Angel of Hawaii

My people have read my word of how I heal the sick and how I readied the dead and my people have read the book of acts and read the stories of how my apostles changed the world in which they lived. This is a new Kairos season while my people will no longer say I have read your word but I have not seen it. The evidence is here. It is not coming. it is here. The wine of my spirit has been released down the island chain it is a turbine of my hurricane love. For it is here, pools, fresh pools of living water and pools of Bethesda. Massive healing massive healings being released, eyes healing, diabetes healing. Do you believe it the declare it and live it. I released tonight the sound of my roar, the sound of my roar. I released boldness on my people. No fear, no doubt, just a pouring out of My love through you.
