mind we may not do anything about it right away.
- God often points out evil and uses it as a teaching opportunity.
- God will show us what to do about the evil and will often remove it at the proper time.

Meeting Guidelines

Avoid declaring what you discern or sense prophetically.

Use phrases like “I have a sense that...”
or “I submit...”

Meeting Guidelines

Ask for permission before touching another person.

(Placing hands on shoulders, head, etc.)

Meeting Guidelines

Cover any person who lays on the ground with a modesty blanket.

Meeting Guidelines

Ask permission before providing a personal prophetic word or praying for another person.

Be aware that prophecies to edify and exhort (1 Corinthians 14:3)

Meeting Guidelines

Don't ask others to deliver personal prophetic words.
Instead, wait for the person to be led by God.

Meeting Guidelines

Let breaks be breaks

Meeting Guidelines

Check with a facilitator before delivering a prophetic word or tongue.

Meeting Guidelines

Anytime a corporate tongue is delivered, the facilitator will wait for the interpretation before continuing the meeting.

Meeting Guidelines

Don't talk about what you discern around others.

Meeting Guidelines

When praying for healing, never tell people to go off medications.

Avoid giving recommendations on nutritional supplements, dietary changes, etc.

Meeting Guidelines

Don't base your expected gifts by comparing the gifts of others.

Each person's giftings are unique according to God.

Meeting Guidelines

Recordings must be for personal use only.
