

I see multiple paths, but only one is true that is the sure is the way through. Unity is a must as you gain one to another's thrust. otherwise The path of righteousness will move and they will miss the gate. All most go through all must see from above were signs and wonders are waiting for His lovingkindness to come. This is the riches in glory from the place of eternal love. T treasures within is the hope of glory resurrection from Yah.

Righteousness is as it should be not what you get right. how it should be is the way to the original design. the riches in glory will heal the DNA and the creation design.

The waters will pass through the dimensions for the sound will break deep darkness as the people go through them .
