

Origin Word Summary

March 13, 2009

Jana: (reading from prophecy given to her this morning) Remove the shackles of slavery. Prepare a counter attack. You are crossing over to take it all back. I AM rolling back your reproach all the way to Adam. Don't fear - you will not be abandoned.

Its in the garden of origin. That is where you start. You can go anywhere when you are on the mark. He is going before you. Look to the mountains Oh daughter of Zion.

[3/10/2009]

Jana

It's in the foreknowledge you find hope. It's in the place of origin. I knew you before the way, before life before earth, before man, before birth. Find the better way from where you first heard the word of hope, from the foreknowledge of the Ancient of Days. It's the healing path so the lame will not be detached. It will be love made sure from a heart that is pure.

August 10, 2009

Jana: Shatter the glass of ungodly perception. Your identity has been distorted. You've not known your place in heaven. You knew Him then from the place of origin face to face. To know Him again, the depths of your heart from the inside out, from glory to glory. Dig deeper still. That's where the vein is. Treasures of gold. I'm breaking shame. Its about your identity. It is about how you see Him. You haven't learnt to receive what He says you are because you haven't really known Him. Remove it.

Jana: [word she got this morning] You need new armor to get where you are going. You are crossing over you restoring. Humility is required for justice to be inspired. You have not been this way before. Submit one to another to restore relationships as sisters and brothers. It is a transition of ownership that you recover. It is the land of your own heart, you take it over. The garden of origin you are on the brink. A heart of power for the mind to think. Get ready to change your mind and think with your heart. For compassion is required and humility to start.

January 7, 2009

Jana,

A Star is born to the church of the first born. It is a process of positing and re positioning. Position is to be recovered. Identities are to be re discovered. From her you will know the origin. I make all things new. You will be affective and infective. Touching the elements. Changing in season. Seasons will not affect you. Faith is not what you think. The process is in the story. You are on the brink. Don't miss the steps, it is in the process. You release the revelation. For a forerunner generation. A star is born for the first born and the power of the ages. Revelation for this phase for the Kingdom has begun. You must experience all the quadrants, the height, the depth, the length and width, as it is on earth as it is in heaven. Isaiah 9:6-9. There is a natural and dimensional position.

Jana Green

I show you a mystery. The hidden depths of God are here. The mystery of the power of God. The hidden of ages long ago. The hidden mysteries created long ago. There is mystery of knowing Him face to face is in the origin. Deeper still there is hidden treasure to be revealed. A hidden power. Not of this age or the age before. The mystery of the ages to come. There is so much more. Power, power wonder working power.

Depth and fire

It's in the origin that you find the end, It is in the origin were you began Dig deeper for there is much to reveal, It's your birth inheritance so don't fear.

It is in the depths that is where your wealth is, and it is pure

Through the fire you will go , don't try to get out, for it is new without a doubt

November 2, 2009 Jana

This is not where things we lost, just to get them back. To get them back because you know the cost. It is through the refinement of fire (see fire in this place...like volcanic vents). The restoration is greater then the creation. Because of the suffering you have redemption. Past the origin, you are not just getting them back, this is greater than you know. There are no scales or measurement of any kind. A place of unending abundance. Unending time. You must buy gold refined in fire. It will cost you everything, but it is not what you think. You who have no money come and drink. You lose your right to be right. All you self preservation. Not what others think, but this is your destination. All insecurity is lost here. Inferiority and doubt. Those were the lies that blocked Me out. Don't you know, you are in My image. Face to face. Face to face. I created them both, man and woman in the image of God, in the image of US. You make a hole, a knitting together of love. This is not how you do that, this is how you receive it. Listening and communing and learn to believe it.

Janaq

Break the looking glass

The glass is time were you have been stuck.

Shatter the glass, shatter deception

Shatter the looking glass change your perception

It is about how you see,

You have been stuck in the past, stuck in what you believe

It is how you see Him that is how you see yourself.

Do it from the place origin. It will bring you health.

It's in the depths, there is provision. It is the depths that you make a decision.

It's in the depth that you are known.

The sound will break the deception, than you will receive a godly reception.

Face to face that is where you started, but dimly now, because your heart was parted.

Renew your memory, for you have forgotten,

His hope of glory that was imparted.

Through the garden

Remove the shackles of slavery. Prepare a counter attack. You are crossing over to take it all back. I AM rolling back your reproach all the way to Adam. Don't fear you will not be abandoned. It's in the garden you fell. It's in the garden He prayed. It's in the garden HE rose, CONQUERING THE GRAVE. How will you find your way? It's in the garden of origin. That is where you start. You can go anywhere when you are on the mark. He is going before you. Look to the mountain. Surely goodness are following you, and you will drink from the fountain.

Dale –weekend school – stars

Seven spirits of God present

Dale speaks in asian type tongues

Have I not said, have I not told you that I would establish My kingdom. It is My structure, not man's. Man's structure is built on sand, it will decompose. My structure is built on a rock, it will weather the test of time. It will not be torn down. I am raining revelation. Rain, rain, rain. It is a play of words on rain. Untangle the reins. For you are to be connected to me. Heart to heart, soul to soul, spirit to spirit. I blow my spirit onto your life. I breathe life into the elements. It is My DNA. It is My light. I breathe my life into you, my DNA into you. The enemy has corrupted the DNA, the elements. One breathe I will blow the corruption away. We must go back to the beginning, the beginning of time. To the birthplace. To the origination. Eternity. See 0. Go back to the zero to the origin. To me there is no beginning, no end. There is eternity. There is creation, creativity. There was oneness with Me. That is the Glory. Oneness with Me. I call you back to oneness, to the glory. I call you back today to be established with me. You will reign in Me and I will take the reins off of you. Decontaminate the elements. Structures, structures. Build upon the living stones, the structures. The living stones. The cubes of righteousness. I will bring back the cubes of righteousness. For you are the cubes. I will put My light into the cubes. You will shine like the light I have put into you. Once again, I put my light, my spectrum in you and I will raise you be established in Me. New structures, new timing, new coordinates. I will change your coordinates. You will be aligned in time and in space in Me. This is how you will do the things I have done. Your structured will be changed from glory to glory. Back to oneness with Me in glory. Colors, sounds, vibrations, movements. It is full circle. You are coming full circle. I am bringing you back to the origin. You went far away. I call your spirit man back. So I can breathe on you. Heart to heart, soul to soul. Oneness. It is a circle. We were sent out, out of the quadrant. I call you back now, because you are in a different quadrant you were not supposed to be in, a dimension. It is time to come home. Are you ready for Me to pull you back? I release My escort to bring you back from the outer dimensions of space and time, I bring you back. It is a quadrant that was unreachable, outback quadrant. We should not have been there. We were diverted but He is bringing us back (mankind).

The five points are reins that will pull us back. We are being sucked in a vacuum. We are being pulled back into His heart. These are godly reins that are bringing us back. Then we will reign with him.

January 31, 2009

Jana

It is in the depts., where your wealth is revealed. Listen and you will hear. A wheel within a wheel, a circle renewed a sound of abundance, a sound of new. Pasted on by fire, wealth revealed, it is in the origin that it is revealed. There is a fire that brings a balance and it is new. Elijah is in your presence, he is here too. It is about sonship you know, an inheritance passed on. Double for abundance, so be strong. Be clothed in strength. A sound released. A sound of joy, it's in your speech.

January 17, 2009

Jana

You activate heaven. Don't you know you are all sons of light, sons of day. You are coming into a new way. A true discernment. Taste and see, practice and believe. You are more worried about what is wrong than what is right. You are co-creators in Christ. The origin is from Me for those who believe. Trust and you will see. A true discernment. You have been given access. A key to unlock. To redeem. To break through. To triumph. Victory, the victory in your mind. Come up come up higher. Time to trust yourself. Confirmation is here. You have the tools. You have the weapons. You activate heaven. The walls are but time. Go through the walls, stay in line. It is a space between space. Dimension and realms, they tell the true story for where the origin is from where you are called and where you begin. Be strengthened in might for you are not alone. You are attached to an army of heaven, you are very strong. There is a sound that is sure that activates the power. It is all on high. You are in the hour. If you knew upon the myriad of chariots. You would laugh at your future. For you know you win. You are among a great number and heaven is with you to fight the good fight. To break through and divine the spoil. There is a boldness coming upon you. Be sure. Do not hold back. Run in your might. For the army of the Lord is with you to stand and fight. Are you worried about a mistake? It is better you step out and never to take your claim. Stake it. Stake it. Stake it.

March 24, 2010

Jana

The combination of sound in agreement. When the sons of God sang with creation. The regeneration, it is in the sound. It is a light source connected to fragrance, color, and light. It anchors the throne when the sound comes together as it was when the stars sang together. It is an agreement of heaven, when I hear from heaven, I heal the land. Makes a sound. Does the sound comes from the cherub (Lucifer is a cherub). It is four together in one accord when they sang together with the stars again. Is this the four quadrants...one quadrant is not in accord. In the beginning there was a sure foundation of four. The four quadrants are the four domains. What are the four domains? From the origin. Know your position, learn what it is. Ask for the scrolls. Every day written in it before one came to pass. Have you ever asked what is on it.

The sound is multi dimensional.

July 19, 2010

Do you want to come up? Then go down for I oppose the proud. Do not think you are wiser than Me or wiser than those who do not know Me. You've been up the creek without a paddle but I am bringing you back to the origin, not that you would start again but that you would use what you found out, that you now know and take it to a new place, to a fertile ground for I have placed oysters in the deep that you would dive and find My pearls.

For the waters I am releasing are unicorns with horns of pearl and wings of might. For they are for warfare. They have not been released until now because they were not needed. But these are the last days and you will need all I can give you. So expect the unexpected - even myths have threads of truth. This is why discernment is important. Take the good and leave the bad. And if you can, burn the bad for this is war. As I remove tribes from history from even remembrance so you must do with the works of the enemy

Jana

Whistling.

This is not up or down. This is essence. This is sound, light, color, fragrance for the abundance. There is a clear sound, a pure sound. A sound of a fragrance. Taste and see. Hear and believe. All connected to light and the baptism of fire. What emerges from here moves up higher. A fire of preparation for acceleration. It is a quick work for the escaped remnant, the overcomer. It is the witness. Restoration in the complete circle from the origin to the finish. It is certain. She must be ready. She must be prepared to release the presence of sound, of light, of reflection, she is the look-a-like.

This is a platform of justice from where it began. A trading floor for judgment. It is in Who I Am. Learn your position, from where you start. A mind that believes and a heart that thinks. Be sensitized for remembrance when you are knit together in love, knowing each who they are, birthed from above.

