Larry is seeing an incense cantor. He is reminded of the first nations and “smudging” for cleansing.

The antient smoke. The antient smoke. I have come to cleanse the antient smoke. With the incense of eternity’s flow. This smoke from the throne. The incense of the prayers of the saints in the cloud of witnesses. The smoke is going into the very core of the earth with redeeming purpose. We have come to ignite a shift in the platelets of the earthlings. Those born of the earth. Those born of the spirit. There is a marriage from the eternal view of the real you. Earth comingled with eternal realities. Awake from your sleep. Awake from your sleep. Awake for you have come to mount Zion for such a holy time as this. I have shaken the heavens and I am shaking the earth. You will feel the vibrations on a cellular level. You will know I am, that I am, as I am your father. Your redeemer. This day the incense from the throne cleanses mindsets not of me. So I will permission you to see how much blessing I have already loosed. How blessed do you believe you are? I orchestrated before you came to earth for you to dwell in the garden of my heart. I am your paradise. For the trees you see are a reflection of me. The trees you see are a reflection of me, so true authority covers the earth as the waters cover the sea. They will unveil the glory of me. They are now going to be unveiled. Search out the matter w/o the religious chatter. Revelation belongs to the babes. Revelation from the father belongs to the little ones. And I have bestowed upon you the king and keys to unlock the ability to see. That the trees are the authority and reflections. Fractal reflections in every dimension. A tree. Could it be that there are 12 dimensions connected to the 12 apostles? Because this is the era where governmental power will shake the earth awake. It’s all connected. It’s all connected. For the tapestry to see began with me.

Prayer

In the name of Jesus Christ, as a representative of my family line and myself. I repent for all worship of ungodly beings. I repent for attributing protection you have provided Lord to ungodly sources. I repent for worshiping and praising ungodly beings and the fallen sons of god. I repent for and renounce all worship of ancestors. I repent for and renounce all worship of the land, the sun or the moon, auroras or any other celestial object. I also repent for all worship of any terrestrial object, including tress, rocks and animals. I repent for and renounce for giving thanks to animals.

On behalf of myself and my family line. I repent for all those who worshipped the life force of idolatrous images made of wood and of animals or other living creatures. I especially repent for the artisans that established ancient graven images and worshipped carved wood in the shape of men and animals. Lord would you remove the shame and iniquity from this idolatrous worship.

I repent on myself and my family line for worshipping the primal. I repent for those who worshipped creation instead of the creator.

Isaiah 44 – making idolatrous images.

The wild ox anointing is coming to a province that has been over looked, underestimated and sometimes accused as overstated. But I say there is a rumbling in the mountains. There's a rumbling in the valleys. I am merging and converging a provincial provocative voice that will make the nation choice. I am putting the nation in the valley of decision. I have adjusted the time out of chronos and into Kairos. Delta will come. Delta will run with highly affected, yielded warriors. I am exposing hidden. I am exposing hidden groups. Hidden in the forests. I am going to open up rounds and call out for those that have been stolen. They're coming home. There is a home coming going to happen in BC. There is a home coming bc I'm opening up an ancient time counsel of sonship bc the spirit of Elijah is running through the province like a river flowing from the throne going for his own. But they're not churchy. They are absolutely for ? but they are my pre-unveiled sons and daughters. So I give you a key, my daughter of destiny. A key that will multiply. A key that will unlock the first portion of what I said in the Carolinas. Inventions, inventions, inventions. Out of your loins, inventions. What you decree, you will see. This province hasn't been forsaken, but is actually married to me.

Lion of Judah

Larry and Jana

This hour, this day I breathe afresh with redemptive breath and I call back every part of your being. I am love and I have won your war. I am love in powering you to soar. Come out, come out wherever you are. Come out from among them. For my blood purifies every stain, every feeling of unworthiness dissolve in the light of my blood. I am that I am. And I roar over you this hour to empower authentic freedom that no political regime in the Babylonian systems called churchianity could ever bring true freedom. This day I unmask those in high places of influence building prophetic empires are coming down. Prophetic empires and hierarchies. Who are you anyhow? Who are these uncircumcised? Mixture will no longer be tolerated in my temple? I am unleashing my breath to expose and extract the mixture in my bride. And as my bride rises wo mixture, she will soar with limitless power. She will soar as the voice of many waters. A sword will strike. A sword will strike every lying spirit that has been hidden, that has been hiding, that has been masked. And even the plants will be uprooted and will flee in front of me. The programmed will be deprogrammed as the sword strikes midnight. The midnight hour has come and darkness has already covered the hearth. But I say that those who ride with me will learn to soar and walk as a I walk. Move as I move, rest as I rest. I am he who they seek. I didn't come to bring a culture of rules, but a culture of family. This day I shut every door that has been opened by hell. For truly no grave can hold down my body.

I am always against what is against you. in everything it's the enemy who is destroying you. come out from among them who declare you less. For the god of holiness is strengthening you to pass every test. You have the answer before the trial. I am always with you and you will never be denied. Even the hearts will unite by the fear of the lord. And I will gather what was scattered and destroy what destroys. Many of you cling to false hope, any even blame me. Though it distorts, but now this is why the knowledge of the glory of the lord that roars like a lion to gather and restore. It's never to a demise. It's always to life. So hate what I hate and love the lord your god from on high. I am tearing down mountains, the paradigms of self elect. They were never meant to be comingled in the seed. So some of you ill have surgery to remove the implants of disbelief. The wrong systems that aligned in the earth were set up to destroy your value and your self-worth, but I have said, wherever you place your feet, you take back for the kingdom of god. Ears to see and ears to hear is where my true law lies. You saw me right. You heard the sight of unlocking the true vision for the bride of Christ. I am gathering from the remotest parts ... and you will root out and destroy, and plant and rebuild. For all of creation is longing for the true sons to be revealed.
