Persis

This keeps going through my head. Maybe I need to send it.

"Tiktok tiktok tiktok

You are looking at the wrong clock

Tiktok

The hands are eschew making more work for you

Tiktok

The mouse running up it is programmed too

Contamination she spreads over hands - over you

Tiktok

Come into alignment to this current time

Making it easier to delve into time

To see wonders & miracles yet to be seen

And to proclaim new discoveries never seen

Tiktoc."