May 24, 2010

Jana

It is a three way pathway. It is the way, truth, and the life. The true way is the through way to the place of origin that sets it right. A recreated way that sets the creation right. It is a new and better way. You fix history. You redeem the time by the order of Melchizedek, you are realigned. Glory, glory, glory, the true design. It is about the gold, the setting of light, the gold refined in fire. It is a time of the design, the redesign, the true sons to be realigned. It is a path of thinking.

Jana senses an organization of order being established. Positioning a platform for trading, for justice. That precious price that was paid, for He was crucified before the foundation was laid. The redemption from the place of everlasting. That is where the trading was placed, that is where the lot was cast. By an agreement of the ungodly sons, given away by the true sons. What was sold or given away was from a place of deception. The lie that was bought gave a reality, a false perception. It is how you see and how you think. The sound emanates a reality that you believe. The system comes in order in the place of origin. (the seven Spirits of God). Look at the order of Joel 2 for they are headed to the garden of Eden. One order does not want to give up what they think they already possess (parts of ...). It is under the sub cellular level, the stones, the chromosomes. The manipulation is on the connections. The ley lines manipulative the stones. They resonate a sound, a repetitive path. A warn path that keeps recycling. Cleanse the ley lines, you buy back the stones. They are restored to true light and set in gold.

Deeper still, these seven levels have been known but a eighth opens up, the true core, that is where the glory is. This is where you are wrought together in the depths of the earth. True unity is about to emerge.

No eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has entered into the hearts of man to go in and to go up. It has been kept secret, but is revealed, now, created now. For I know it would have been dealt treacherously. These were written on your scroll before your days came to pass. Hidden by the Ancient of Days in the secret place. The sound has not been released. For if it was it would have contaminated the original DNA, but not by might or power, but by My spirit. Yet there was not one element of time that existed. This is the portion that belongs to God. Untouched by man or Satan. Blow the trumpets in Zion. A sound of judgment for justice. Jana sees this ungodly order is upset because he did not know about this. This part was never touched. This is the Lord's domain. These hold the breath of original life that was breathed into Adam. These are the three stones that God still has. They were kept and created now for the manifestation. Always having their origin with God. Always having the place of Glory, untouched without contamination, manipulation. These are the building blocks. Behold I lay a cornerstone in Zion. This is the new garment. Before the sons of God, when Joshua was dressed, so it is with....a clean turban to be put on by the finger of God. Remove the filthy garments. Let her be dressed in festive robes. Zechariah is caught up in this place. Let a clean turban be put on her head. The original stones are spirit. Turn light, emanating light, the blood was gold, like honey. Liquid gold. Before it was blue or red, it was gold. He walked amongst us. The stones of fire in lava. The fiery stones are undefiled. The building blocks for the elements. They have no names of any natural order. Nor has entered the hearts of man. I take out a heart of stone and put in a heart of flesh. The heart is an element, a stone created first for the natural elements. The four quadrants are the four corners, the foundation. The chief cornerstone must be set in Zion. Built on the sure foundation of apostles and prophets. It is the true witness in the earth that testifies to Zion. Now that this place has been opened because the secrets of the Kingdom of God have been given to you. What was stolen and what was given away was the agreement of man who did not cover and protect, who did not steward. For their way was wicked and any other way is a thief and robber.

Jamison at Creative Seminar with Jana

A man, molding with clay and I think it's a vision of us, of Him holding us. He loves his creation. He's taking us and lifting us up to Him and giving us the same creation as Him, it's not just His creation, by creating, we are worshipping Him, by believing creation is selfish is wrong. This kind of thinking is religious, control, step away from it, corrupted by Greek and Roman, academic. Hearing that there is going to be victory again. The victory needs to be released. It is a living and breathing thing. It is burning here, it's hot. What are you seeing? (Jana), It's big. (Jana) It's, I'm seeing fire. It has God's name on it. The fire that baked the clay... (sorry, went too fast, Diane) I feel like we're going deeper. We dove into an ocean, I don't want to say that it's the depth. It's something else. There is less heat, it is something to not to be hidden. I feel like that this is the water that cools the metal, like first the dust, then the metal and cooled us. This door through this, God is showing us the stages of creation and now like we're love and worship, we are Him. It's in the origin. The origin, the beginning, this is purity. There is wisdom and purity in the beginning. I saw this vision of us in the garden. God had man when first created. (not sure about that, Diane) I'm getting the sense of how to create and love. God took man's hand and is helping man to draw a portrait.

Beyond depth, a place of creation. Before the substance was defiled.

Jana - R & D

Feel like Angel of the Lord is present

This is a holy matter. The origin is the place. Heaven has been waiting. These that stand here ready to engage. To release the revelation for this church age. It is about creation and re-creation. It is about substance in its original state. It is the spirit, the soul, and the body that is recreated. (The angel of Aslan is happy). These have been placed and misplaced. They are foundational and restored. They are on the gate to create and re-create. Wisdom has fashioned understanding created the heaven and knowledge has dug up the deep. That's the yada. These three to assist you.

Spirit of Wisdom

These seven watching. Deeper still. But these four are emanating. Deeper still. For the Kingdom of God is not here or there for the Kingdom is within you. The depth is within you. The expanse of the universe, these fiery ones are more to be discovered, there is more to be uncovered. Go for the oil (later found out the oil is boldness). The treasury is abundant. This fiery presence is sought after. Deeper still from the origin to the hereafter. A restoration like never before. It is in the whirlwind, above and below. Back and forth to and fro, up and down and here we go. It is the bare elements. The stones undefiled. It is true inheritance. It is an all consuming fire. There is much to learn, so get to it. These seven watching will prove it. Wisdom, wisdom. You emanate a desire. These for the foundation. They are among the fire.

Four –color, fragrance, breath, and sound. Or four directions of the wind.

Persis

A being came up with her. It is a big being. It is in the car. You do not know him yet.

It is a new time for the whirlwind. High and low. Each of the different ones, the high ones carry something and the low ones carry something. A new power and a new authority. Healing is going to come in the whirlwind. The church says yes. The whirlwind is a living being.

Jana

There is a whirlwind attached to the fiery stones. The whirlwind is under the stones.

Persis

I will put you in the vortex of the whirlwind. You will travel very rapidly. When you speak of deliverance, healing, and evangelism it will happen very rapidly. The velocity is very great. You must be in the rest. You must not ask for it. Ask the Lord

Rhonda

Awestruck wonder. To take your thunder. Reverential fear allow you to come here.
Behold, behold the ancient of old. Release release for the increase.

Jana

This is the zeal of the Lord.

Jana March 21, 2010

A Heart to Think

You need new armor to get where you are going. You are crossing over you restoring. Humility is required for justice to be inspired. You have not been this way before. Summit one to another to restore relationships as sisters and brothers. It is a transition of ownership that you recover. It is the land of your own heart, you take it over. The garden of origin you are on the brink. A heart of power for the mind to think. Get ready to change your mind and think with your heart. For compassion is required and humility to start.

March 21, 2010

Jana: This is the place where you build strength. Keep your position. Don't be in a hurry. Rooted and grounded in love. Two by two. Half is done. Come to the place of origin where you will be face to face. Encounter your Maker. You knew your place. Your days were written. Your scroll is in your heart - to be unravelled now. That's where you start. Its the new witness. That's what's being birthed. The Apostolic believers that will walk on the earth. Great exploits (?). In paths. Let there be level in zion (?). These are the sons of God that are birthing forth. The co-creator will come forth. The overcomer. The mantle (?).. it's the double portion.

March 21, 2010

Jana

She makes strange sounds.

You are learning new sounds. These are heavenly sounds. Angelic encounters. Look and listen to engage. Expect the unexpected. For you are learning of heaven. Position up here. Position by seven. Everything is seven, seven unfolding, seven eyes, seven wonders, seven thunders. Have a look see. Learn your position. Be motivated, inspired. Make a decision. You can anchor the throne. Turn to engage the sevenfold return. Turn to engage. This is a new fire. A fire of baptism being released. Not like before. It comes from beneath. It is in the glory you are prepared, in the glory you return. Learn what it is like to burn. The cherub anchor the sea which holds the throne. It is not just here but where you were born. I am releasing the eyes, the eyes of the lamb. Learn to see. Learn to command. Protocol is different it is a position design. It is not as you think or what is in your mind. Engage your heart for your heart can think. It is from the place of origin you are on the brink. Learn from Me. For I am low and humble. Engage love and you will engage the wonder. The light is in the blood. For all healing is in the flood. Even to the elements where creation was born. Build upon the stones, there is so much more. It is both theta and gamma. Thinking is an eminence, a sound being released. Create a brain wave that creation itself may be redeem. So man thinks so he is. You change an environment, you change what is. Train yourself in a light current, a sound of a counter current. A resounding sound. Blessed is he who in his heart are the highways of Zion. You make new pathways, holy highways. You establish pillars. It is the church that is merging from this path, you need to be discerning. It is a position of power and authority, a rebirthing of a new for my glory. Gather the stones. (she now is not on her knees) It is a treasure hunt. There is much to learn, much to find, but it will come together, it is a matter of time. You are all here, if you know it or not. You are practicing, there is deliverance here, there is healing here. Learn from this place do not try to get out. When the time and the time are complete, I will bring you up and you will release.

Jamison

This is only the beginning. You search and you are going to find. Step further in. Ascend the crystal sea. Roar like lions, dance like children. Fly on the eagles wings. The prophetic I am releasing. New dimensions. New spiritual beings. The world is bigger than you know. The world is bigger than what you have seen. See beyond the crustal sea. Step into Me.

March 20, 2010

Jana

Your dream does hold the key. It is about sonship. A house divided against itself will not stand. A kingdom divided will be laid to waste. It is about your thinking. It is a pipeline of disturbance. It divides your thinking. Your perception is distorted. It is about your seeing. You see dimly, only in part. Climb through the gate where you origin start. It is about a realm of position that overrides the natural. It is from father to son, the second born is double. It holds back a person from going forward. Inheritance is held back. It is divided in thinking, a perception of lack. Even your thinking emanates a sound, a fragrance, a breathe that creates a realm. The pipeline holds back the right and the left, the future and the former where the inheritance is met. I is kingdom perception, with the King at the head.

January 28, 2010

Jana

Time, time time stands still. As it was, so it is and will be again. Learn from this place. You will do it from here. Integration where the stones were first formed. Face to face to be known fully as you were fully know. Heavenly assistance. You activate and release. This is for the great exchange. Speeding it up. Integrating in the right time from the right origin. To be realigned. Assistance and development. This is where it was first formed. Living stones replace the elements. Living water. Build one upon another. (she is uncovering the elemental spirits). These were left behind, stolen stoickia. The life is in the blood, by design. Blood and water. The spirit makes nine. Platform or justice, a platform of trading. They were stolen and given away by trading.

