Brian

Scroll is an eviction notice. I am breaking down strongholds. I am getting down to the root of the matter. Shame will no longer take hold. See a picture of a person holding the Bible and feel shame about what they did in the past and gives up. I am extinguishing the extinguisher.

Tongue

Seeing misty water. See a fence partly submerged and water is rising. Has to do with gates. Scroll. About the gates. Heard the gates of hell.

See and hear the waters rising.

Angel of Alabama

Sense passivity of native Americans to the power of the horse.

Scroll

Satan captures God's powerful animal. The enemy has used the horse to hold captive the treasures in the sea.

Spirit of Wisdom

Trust in the Lord and the power of His might. See light. A light before me. See a scale of justice. It is tipping. Something is weighing in the balance – justice and righteousness. See finger being put on the counsel. See a torch – it is alive and beautiful.
