

Tobias: 3:57 PM Angel of the DNA

I have been feeling like with the horses – when the horses get ready they can't wait to run. I wonder if the angel and those with him have horses. There are ancients. There are holy ones (judicial) watchers (kind of holy one), righteous ones (sons of God, saints). I started to feel the shift. The angel is just either leading them or opening the gate. The rainbow angel is here too. I am feeling the arc of the rainbow. This angel is cooperating with the rainbow angel – strong connection. When the shift started, I felt urgency to flood the earth and spirit realm.

This is the hour that my people have been preparing and waiting for. This is what you have dreamed about for generations and generations. This is what has come – the kingdom. This is not just another movement made by man and prayed into existence. This is heaven connecting to earth, this is the preparation for the city to come, the city of God. Righteousness will be established in the earth realm. Structures must be judged. Nations and rulers must be changed. The exalted ones will be removed, will be made low. The humble ones I will raise them up. For this is the beginning of the kingdom of our God so He shall reign and rule forever more.

For I am a righteous God and I am a jealous God and I establish My kingdom. I raise up those that are low and remove those that are prideful and self-exalting.

Barbara: The fruit of the righteous is a tree fulfilled.

Paul: The stars and the notes are keeping us from the Tree of Life.

Michelle: An ungodly being that is bound up.

Jana: 10/14/2020 - Scroll

You are on the right track. Glory is the goal you must adapt. Practice makes permanent if you are a lover of truth. First the natural, then the spiritual but the original design is from the invisible. Created desire according to the will of God. The original intent is how it should be for eternity is written on the heart. Desire has the power to create because of the sound of the heart. It has the greatest power for restoration to begin. The invisible truth is from the Ancient of Days.

The heart holds a record. It has the song from which you were made. This is a time like no other, like has never been seen before. But note, the living word must be received in heaven until all things are restored. You are learning about the regeneration for life but also the regeneration what time destroyed. Don't give up the fight.

You've also heard it said the power is resurrected, all things are about the ancient time and its holy prophets. The unity you seek can be unlocked on earth but harmony with all creation is the power to be renewed. Its about a new earth, a new heaven, even a new body without leaven.

You all have the ability to align to the original design. No longer be an apostle here or a prophet here but the perfect man is in you all. A time to expect without lack to follow the Good Shepherd who has the righteous path.

[I also saw a table of shewbread where the rulers are]

Paul: This is tied to declaration.

Anne: 4:21PM Scroll

[The scroll is weighty, warm and there is healing in it. And it is a declaration of the Lord.]

Paul: The rulers declare

Anne: The healing well is the desire of many. Not all drink though all desire and want. Those who choose to come to my well drink and are complete, refreshed, renewed, brought to complete wholeness. I am the well that one drinks from. It never empties. It is always being replenished with Me. Come and drink. there will always be for all those that choose to drink of Me.

I am the time. I am the now. I am the sound of the refreshing wind. The wind in the well, the water in the well. It is of Me and there is no other. This is the pure well, the only well. The counterfeit always desires to look like but is always stained and tainted. You discern well. Come and drink and be refreshed. Never say nigh. Those who say nigh or turn will never drink of the goodness of my well, of the goodness of My joy, the goodness of My righteousness, the goodness of My wealth, the goodness of My purity, the goodness of My harmony and the goodness of My kingdom.

Betty: We are in symphony when we are in harmony body soul and spirit with our Lord

Michelle: The angel of the Lord was with the rainbow angel. On his back he is carrying this rolling living book of indices of everyone. They are all at the gate. They have not gone through yet.

Tobias: There was also an archangel.

Anne: Lots of glory

Paul: Hallelujah on the Mount of Olives. I think it is the symphony of a person and Beethoven heard it and wrote it down.