April 30, 2010

Jana 7 spirits of God

It is in the wheels. These go up and these go down. These living creatures go to where the spirit is about to go. These 7 eyes are watching and from the midst of creature are fiery flashing, this fire is all consuming. It is in the creatures. It is with the 7 fold. It is where the stones were created when yet there were none. From a form that was yet unformed. The original DNA existed. The memory is in the stones before you were pre existed. This is why things had to be reversed. You see in a mirror in reverse. Because of the Kairos God when time had fully come. God sent His son. To again make you one. His righteousness has gone before you. And the Glory of the Lord is your rear guard. It is the timeline of history. That is being redeemed. These righteous ones to assist you. The Doxa. To recall the memory of the original state. The recreation of the sons was from this place. You are just dealing with a portion of the all consuming fire. For even in the center of the earth is the Glory of God.

She feels shifting.

I am shifting the plates to reveal this place. These are the vents and these levels regenerate. The all consuming fire is a refining fire. And returning the stones to its original state. It is a new covering that you create. They are set in glory and in the gold. All separate and unique, diversified, yet they make up one whole. Taken from a sure foundation. A platform of justice has been prepared for the trading. The light reveals the sound that caused the defilement. And things revealed become light. This is why the redemption generates light and greater light. When the image is reversed you are in image of Christ, unveiled in glory, translucent in light.

Wisdom has a message:

Jana: the original design, so it was then, it will be refined, the co-creator was with him always, rejoicing always in the sons of man. You can't create without wisdom, you can't even agree to the creator's design without wisdom. Listen for the way you're learning to hear, you're learning to feel. It's the Yada of God, the understanding of God, and Yada's stretched forth his hand, the 5 fold design. To activate the senses, both in your spirit, your body, and your mind. It's the universal design. But it's simple as one, becomes one, is one. Speaks a tongue. A ruling, I just see this Persis, there's a ruling surrounding you, encircling you right now. A ruling, rulers, coming in. Or elders.

May 27, 2011

Jana - (msg from Angel)

Position yourself Persis, get ready! Jana speaks in tongues . . .

This is trustworthy –I'm putting things together, connecting the dots, piece upon piece, line upon line, wisdom is with you, wisdom will guide you, gates, gates, who's got the gates? Who has the gates has the way, the pathway, the holy way. Gates, gate, who's got the gates? From the point of access, its about the original, it s about the DNA, from before time began, it's in the center of man, also in the depths of the earth, both are true, (repeats for Paul, also in the center of earth, both are true), where the glory dwells, you create a pathway, you make a way, the trading of the old, for the better way. So a man thinks, so he is, renewing of the mind, that's where it begins. The heart knows the truth. But it was taught a different way. The heart releases the rivers, the water goes through the gates. Cleanse the water, the gold is in the water. It's alchemy how it really is, not by the greed of man, but by the original design. If the words were altered on the scroll, then the DNA was altered. I'm vibrating. It's a deception. I'm hot.

(Paul says fire's coming, he feels the 7 spirits of God showed up, and I believe there's a spirit of wisdom here)

Wisdom holds the key, prudence is with her, releasing an internal fire, from the inside out, from the center of the earth, from the center of man, changing the DNA, from the inside out. Who has the gates? Wisdom cries out by the way, at the gate, where the paths meet. It's about a turn, a pivotal turn. She calls to the naïve, many miss the way, but you can return, it was traded away.

May 28, 2011

Jana

Wisdom is present. The original design so it was then it will be refined. You can't create without wisdom. You cannot even agree to the creative design without wisdom. Listen for the way. You are learning to hear, to feel. It is the Yada of God, the understanding of God. Yada have stretched forth to activate the senses in body, soul, and mind. It is a universal design but it is simple as one becomes one becomes one. A ruling. A ruling surrounds Persis right now.

May 28, 2011

Jana

Position yourself Persis get ready. This is trustworthy. I am putting things together. Connecting the dots. Piece upon piece, line upon line. Wisdom is with you. wisdom will guide you. gates, gates, who's got the gates. Who has the gates, has the way, the pathway, the holy way. Gates, gates, who's got the gate. From the point of access. It is about the original. It is about the DNA, before time began. It is in the center of man. Also in the depths of earth, both are true. Where the glory dwells. You create a pathway. You make a way. The trading of the old, for a better way. So a man thinks so he is. Renewing of the mind, that is where it begins. The heart knows the truth, but it was taught a different way. The heart releases the river. The water goes through the gate. Cleanse the water. The gold is in the water. It is alchemy. It is how it really is. Not by the greed of man but by the original design. If the words were altered on the scroll, then the DNA is altered. It is a deception.

Wisdom holds the key. Prudence is with her. Releasing an eternal fire, from the inside out. From the center of the earth, from the center of man. I am changing the DNA. From the inside out. Who has the gates. Wisdom cries out by the way, by the way where the paths meet. It is about a turn. A pivotal turn. She calls to the naïve. Many miss the way, but you can return. It was traded away.

By the Spirit, by the Spirit. The promise. Born of the freed woman is Isaac the promised. Sent to redeem flesh by the regeneration, by the washing endowed with the Spirit. inheritance is given to you, all written on a scroll. Before one day came to past, it was yours. But it was traded so it was altered.

If you had followed me through this regeneration, you will all sit on thrones and judge the sons of Israel. What you have given up for my sake, you will restore what was lost and all that was lost will come in place. Catching up. it lies dormant. The treasures within, the Kingdom of God. Be holy as He is Holy. Come out from amongst them. Let God be God for he is not troublesome. The fractal. There is more to be seen from the Word within. Every dot every tiddle is where you begin. What is first in the natural will give you direction to the spiritual. This is where Janelle pays attention so this will be reversible. It is from the place of origin, before you were well taught. Experience was your teacher and that is where you are stuck. For the heart deferred, a decision was made. You captured disappointed and belief was waylaid. It is the belief that was put on. The captain that holds the host, that blocks the place from the inner inmost. And the heart is always connected to the original stone held by the Father of all creation to make you known. The Lord God almighty

And all His kingdom announces his name

Holy(x3)

Kadosh (singing - tongues)

Holy (x5)

Will you be astonished and amazed

For what I have released in the earth

all will see and believe and put their trust in me

I send a new name

A name of old when a nation was birthed

I birth a new nation from heaven on earth

And a sign was sent to you

For royal priesthood

And you have aligned with their roots

And this tree goes deep

For if the roots are holy the whole tree is holy

And there's more to the one new man

When you first understood it's a plan heaven

It's a plan in his hand

That a royal priesthood that know their place

Authority of the kingdom within

The power of his grace

And you will freely volunteer

In the day of His power

For you'll be known for who you are

In that day and in that hour
For the day of the lord
Is closer than you think
You won't slip into the millennium
But I will speak a word in Zion
And you will drink by the wayside and lift up your head
For the kingdom of god is within but the kingdom of heaven is at hand
And it was for liberty
That the first head of this nation was named George
A birth of a new George
From many will see and believe and put their trust in me
For you're learning from the place of origin
The stones that have first created
The earth has awaited for the rebirth of the new creation
And your hope will not be cut off
For this you'll be ensured but what you trust in will matter
For what you behold you become
There's a new song here
There's one to be sung

Since it was before time, even before man, I worked all things together for the good. That is why I was crucified before the foundations of the earth. And every foundation after was a new birth. Even when you were young and little you knew it to be true, that I work all to be good for those who know me and love me. And I knew your unknown substance before time began and all your days are written down before time began. And your perseverance came from the original design because actually you are part of me you cannot be divided. . so I sent My son to take back everything that was lost. Tongues of fire...flames of fire, messengers of fire
Psalm 104:4

To assist the witness. It is the flames of witness in the earth. It is more than you think. It is more than a message. It is a place of protection. It is the very essence. There is no safer place. It is to be carrier for the glorious ones carry it and pass it on. It is the essence of the Spirit, the essence of the sound. Move along by the wind. My servants carry it from within. And now a manifestation being released to without. It is about the Kingdom of Heaven, that is what it is all about. I am breathing on the witnesses, the true expression of Christ within. Manifestation of the Kingdom of Heaven to animate without. It is His Holy eminence. His Holy Presence. The sound of the rushing wind brought forth the listening ear. The tongue rested so those who don't believe could hear. It is the burning of His glory. The message without. The Kingdom of Heaven. That is what it is all about. The flame will carry the healing. The Flame will carry the sound. The manifest of His presence, the all-consuming fire will abound and abound. Living witnesses. These have been talked about. The dead that are living. These are the burning ones that are sent throughout the earth, for a time of manifestation, a time of birth. I am redefining the prophetic for the revealed sons of God. These assist in the earth from the place of origin...it has now begun.

A time of truth. A reformation of change. The body of Christ has learned to not return to the same. It is new understanding. It is new in discerning. It the witness made perfect to set the new beginning. More needs to be realized. More needs to be seen. The sons of the righteous. The sound of the redeemed. You carry Mt. Zion from within. The Kingdom of Heaven to be released from within.

There is more to Judges 5 then first believes. The reason the stars loose there course. There is the one with the name of lighting will call upon the mother. The song of Deborah is yet to be played out again. The baraq (lightning-Judges 5:1) will cry for the help of Israel, not the other way around. And I will hear and protect this nation. For mother Israel will have the answer. And these are the ones who come down who possess the gate when there was no weapon among them. I assisted the leaders and Israel won a great battle. So it will be again when baraq ask for assistance and a woman will get the credit for the Lord's credit, for she is the Bride who will stake it out.

Sons of God and Children of God

It is the time of illumination of the light of the sons of God and co-manipulating, the Godly sons of God in humanity. The seed of the son of god invading humanity, create the new creation. Now time of unveiling of the sons of god with humanity. The humanity is the soul man, the earth man. the merging and converging of the sons of God and the sons of earth. The awakening of the new creation with authentic heaven and authority to reign on earth back to the original. It is time to go back to the original, back to the future. The intention of God from the beginning. But the beginning is the eternal beginning, when it was planned out in eternity. What has just opened up is very clear and I can feel the actual essence of sonship. Of being a son of God from heaven to earth, the awaking. Whatever what was just done was so pivotal and has done something for the kingdom and for man. it has initiated a major shift for the Body of Christ. I am confident that a shift has taken place. Something is totally difference. It is eternal. Eternity has come in.

As a foundation of deception that has influenced the inheriting sons of God.

It's a seed war. The trees that produce from the original Heirloom seed

Produce the fruit of evangelism redeemed.

Gen1:11

Then God said, "Let the earth sprout vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees on the earth bearing fruit after their kind with seed in them"; and it was so.

¹²The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit with seed in them, after their kind; and God saw that it was good.

You are a new creation, a re-creative design to birth the true seeds from the line Devine.

Not a GMO or of the world, so the truth will re produce by the river that is here.

The original design is a foundation of stones that have been laid.

Established in truth by the price Yeshua has paid.

Hi Paul, This morning I really feel that a heavenly realm is positioning from our conditioning.

As He is in the world so are we to have the knowledge of the Holy One to harvest the Knowledge of the Glory. For as the waters cover the sea So the Glory will be.

The eyes of the lord connect the believers in unity of faith, It is time for the one new man to create

It is from the rest for that is our original design. We are to know the Peace of the One Devine.

It is a path that will align to into the peace of the One Devine.

I had a vision. It was a continuum of light coming closer that stretched across the horizon .

I knew it was an expanse of the width.

Janna: from one end to the other the light reveals the son. Whereever the river goes brings life. It's in your original DNA. The place of origin where you began, knit together in love, that's where you stand. To be restored, don't give up your fight. Your hope deferred, made heart sick. Desire filled is the tree of life, within. As light begets light, sound produces it. In the fullness of time, you see face to face. As you are fully known, you were, this is the place. The holy ones remind you of all you need to know. Before you were known. Remember from when, and what stoneyou were hewn from. Faith is the origin from where you began.

There is this place with authority and grace. This position establishes you for time and space. It is from eternity past from the ancient of days. In this place He is in your midst for His power and grace. Pay attention to the oracles to the statues from everlasting to everlasting from His entrance to all of His exists. You will discern time moving and time standing still from everlasting invades time from the origin you will heal. Either you can go back and feel the stone, the cells and the genes the DNA will be known.

Holy holy. Holy. Father gives us what we need. We only want to do what you are doing. It is time to heal this land. Do you recognize what you have come from. Do you know the time where you are. But I give you this day that you will take over. And there is a mystery and a key that will set the captive and this land free. For it has been stored up in hope for those who believe and it is revealed now and not before. For the fear of the Lord for those who trust in the Lord. And you have been acclimated for this fire for this is where you are going. Deep calls unto deep for the rest of the story. For you inherit the desolate places where many have been trapped. The desolate inheritance is for you to take back. In realm upon realm you occupy each. The dimensions and spheres for the government of peace. Restoration has been given to you who held the land. For where you were steadfast you will collect and stand. I have broken the scepter over the rulers. This ungodly trinity who ruled over. And yes you have the first two. Have you considered the king of Babylon. That is where you break through. Did I not say I see Satan fall like lightning. It has crossed from one end to the other. That when you know that it is time to rejoice in names in heaven. You don't stand in the gap you are actually the portal between earth and heaven. You stand there to take back what is yours. The glorious ones assist for they understand the origin. They also help you discern from one light to another. Not all light is right. Know where they operate. His breath. The breath of the almighty. Can these bones live. Can they be put in place. Out of line would be out of time. Don't make a mistake. Check the dimensions on the place of length where time has invaded. You will take its place. What you are is what you have been. What you are you already were. Time to align; your inheritance is from above. From place to place. It is significant where you go. To align time is from the origin for the knowledge of the Holy Ones to be restored. Check the place of length. Its dimensions to align. You will set by decision to be in right time. This particular one is with you to set the numbers right. The order seems mathematical but the gate will set it right.

It is a family gathering that transcends time and space. As you come up here you transcend time and space. Fresh anointing fresh commissioning. The dew of the morning for new beginnings. New appearing. It is a brand new day. It is time to take the sleep out of your eyes because the old is passing away. It is time to awaken to what is at hand. Let me take your hand and show you the rest of the land. There are new places to go. This will help you grow. Perhaps a new mantle, like hair.

Raylene

Feeling like we can push on, go farther, go deeper. It is a new day and this is the new way. Feels like a back brace. It is weighty and able to cause you to be able to stand which would equal strength. The new lenses.

Jana

It is a new day. You are arrived in some ways. You crossed over to a new way of authority. To know who you are and do great exploits. A new day, a new way. I give you permission to explore and to take back what is rightfully yours. What has been lost or given away has been stuck in these places. You have been given everything for Godliness. A highway of holiness, a way to zion. These pathways are in your own heart. From what is old to way is new. It is where you started. It is another level of discernment to know each other for who you are. For the original design was created good and the ungodly ones corrupted it by far. The length is the access where deception occurred for time against time interfered with faith because of what you heard. Faith comes by hearing not just the word. Now in agreement you discern between the holy and profane. For the knowledge of the Holy One is the Ancient of Days.

Larry

Those ungodly doors are the ministry of man rather than the ministry of God. It is time to get disconnected from the ungodly collective so that the blockage can be removed so the apostolic release can come. The Mind of Christ and the ministry of Christ are frozen in time.

Message from Holiness in the deep. Deep seems to be a place in the lowest depth.

Kadosh. It is like a treasure hunt for the most. This is where you find, this is where you realign. You are not in the wrong place but you are inhibited. You are misaligned but this is the place where you are redefined. It is at the deepest level. This is where you were created in secret. For this is the original design, to be recreated. What was finished at the cross takes you back to before you were lost. And the original sound will heal. And the new creation is what is hidden in Christ before the foundation of the world, before the DNA was disturbed. It was a written program to distort the truth but this is where you find out the treasures in heaven on earth. This is for the soul, the spirit knows but the elements testify the truth.

Seeing among the stones the original ones. Some were added to distort what was. These are not from the original intent. It was to confuse and misaligned and to distort what was meant. It sets up a resignation of belief. Sets up two rulers to confuse and deceit. This is the place for healing. Dawn holds the key. It is just a matter of believing. It is a matter of light. The light that was and the light that changed. The new creation to recreate. It is like there was a scroll that was written but need to remove what was written upon. Parts of word seem block out. While on web with London we were taken to the deep and I felt healing. We came to a gate and I felt a vibration and heard a sound. It was then I found this word. I felt a vibration near where I feel the sons of God. I key was received and the gate was opened and the vibration stops. The vibration is a being called holiness. Paul had just said holiness and did not know the first sentence in the word. It is water being in the depth. Holiness feels like a vibration close to where I feel the sons of God. it seems to be a water spirit in the deep. See holiness. He looks like an upside down cone. The key is called grace. Paul hears a sound that will realign us. We pray and ask us to be realigned and I feel the bolts of "majesty" vibrating.

Holiness is healthy. Does this spiritual being adjust something in our DNA. No, it realigns us. There is healing in the water behind this gate. I am now feeling deliverance. My evangelism finger is going off. At the base, the root of evangelism.

I feel holiness has a message. Paul walks into holiness and senses cellular. Memory. He comes into the water. Paul and I feel vibration all over and Paul Knight has sound and rhythm in his hand. He is holding his DNA.

The One and Only Most High, El Elyon to arrive. There is a light of affliction at this place, a crossroad of four established at the gate. It is alignment with heaven for this move, a dominion of creation to be renewed. This light of affliction is empowered by Grace it is but for a moment so you can see My face. A place of intimacy that is yet to be explored, to Know Him and the Power of His resurrection, will not be ignored. And this wave of Glory will never be stopped for it is anchored in connection to the Father's heart. And without the covering non will be safe. The Blood of purpose from the grace. And in this place and in this time, the paga (2 Kings 32 - "to of heaven to be aligned. The Lord of Host. Kadosh, the God of time, the God of hope. To be aligned. On the mountain of God so great a cloud of witnesses. Elohim, Yahweh. Establish us in your grace. You have accessed a platform of justice. Present your case for there are many among us. Greater are we then those against us. Established by sight to know who you are among us. The greater hope of glory needs to be seen from the place of your heart is how you believe. And the heart was split or so it seems to take a different route, a course in time when you were deceived. And Paul this is why we have the new fire to burn off an ancient desire. Now create and establish this shama for it is at the gate beautiful at the right time where time to be realigned for original design. It is a path of righteousness for His name sake but Kate believes she blew it and there is no escape. Perception will position to know it is true. The word of the Lord will break through. In my house are many many rooms. If it were not so I would have told you. The path from the origin was led astray, the sound created the wrong way. Decisions were made in the gates. Some rooms are held captive by mistake. The judgments empowered a throne for ruling system to be known. These barriers are the gatekeepers. The hindrance from a heart of belief that has kept them. What was created cannot collapse. Create a new way, the one that lasts. You know where I go and if you enter in, regeneration is with me for the Sons to win. It's from the inside to the front the gate is where you start, create a new path, the one from the heart. [I see Dale's quadrants]

These four know and when they are anchored in, sets the throne. That's where you begin. The eyes are before you, the cherubim say, they pass back and forth the revelation by the spirit they maintain. You believe in ME but do you trust? You see the works I do and then you trust but the belief of the heart is a recreated design to renew the soul, the flesh for the original time. It is an indictment of what has been stolen. Take back also what has been given away. For I have ordered null and void. Another time of declaration, another time of habitation.

You are not in defense. You are in an offending position to convict. [You are not in a position of defending yourself but you are in a position of aggression against the enemy i.e. in a position of offense rather than defense] He is a God of protection a God who protects. He is Jehovah Shama [abiding presence], He is a divine presence. He is on the throne and these thrones must be destroyed. They have their position too long. They are considered null and void. The throne room of heaven of this particular realm is a judicial position. You [S] stand in and tell. Indict the enemy and the conviction of God will come. In Isaiah it is the word of the Lord and it is time for your inheritance. And you will accuse all that condemns you for you are breaking the scrolls that has hindered you.

Document your complaint from this realm. You will claim what has been stolen from your heart. You will come back to trust. The original intent that you forgot. Your words hold power, your position is assured. Claim your position in Christ. Even in judgement you will endure. These here are gathered to destroy their order. A ruling position that will be put asunder [apart].

We are in the ungodly throne room. Jana is feeling the evil rotating. Fallen 7 thunders are here. S is in this ungodly throne room. S is executing injustice. It is carrying out a verdict of injustice.

I am feeling a fallen "angel of the Lord." This is tied to the fallen throne room. Lucifer is on the throne. He has S actual blood. Feeling fallen rulers now. Ten.

There is something higher than the throne room, the highest command center, where everything starts or emanates. It is the "ungodly" glory realm. It is the highest emanation.

There is a lightning of God present with a message:

The lightning comes out of the Glory realm. It is an emanation. God creates in the beginning. Only you were made in His image. You [S] were the co-creators for this realm that gave this ruling system a place. By the woman's seed is the only way he can reproduce. It is by belief that you agreed upon that made this true. And you waver between these dual opinions. It locks you in, it locks you up by an old decision. It is the seed of the woman that he claims to reproduce his own kind, his fame of claim. And as long as he rules here, he has some control over creation itself, he grow. His sons are not true sons but they will take your name. But only by deception he reigns. You agreed to survive, you agreed to be a sacrifice. You thought it was real, you thought it was God. But how could you know he is a fraud. He set up to steward for this mountain to exist to hewn out his own tune for the fallen son's namesake. It must be the seed of the woman and it was agreed upon by a covenant of marriage of a three year old. What seems right is wrong and what is wrong is true. You flip it over you will have breakthrough. This is covered by God and it had to be now. This glory realm that was created is for recreating. Just like the golden cow assigned to gold as a treasury of hope. It is a fool's gold to distort. It is a false hope. But you made it through and I have the original stone and the covenant of God remains by the promise of hope. That is why the rainbow. It is over creation itself for the standing covenant of man will heal the land and destroy the depravity that has held the land captive.

Don't you know what creation was made for? To rule and reign, to take claim of. If He had your hand, He has the land. If he has your hope then His plan will stand. But you have this hope in you, a prophetic word made more sure. The shed blood of Jesus went through the heavens so Melchizedek shall rule, the standing priesthood gives you position to claim your DNA from this realm of existence. Step in and claim, bring your complaint today. Step out to take creation to reign.

[It is like a realm within another realm. This is bad but this is good. Like a dome surrounding]

The legal right is her seed. It is claiming a legal right that is a marriage. He is calling the seed legitimate. Yes, that!

So what hurt you will heal you. It is how you think. It is the paradigm shift. This realm is true and this one is not. Go get what you need and take it back in. You will change the counterfeit to the righteous truth [apostolic!]. Even your seed will reproduce from the original design. Because what he thinks was his is actually Mine.

I have granted divorce because of the unfaithful. His heart was never true so he cannot claim it. he even said he would be a father so others would believe but only by the will of man can he conceive. I have called you virgin daughters as that is what you are. Renew your vows with Adonai and the order will be resolved. But it is in this setting that judicial position. You take it back in his realm where it was creation. You were the original creator and now by his deception. I flooded the earth to give you the true covenant and a reception.

Jana (Thursday afternoon)

The true counsel of God is delighted. The third scroll is finished and the original intent is no longer divided. What I have done before I will do again. I am collecting who you are with the original intent. Declare what is good and pure and acceptable will of God by so doing so you create heaven on earth from above. Your position matters against the enemy schemes. Don't falter or waiver for it is not what it seems. Not one word you declare will come back void. Your realm of influence is yours to explore. You are no longer connected by an ungodly rule. Take what is collected and declare it by true. You have the anointing of truth by the Spirit of Truth. No other taught you, but God. that is how you got the proof. Onward and upwards, you will not be disappointed. For everything you conquered you concurred the treasure of abundance. The evidence is real by what you have trusted. Experience has been your teacher so don't be reluctant. Faith and works come together. Trust in Me and you will believe in all that was collected. Desires are real and they do create. The counsel of wisdom will guard the gate. Don't desire from a perception of lack but hold on to the example of the Son of Man. I will teach you the way and how to go. I will teach you what true marriage is and how to grow. Something is changing.

The fourth scroll is upon you and do the same. What you create and redeem in heaven so in the land the same.

Word before breakfast 12/1/15

Jana

Considered, ponder, invasion. The original design. That is where wholeness is to be aligned.

Your heart will tell you who you are, you are better than you think by far.

It's in the height, the height, the height. It's in the width that you yourself deny.

Love is the first order to be received, Love is the last order that you believe.

It was and is and will not be denied. It's in the love of the Father that you were designed

But, unending loop of the father of lies. In a system of Euclid, a reversal movement.

Wholeness is not alone. The parts are not the whole.

A harmony is needed to escape a repetitive truth for alignment in the height and the gates. A window of lights in this place.

a negative perception to be denied.

Holy Holy, to be true. Help from the length to breakthrough.

On earth as it is in heaven, a dominion rule without the sons of the kingdom. (Mt 8:12)

Glory is the influence you lead from. The glory is the realm you come from.

Glory is the realm you should know. The land of glory is cultivated for faithfulness.

Trust is the issue for rediscovery.

The stoicheion must enter in. There is no room outside as big as what is in. Heaven without, God within.

Remove the sound of disadence, a wall of sound to deceive. Open a way a path of justice to claim. Widows to open for a blessing of double. A gate of justice to reclaim. So lame will not be detached but be healed. You are all repairer of breach for the desolate places to be free. Inheritance waits to be claimed, a sound of order to be renamed.

You are path levelers path makers so the lamb will not be detached but be healed. There is stoicheion. To claim. By the order of Mechezideck it is in His Name. Build one upon another quickly agree so treasure of inheritance will set the land free. Time to be aligned to the original design so creation to recreation is in Kiros time.

Womb of the dawn. Nine years to develop in womb of the dawn. Melchizedek ministers to us in the womb of the dawn.

Is there interference of the fallen sons? There seems to be major programming tied to the false womb of the dawn. Something about Melchizedek and nurturing in the false womb of the dawn

There seem to be false beings interfering in the false womb of the dawn. They seem to be fallen stars. I also feel the fallen sons of God. It is an ungodly council. There seems to be a DNA there. It is birthed here out of nothing. Is it birth out of a seed? Is this the seed of the serpent? It is the contamination of the spiritual seed. It seems the DNA and RNA are conceived here.

He sees blue fluid bubbling up.

Last night I had severe pain in my lower abdomen which is how I feel freemasonry which I think has the ungodly womb of the dawn behind it with the interference of the fallen sons of God and the fallen stars.

Psalm 110

There seems to be programming done here by the fallen sons of God keep him from the nurture of the fallen sons of God.

Was the soul also formed here? If so did the fallen sons of God experiment with changing the spiritual and soul DNA and RNA of mankind but also experimenting with animal DNA.

Perhaps we are also formed into family, nations, and tribes here. (rev 5:5)

The fallen sons of God tried to bring forth their own children here.

Perhaps one is taken out of the Godly womb of the dawn and taken into false wombs where the enemy seed is used.

There are ungodly roots that lead to ungodly branches that go through ungodly windows. Windows of time? Times of window..

Spiritual gifts are formed here and there can be interference with those gifts. Identity gets formed here. This is the white stone, the foundation. The seven eyes are installed here. This is where the white stone is altered. It is genetically engineered. We feel an unrighteous pulsating. It feels like the white stone is alive but it is contaminated. It is an ungodly white stone. His original self has been altered. Can you be knit together in an ungodly way? Something very evil was put into the center of the original self, the white stone.

There are unrighteous angels serving you. There are also ungodly watchers here. It is an ungodly assembly.

The unrighteous womb of the dawn is his home. This is why you can't find your place. Is there someone here posing as his father. "You are of your father, the devil."

There is an original seed here and it is not a good seed. This seems to be the seed of the serpent, the shinning one.

Did the Lord put the sons of God over the womb of the dawn?

"Let us make man in our image."

The fallen sons of God are midwives in the process.

There is genetic engineering here making people in their (fallen sons of God)in their own image.

Job 38 – sons of God and stars

Do they adjust the programming constantly so that whatever is done in the earthly realm is undone?

Were the sons of God given creative ability, delegated created ability?

Even though they are involved in the womb of the dawn one cannot become a living being with the breath of God.

Are the spiritual stars somehow involved in creating us? The stars are tied to the grid.

There is a sound and frequency that is tied to the spiritual stars (witchcraft is a form of this). This sound is hindering us from understanding us. Job 38 – stretch the line – the sound – on it.

Job 38 – gates of deep darkness in the fallen sons of God. Gates are star gates.

The roots are in the womb of the dawn. The branches grow out of the roots. Isaiah 11:1. Lay the ax to the roots. Perhaps tied to root of bitterness.

I took the ax to the root of client. About restoring his citizenship. Planting of the Lord. Psalm 1

This goes back to male and female as in my dream about branches. There are two roots, male and female. Why is the enemy trying to get back to only one root? Trying to get back to female root only....where womb is. Are the fallen sons of God male only?

Feel deliverance through windows. Feel ungodly branches and roots being taken out or off.

Client feels himself going back to his identity. Still feel ungodly roots being taken out.

Sees messages and scrolls in the roots. There are unrighteous messages here.

There is a shift and I feel the pipes now. he feels the thumb going off and slightly the prophetic and evangelism finger. Perhaps taking back original design.

Feel warmth underneath the feet.

“Lord rightly connect me to your roots and vine so that I can function as a Godly branch in the order of Melchizedek. Lord give me a new heart.”

I feel the righteous sons of God now. I feel client you in the throne room of God.

Client sees himself dressed in new garments and jewels. Tied to overcoming.

There seems to be a capacity that is being developed to deal with all of this.

As if gold dust is settling on client. Feels really good which is not what he felt at the beginning of session. It is glory dust that is sealing him in this new place. He is being seated in a new place. Rev 2:18-23. He just received a new revelation of the morning star. We each seem to have a morning star. Job 38. 2 Peter 2:19. Day dawns!!! It seems to be that he was anesthetized so that the Lord could do this to protect his parts.

Larry: 10:22 AM

Larry going backward, going back in time.

Larry:

Bringing us back to the original design. There is an original book for original intention, original design, original time, origin of time, origin of the chime and the sound of time, the sound of time, the Father's original chime, original chime will recalibrate and retune your timing to original design from what was stolen in the Garden my Son is here to bear witness of His sacrifice to fully redeem back time.

The original time will make you shine with original design and fully recover all. For you are my warriors my sons, daughters of original design before time. I knew you would shine in an appointed time of the Father of time the eternal one. This day, this hour I begin to shower new keys, new keys, new keys towards the new doors, new corridors of uncharted realms and territories to be redeemed by your execution of decree.

For it is now time to come out of your cradle and it is now time to awaken to your shine, to your shine and your redeemed rhythm. Your redeemed rhythm that I writ in my book about you before time. And yes it's time for the Ireland key to be turned to unlock a sound that was almost stolen, the sound of the Glory of a nation.

Larry: 10:59AM

This place I felt I was drawing deep and coming up, drawing deep and coming up. In Orangeville, I got healed on the fiery stones. I knew that I needed to stay here for the full duration I felt I was being fully saturated on the cellular level. My neural pathways were being rearranged. It feels like the stone that I'm on or in. I'm in the depth of it, then on top of it. The stone is completely alive.

Lord thank you that we are in the realm of the fiery coals, the fiery stones of revelation that are bringing us back into original design, original intent, original content according to your spirit. There is restoring, redeeming, and reformation of light that is fully alive in these stones. [In Close Encounters of the Third Kind where they used to play the stones.]

Michael

Because of who you are we give you glory, praise, we worship and we worship because of who you are.

There is a great number of an army. A vision of horses with riders. Much has been given to know to you to know the things yet to come but the orchestration and finish is from heaven above. Though there will be war against the saints, you will stay in worship and declare His name. For once again the book will be open, of life and of the lamb. A remembrance of when He was slain even before time began. And I will use you to open the ears of those who are deaf. Some will listen. Some will deny, but you will finish with the best. And if anyone has an ear to hear more will be given and treasures reveal. For you have unlocked what has been hidden before for I am removing religion for the gold to be restored. Untarnished before Him, you are ready. The origin being revealed from the reflection within. Remembrance of your name written in the book of life so evil can be cleansed.

Knowing always he was slain from the foundations. You claim life that brings light to many generations. What you are stepping into takes great risk but nothing in comparison to where you have already been. It is in the trust that you will be bold from every letter that was written. Connected to your name coded from heaven. In boldness you will be lead out for the Lamb will overcome them with all that oppose. I will destroy the ax of immorality for through you my glory will be known. The mind which has wisdom will disclose those who are trapped in deception from the fallen sons of old. And it was written of you in the books. This is why it has been so hard for the enemy thought he could. But I have come and overcome the world. If your portion is Me then your voice will be heard.

Rainbow angel

Rainbow angel may be reading one of the scrolls in the library. A fight for position is what the fallen say. They are claiming it in references in other days. In a legal entry into time that keeps them connected by a line. Here you stand in Zion's gate for the Lord loves His dwelling places more than any other place. Glorious things are spoken of you and you are mentioned among many that will come. And it was said of you this one was born there and it was in Zion and said the foundation of his holy mountain in the books that are read. The Most High Himself will establish her. The Lord has counted and registered all this people in this way saying this one was born there and this one will stay. And those who sing as well as those who play the flute, will all say My springs of joy are in you. The promises of God are sure by the original design. The registration will endure for it was inscribed. It cancels the arguments against you by the enemy's greed. They have fought against you by a diabolical deed. It is an illegal time entry claimed in the DNA. The lie was inflicted and established in pain. His pleasure is with you and in His right hand forevermore. You are not the one who takes the torture, you are the one restored. Pain is not your fiend and it is not required. The Lord Himself took it but the argument of the enemy so desired. He claims it by cellular makeup and the resonation of sound. It keeps you from transference so you go back around.

Pain is a deception but it feels real. Sometimes it is even safe. But when the sound is relearned you return to the pleasures of the Lord. In Him you endure.

I AM is speaking. It is the "I AM" library.

Time was never meant to trap you. It was made to establish you in truth and bring you through. In this place as it is called it is in the body and out of the body but it is all in all. I am that I am and it has been given to you to know me to know kindness and truth and goodness will bring you through. I am always there for the lonely in heart. This is a platform or origin where it was first designed/written. A tablet established for your inheritance. And not one dot and tiddle will ever be denied. For I made covenant with myself so truth and love will always be found. So choice was given to every man. So was time for a tool in hand. And they used it against you to program a default but from the origin of truth the heart will start. No matter how far you think you are away, my spirit will never leave you for I have always made a way. Now know this time can work against you when established in pain but time can change and realign in the power of my name. I am that I am, the beginning and the end. But to you it has been given to bring both together in the land. That I was that I am and it will be. Three in one if the eyes of your heart can see. I have established your path and have always made a way. A pure gate to change from pain to gain and prosperity was always my plan. A hope and a future in eternity in man. This foundation will never be moved. These books are open every time you choose. For now you know the secret of worship and I in you, in the body or out of the body. Time and decision will make all things new. (Revelation 1:8)

The paths of righteousness were aligned by choice. It was always your course for truth. Choice was always given to man. Redesign will bring you through. Even though the worst came against you I always had truth set in you. Kindness and truth is a way where pillars align to keep you from going astray. The tablet of your heart was designed here. Look to the original intent that is real. Practice the paths that are meant to be. A hope will be renewed and these others will be set free. Time came against to program a default. You have the equations for the real time to start in the heart. If kindness and truth are written on the tablet, then time will adjust and goodness will be established. One word at a time. That it was for I Am and time will be realigned. The heart can be redesigned to know what is new at first and practice will bring the proof. Now know this you are on your way. When the heart is fixed you will never go astray. The heart holds the foundation of the original intent. For these books are open for what is lovely and pure and favor will bring what is evident and sure.

Angel of the Lord 10:51 AM in this place in eternity

Jana: This is the place of eternal power. His divine nature and invisible attributes, the place of horizon is what brings you through. Experience is your teacher and it's the heaviest truth. It has hurt you or will help you but here you know the truth of all truths. Resurrection power the glory within you know, it is the revival fire and for hope to be restored. Know this place of your heart – its different than all others. What was and what will be is in the present promise. A time convergence where natural and eternity meet, your hope is in the evidence, in the faith that you believe. The creation is subject to the creature. Now know this place. All of creation is crying for redemption so the revealed Sons will claim. Identity is in this place. The origin of self, the kingdom of God is not here or there but in you and only heaven will tell. From within to without from the back to the front, the height the depth the length the width from the heart of love you are known.

Jana

I see this place. It is hard to breathe. They can't leave. They can't be free. Someone has to pay the price. The choice to leave would cause the pain but the pain feels safer if we stay. A protector has set a wall in place but a door is in a position to show a better way. If you look there is a hand of help but the fear is if we leave there will be more hell. Only the adult knows the plan to deliver unto safety by the son of man. [Feels like a drug, a program, a narcotic]

And if these pay the price of the suffering then the body can reap the reward, stay hidden for the sacrifice. And Jesus was taken out of the way, a fabrication, by men of pain. But I have a garden set aside for the safety of these who decide. A little at a time to know they are safe. If you could see my hand you could see the place. The protector want to stop the pain but it is temporary until a change will make a way and it is recreated to never change.

The compassion of the Lord is in your heart. The place of origin is where you start. To know that the son of man has taken this pain even that which was from another hand.

Order of Melchizedek

There is great advancement for the Kingdom is at hand. An order of justice will stand by the order of the throne all will align. Every path unto certainty to be redefined. And you must understand the order of Melchizedek exists because of mercy through grace. You are in a platform of justice by power in this place. As you move from within everything is documented. For you are following Him into the regeneration from the origin and attempt. A glorious alignment to the divine nature within. Stick to the paths as they will be cleansed, establishing the inheritance lines removing all the evil that was attempted.

It is time for the hope to be secure from within. It is an eternal perception from the place of origin you begin. From what was lovely and pure and honored you will endure. For these things make you fruitful and in abundance you endure. Set your mind of things above to trust justice and mercy most of all. If forgiveness is yours it will extend out every element to be cured to break suspicion and doubt. Every element has a matrix of paths. The lines of inheritance so the regeneration will attach. It is the crossroads on the grid that creates a field from within. And when the motion is blocked in the time of experience time begins again. When your eyes are set on things above you break the connection because of the experience of love. And the regeneration will occur from within from the matrix. Even the cosmic will be healed. When it was given to you to venture out it was through pain and torture to establish the connections that distort. But know this is true. The divine nature that was given was given to you. When the path is established the negative is blocked connecting the lines of inheritance. Even the elements will respond.

Librarian

Stick to the paths. You are on your way. Layer upon layer and the exposure will name. The books are laid bare that were hidden away. Treasures of darkness you will claim this day. The DNA has said it must stay this way but the RNA is the communication for the original re-creation. A sound connects to every dot and tiddle. The ancient books are open for disclosure and by these we have such precious promises but the fullness of time will correct the manipulation. Not just environmental but [also] a program to touch within to block out some words and truth was hidden by pain. And unveiling by sound and with these standing here. A platform of justice is set for the Ancient of Days will hear. It is a new creation time, a revealing to align. The blessing of revelation to the original design. This eternal entrance is always open. Stick to the paths for your hope will not be disappointed. Layer upon layer. Take back what is yours. The DNA and the RNA will hear the true word. Spirit of Prophecy Glory. He is Holy, Holy.

These doors are open. These paths to claim. The communication for this temple is in the power of His name. Adjust to the glory, that is where it all began. It too is an electro-magnetic field. That is why the kingdom is at hand. And the lines go out to seek their place but they only go to what you face. And if you see it as truth you will know the spirits design. It is from the heart of the library where my design was defined. You call them blueprints and so they are but the frequency of the emotions bring sight from the heart. As these doors are open you go in and out but the origin is in the center, in the midst of the glory. Here you are clothed in the divine image of the invisible from the heart that is mine. And it is the joy set before me from this place that you will see what I see. The perfect law of liberty in power and in grace. And as you stand I am healing and opening and shut. Giving new pathways, establishing the highways through trust.

I see these lines wanting to attach to have a connection...cellular. But how you see and believe they lock into that place.

You are in the midst of the nature divine. Eternal existence in earth for the fullness of time. Cell upon cell, line upon line, order upon order, a place of redesign. A little here and a little there but a multiplicity of restoration dwells here. This is the place of the magnificent exchange. Removing the defilement so the glory remains. Order upon order, line upon line subcellular to cellular all creation is mine. An exchange is made to the mind of Christ to shake what can be shaken so what cannot be shaken can be defined. This is the place of the finished work. What was and is and will be, the reality of truth. You are learning from Me by your senses you perceive. Healing will be multiplied and many set free.

Holy

Esther's Prayer- Lord if you have found favor for S in your sight and it pleases you let our life be given as a petition for life and for the people. Esther 7:3.

I thank you Lord that you have made a way. Thank you Lord for S body that is set apart to be collected as living stones realigned to the heart. And as a covenant to all those who will see that you have had favor upon her whole being. And you have come into a beginning of a season to establish the promises set before the throne for the re-creation of the original intent to be known. And this is the month that I say I am my beloved and my beloved is mine. For the truth to be known and the body to align. Your treasury is full and the stones come together in a Godly collective. A hope revealed for the resurrection of the elements. You are in a preparation from the revealing from within. Spirit to soul and the healing of the body to begin. A time of enlightening; do you feel it in the air. Creation itself is reacting for the revealing to begin. And all of creation is groaning for the revealing of the sons [Romans 8]. For creation itself will resonant from the origin which it begun. And My song is within you to know the truth to cancel the dissidence and to make all things new. A time of revealing of the angel in the bush. A fire that never goes out and the wind to bring a new birth. You are stepping in as you said. The intentional on earth because heaven is at hand.

Now look up for your redemption draws neigh. One like a jasper stone and sardius to view. An appearance of a rainbow; you are about to break through. It is an emerald in radiance around the throne. Zion is waiting for your glory to be known. And the books are open to reveal what is real and these pillars of fire are holding their place. And the roar will go forth in power and in grace. And every line is connection to its intention of life to realign the information and the energy by original design. Frequency and resonance will now take their place to connect line upon line for healing in the inmost place.

Revelation

Evil Operator

Feel fallen sons of God and the elemental spirits. Somehow they are affecting the protons. Somehow fiery stones are the building blocks. The fiery stones carry the blueprint [essence] that gets manifested in the physical realm. God programmed the fiery stones in a mysterious way for each person. The fallen sons of God have the right in some cases to mess with that, to change what God did. It carries the foundational equations of the body, soul, and spirit. It is the primary formula for each person. Bloodline, giftings, prophetic etc. Spirit, soul and Body matrix. It is initially a sacred matrix. A sacred process.

There is a certain illegal trespassing on the legal authority of God. It is a paradoxical legal process.

The evil operator then manipulates all of this.

Jana

Everything created speaks of the divine nature and eternal power. From the heart of Abba you were conceived in the faith of Christ to be redeemed. These ones of fire were formed in the depths of the earth. Part of the original self and parts of the elements cursed. The heart of Abba was perfect for you but the frequency [magnitude] of sin connected to offense. To resonate in the original design is to know His merciful love and His kindness and meekness. The smallest particles of your worth were created to do immeasurable beyond the biggest expectation of the fallen gods. Like an atomic bomb that did beyond any other. When you resonate in His goodness at a sub cellular level you do beyond anything you can measure. Jana seeing an atomic bomb but the smallest part of a person has more power than that. Oh you priests [by the Order of Melchizedek] don't you behold. You can do immeasurable beyond all you know. The elements wait as they groan for the revelation of the true sons [Romans 8]. You have both the Father's heart that change the elements from your heart. And these will do as you command. The fiery stones for the healing of the land and man. For the Father speaks. I do not want your rightness but your wholeness. Your undivided heart is always in place if you always connect to the origin of His intent. And these fallen ones argue for they do not have the heart of the true sons. They have desire to control. They use familiarity from what you have known. They created a wall of imagination. The pathways to make you lose sight of your destination. The sound by the operator pulls you in to believe the offense to be a victim again. But I am the way, the truth and the life if you make it familiar you will regain your sight. It is all a façade like a mirror, an image [mirror to mirror] distortion but a platform of justice, a wait at the gate. For the position of mercy and righteousness to begin. Create the path from the things unknown for the things invisible await in the balance. The true belief of acceptance [and legitimacy] the love of God and mercy by your acceptance.

Path, pathways session

EHP

[Jana 11:47AM]

Are you afraid to lose what you believe? Don't you think what you are protecting has already deceived? If your hope is not sure in the evidence of faith, get the right evidence so you can finish the race. You were chosen in Christ before the foundations of the world. Your cellular imprint remembers from the original voice you heard. It's a sub cellular attraction from the smallest within the smallest particle creates a path from a decision you began.

Each door has a kingdom and most of which are unknown yet the treasures of darkness are yet to behold. The imprint of origin was written in the book every day in existence created for good. Righteousness is as righteousness does. So as you should be you become holy as one. If you really knew of what you listened to, you would change your path and get righteousness its due. It grows brighter and brighter to the full light of day, the evidence of things unseen from the origin you were named.

By a desire you will unlock these doors you will remove the bars of bronze, to the treasures of gold.

Your first love was hope convicted by faith, the evidence of things unseen by power and grace. From here you can believe not in the structure of man or the world unbalanced. But by the truth that you know, experienced by love. The origin of your DNA was written above. Knit together in love and you return to this place a regeneration of your DNA by power and grace. And every dot and tiddle that was written in your scroll always has its existence even before you were known. So believe beyond all you think, hope or imagine. For you are a new creation. If you want it will happen. For I have the original design written before there was time. Every day established to your inheritance and mine. So for Christ sake believe of the evidence unseen. It lays dormant awaiting for the priests and the kings.

Michael and Angel of Revival, Reformation, and Revolution

I am holding my prophet and evangelism fingers.

For all creation is waiting for the revelation of the sons and daughters to manifest their destiny. Where are the evangelists to prophecy and prophets to evangelize?

This is the revolution, the revealing of the sons of God.

The evangelist of the earth.

From dust you came. And from the earth you remained. The earth responds to the sons of God, and their words are like seeds, planted in the ground. Awake, awake, awake the Sons of God. Awaken the dormant identity, the origin of your purpose, the nature of your being. And the revelation of your destiny.

Its original design designed at the origin. Come back to the origin. For by The King you are a king. And through the King, you are His kingdom. Revelation, revelation, revelation.

In the land of the nation, revelation, revelation, revelation, come with anticipation. For the revealing of the Sons of God.

You are establishing from within. Aligning to the new creation to begin again. This is the process of restoration that you follows in your inheritance for the regeneration. From subcellular to cellular all will align. What you are seeing is the grid of the heart to align to the original design. For the heart itself generates the sound for the soul to agree and the mind to be set free. You are being renewed in your mind from the heart that is humble it can be redesigned. And now you are acclimating to what is lovely and pure so connections that are stuck in time will be cured. For eternity was written on your heart. This is the hope of assurance for the regeneration to impart. And it is not that it is new, it was always there; the light, the life and the sound that I truly care. The love you receive is from Me. It is from the heart that is humble because you choose to believe. Now the sound will bring the sight. To trust in the hope from the original. Trust Me in this. I will bring you through. The height, the depth, the length, the width made anew. I always have you in the palm of my hand. I never leave you. I am faithful to the heart of man.

The evil operator [thrones] operates the mechanism from the judgment at the gate. Disappointment was the path creates so there is no escape. The gatekeeper protects the decision made but a heart that is fixed will create a path for his name sake. Now a broken and contrite heart I will not deny. Even the spirit can be realign. But a belief of betrayal is from a heart that decides. This was blocked by an ungodly collective. It takes a corporate belief by those elected. From the heart you believe. Even your hope is secure from which you were deceived. Now look again at the eyes of the Lord that go to and forth in the earth. They are interactive and accessible by the belief of your worth. These are expansive in every direction for these lines have gone out for your inheritance is connected to His pleasure. All of the universe is interactive. These 12 (domains, zodiacs, tribes) are accessible by their gates that go in and out by the decisions made. Their lines are courses from a heart of a decision made. All 12 should be a Godly collective. Each tribe and constellation is accessible by their gates by the godly elected you take your place. By a heart that believes you confess to stand in position of salvation and righteousness. You rule and reign for righteousness sake from a place of confidence, a platform of justice is made. And in all of these you agree in the original design to rule and reign in earth as it is in heaven by a decision of the original design.

By the heart you believe through a system of the mind. The brain is the transformer to direct the body system and the lines. Faith, hope and love is the way, truth and life. The disciplined heart listens like one being taught. Love is the first priority and the last, a re-creation design in the heart to heal the past. If the heart is fixed on Him without lack. Perception will position by a heart that believes. Love is your responsibility so creation and the creature will be set free. The heart is connected to the universe and established in every creative work. From every dot and tiddle the lines go out and are heard. The discerner of the heart for the creation divine. Even the times are connected by a path that is aligned. The path that exist is the hope set before you to persist. A place of inheritance taken into the heart. A path for righteousness for His name sake to guard. You established the platform of justice by who you are and in Christ created and in Christ you are. The paths go out from the gates. The systems are affected by a righteous decision to take to heart where Zion is. Seated in heavenly places where you rule and live. The place where you stand is where you are. In Christ awareness in earth and the stars. And the ancient paths were established in the books to the original word it was heard. But the enemy traded along with man to move the boundaries of the fatherless [parts] so their access would stand. It became a pillar of their own design to keep you from love and believe you are divine. The finished work came at the fullness of time to correct what was behind you and what is front of you to be realigned. At the crossroads some [parts of soul and spirit] stand to inform to take a certain way by the ancients that were known. But what was given to you is greater still to stand and choose that you are His. Believing is seeing the ancient truth to create your hope and to bring in what is yours. It is written in the books before time began. Even before your substance unseen was the sum of His thoughts always in perfection from your original self your heart.

Janna is singing in tongues; Winds of change for latter rain. you must go down to go up. opening the window was a must. Your perception has positioned you in a depth to go down where the treasures were laid to rest. Your inheritance is deep, unfathomable riches to receive. laughing... The inheritance for the land is a place you go in to where you stand. You go down to the hold, to leave the old, for the gold. It is resurrection power that will take you up, but you must leave the old behind, for your perception will position you for the original design. These treasures of inheritance that were laid to rest, they were covered up in the books of the library, the altered words that were blocked hold back the truth that was lost. And now there is more for you to believe, seeing is not believing, but believing is seeing. The windows are open, to see what you must have. Shut the door behind you, go in, for Zion has a plan. You are all connected by light, this journey you travel wins the fight.

Blessed is the man, whose in heart are the highways to Zion. The smallest part is the biggest plan, the original design where you stand. Go in to go up, go down to release, your treasures you'll bring. This platform is justice, the platform of the King.

You will all stand on the sea of glass, the nations beckon to you, as inheritance.

What you choose to keep, to belief, is what was safe [survive] but you were deceived. You need to know the stronghold of the Lord is the better way to access the more. The invisible place is in the heart [brain/mind of the heart], the original self is where you start. Move the invisible to what is true. Envision the real to break through. Discern the heart, the heart is the seat of the thrones. Deal with the heart, deal with the unknown. The subcellular level are sections too. Deal with the image of the thrones, the dominions, rulers, authorities and more. Discern the heart as the body, the domains are sectioned. But the visual of the invisible is more real and will tell. Paul I have called you to discern the heart. It is not the place you wanted, but it is the place you start.

There are domains of the heart that are accessing the body. From the heart you believe and it affects the all. This working energy, you are to call. It needs to connect to the true throne, the highways of holiness for the glory to be known. The images [? Perception] are exalted above the True Throne. Open up the heart for the true light to come forth. Where the treasures are hidden and all wisdom and knowledge hope and glory and healing will come. For all things were created both in heaven and on earth, the visible and invisible both can be heard. He is before all things. In Him all things hold together as you believe. The head of the body exist in the heart to have first place in everything to the fullness to start. You are coming out from the dominion of darkness to share in the inheritance in light and power. It is a transference from what you perceive to the light of inheritance because you believe. Hold fast your position before the throne when that is more real, the extraction will be known [to be done].

There has been a view and a discovery, a place of truth where you have yielded to believe. Now if you have received a little more will be given poured out and shaken to even those little ones hidden. Revelation only comes when you are willing to change. The perception of past judgments that self-protection has claimed. It is in the center of it all. It is in the midst of your heart for truth in love. You must find me in the midst of peace that starts in the center when you first believe. To comprehend with all the saints the heart of the Father, the Life, the Truth of His way. If you don't find Me and practice in the peace you won't find me in the lack and the need perceived. No temptation has seized you but what is common to man. It is the perception of lack that you think you were disqualified by the words of man. But I see you in an eternal design. Do what you can to believe for it is the original design. And if you find Me in the midst where you go these little ones will find the life, the light so love can begin. And it is a qualifying culture in the land of your heart to see yourself as I see you so these others can trust. Now there are many doors of judgment and opinions that hold their place but it locks up these others so they cannot see the way of escape. But they will be wooed to the life and the light if you can find me in the midst for it is the Kingdom of God.

And you are right to see what the saints must comprehend but it is the finished work that has already been completed that re-creates the belief that many were deceived from. And if it is practiced within, the emotions of love hold information and feelings will be wisdom and honor from above. Now listen to the sound of My sight. You are holy and pure, strengthened in your inner man through power and might. Holy and pure is the righteous belief. Nothing is earned because My love is free. For it is from the Father for fullness to dwell. To comprehend with all the saints by His spirit in the inner self where I dwell. So be rooted and grounded in accepted love. To know the width, the length, the height and depth to heal these little ones, where they are held. And it is the knowledge that surpasses that you may be filled. The fullness of God in Him and in you is where I dwell.

The bombardment of lies. Let her prayer go before her. Incline your ears. This place where you are captured draws near to Sheol. Like those without strength, forsaken and the dead await. A place of no remembrance [a place no one knows about]. Hidden in the dark. Dark places in the depth. Places set apart. These fragments are splinters that exist but they are parts of a part that are connected to the whole, the original core. It is a land like forgetfulness where isolation and loneliness seem like friends. But as for the Lord you continually set before him as a light of completion holding no wrongs but the accusations written against you keep coming. It is ever shifting light against lights. It creates a movement that keeps you in fight or flight. If you feel too comfortable you must be on guard. For you cannot trust anything. Even the heart of God. A constant defense is always set up. How will [this constant] I exist if the bombardment is too much? A light [life] of affliction another transference of light. It causes the shifting it causes flight. Find the pathway that comforts and restores.

Practice makes permanent in the glory of the Lord. These that have been hidden are buried alive. They think they are safe, they do not thrive. Victim trigger from expectation. If it feels too good it must have [bad] consequences that are waiting [about to happen] But know this you have been made for justice and healing and mercy and love. The comfort of God is what is lovely and pure but it is sought from above. The above is in you. It is in your heart. The depths of God and the depths of Sheol are both in the heart.

Holy Spirit

Holy, holy, holy. In all your ways. King of Glory. We praise Your name. Higher, higher, higher. To know the way.

Belief creates. It makes a way. Either for truth for the truth that leads you astray. Where you have been and where you are. You are in the dimensions of your heart. From the invisible the visible is made real. From the pathways and intersections a land is revealed. Resurrection from these places and the system is at hand. The segregation was manipulated by the hand of man. The change agent is the keeper at the gate. The more you are aware of the path of truth, the more you will escape. The more is what you are after to make the evidence more sure. When acclimated to His pleasure, the evil will no longer occur. And this is your time and your place. The ministry of reconciliation within you awaits. A little here and a little there creating a platform of safety to becomes sure. And these will follow in the way from a heart cultivated in confidence and certainty that only the heart can explain. The evidence is from within and it always was to unveil the original creation [design] from the Glory of God and His heart of love. You are on your way and don't back down. Many wait in the balance to learn from you the how. Even many of My children do not know the truth. They have been through a lot less but religion has made it eschew. It is the heart journey that you are discerning and recreates the depths of persistence. The whole body awaits to awake. You will lead out many in the way they should go because you have exercised the evidence in the Glory of the Lord. They will behold the evidence of things unseen. Things lovely and pure from a heart that believes.

You are in the horizon where heaven meets earth though the days of Awe you will endure. For the reasons of Yom Kippur and the book of life when your days were written. Not one will be denied. So it is time for the coach, a direction to stand. Do your homework to know the Father through the Son of Man. It is the most important thing you do. To connect to the Father's trust and that trust will bring you through. All these things set before you is the hope and joy to comprehend with the Saints the abundance of Glory to behold [when you focus on the Glory it will prosper you]. They are in prosperity for your future. When you look upon it you [focus on it, success, health and victory], you will bring it to you. And what you desire will create the view of the bride [I the Lord see you as part of the bride that I am coming back to] [paradigm of the bride and the bridegroom and the supper] and the glory that awaits. It is a now understanding that I entrust to you. To know the Father and know He is good through and through.

And I know them in their original self so they will know they are purified by no one else]. If you have seen the Son, you have seen the Father for if the roots are holy the whole tree is too. His branches, his leaves and the fruit made anew. There is only a belief that is in the way. These little ones feel they need to earn and be qualified to stay. But in the Son I see them complete. For the Son knows the Father and the Father is all they need.

From the fire, through and to the fire you were made.

From Him through Him and to Him realigned to be free

The roots supports the branches and connects you to the life of the tree.

The eyes of the heart to be enlightened to the highways of Zion.

Remove the path of chronos there will be no more delay.

Connect the highways of holiness for the price has been paid.

Gateway to Discernment

Tongue of Angels

There is a sound in the gate. It is the entrance to Zion. We never cease praying for Zion's sake. We never keep silent for this is where the kingdom is made. From the heart within you connect but you are here because you all expect. This place you enter in will activate your senses for heaven's intention. A caution to guard your heart for creative judgement is rooted in true discernment and offense will lead you into deception. For the judgments are made at the gate but for this one there is a way of holy escape. The remnant calls to understand not just the spiritual but the heart of man. And all will be rooted and grounded in love for the purposes on earth are from above. What is it for but not to know the invisible God and His glory to behold. It seems simple but the grid is complex for it is a table set before you where evil is put to the test. All exist in the heart of God but He looks for the remnant to release His love. The language was made from the original place when all your days were written you were given power and grace. Some know a touch and some know a smell. Some hear a sound and others know of colors to tell. Every dot and tiddle of line to light to a frequency to a color, it is time to align. And you are all unique in the way you go. Don't say it is for another for He gave it to you to be bold. And you will cross through to the zeal of the Lord to burn up every root and branch to lay bare the heart of Gold. And it is not just for you. So learn to carry it well a generation to heal the sons and daughters will do well. For some it is personal in their church. Live by example and do not try to make it work. To another a torch is given to the nations. Even into the darkness, even into the hatred. By faith you enter in and that what pleases God. Don't control the process because He turns it all from a heart of love.

Complex mathematical equations. Dimensional. Three layers of three zodiac signs.

Wisdom has hewed out her seven pillars. But two are the witness of the knowledge of the holy one on earth as it is in heaven. Enter in through these two standing here, will direct you through. Understanding must have her way for only the things in eternity will stay. A time in and a time out but a recurring cycle has created doubt. A way of escape needs to be made but also understanding of the zodiac will explain. One at a time for the learning curve. Two are witness so wisdom is not blurred. Three lock it in to what has been made, either knowledge of the Holy One or the way that led astray. Devotion is simple though this is complex. Jehovah shama, the Lord God is one where all the lines connect. I will reveal more from this place. Two pillars that remain.

These seven pillars standing here are set on the foundation so the horizon will be revealed. Position matters for what is at hand to unravel the system, the wisdom of man. What was intended for righteousness and truth was obscured through the vision to what has been made new. The recurring cycle was a time loop that was made. A program intended so the way of escape would not be the way. This platform is the foundation in which these seven stand. The lines go out for healing heaven and the land. A path has been made from the height where wisdom cries out for understanding and might. You enter in because of the truth. The one that was made before there was a time loop. And you stand in mercy and grace where the Lord God is one to eliminate the mistake. This is not a court but a place of decision is made. The books are open for truth to claim. Experience has been the teacher and set in place by information and emotion the belief is named. The judgments or opinions possess these gates. Either righteousness and justice or corruption and injustice. But where it wavers it goes back and forth until you are exhausted and the default take over/will hold. A way of escape is to make another truth for what is holy and pure to make all things new.

Sees this circular or oval (elliptical) with a platform on it. See lines going out where they are connected to the courses of the stars.

PM

This has been a journey for a place of acclimation to cultivate awareness for the regeneration. All things were formed from the information of love. The feelings and information are in the glory of God. Alignment awaits for experience creates what is truly to be known. The knowledge of the holy one in glory and in love. The heart must feel and know its desire. I show you the end from the beginning. It is the original design. And everything written has not yet been known. It has been blocked or covered up by religion, the luciferian decision that blocks love. If you truly know My heart for you, you would not trust man's wisdom. You would trust what I made new. And it is the view of the bride and the joy set before my son. The resurrected humanity and the Son of God. For this is the place of the restoration of all things and only humility can bring you here from a heart that believes. And it is the truth that you know that sets you free. For every other way is a thief and a robber. But if it is my heart, it is for love and for honor. I see you in the way that My heart designed. From the depths of love My imagination made it align. And the re-creation I share with you to practice from my heart that love will make all things new.

The books are open for the original intent because the eyes of the heart just haven't seen it yet. And the second coming was a design for only that of the passion and the love of the Father for the sons and the bride that He will meet. A union of glory and no deceit. The glorious ones await for the sons to know who they are. Creation is also groaning so it too can be renewed. But only when love is received can you expect what is to believe. That lack wouldn't have its place but my path of love is your way of escape. I show you this so you would know how it feels to trust in a heart that believes in you. But heart is the core, the original self. Even what has been separated will be healed. For the heart knows what it wants and what is real. Every scattered DNA has to be affected by love in this way. No matter what they do, they can't take you from this. The love of the Father and this you won't miss.

I have known you always. Before the womb I designed you in my heart and to believe what is true. When this becomes your established reality then the lines and the paths will be healed. The windows of heaven will be opened and the gates will be claimed for the glory of God awaits in this place. In eternity you are always being healed. The cross, the death, the resurrection are still here. The evidence of My love is in every place. Practice makes perfect. Even the stars await. I am making all things new. Can you imagine for the breakthrough. And the hope that is certain, align to your faith is connected to the evidence and all of creation awaits.

Your dignity and your worth are always before me. I never see you in any other way. But I am renewing by the original word to restore your DNA. Here your soul will prosper from a place of rest. Your body will learn and be healed.

You are standing in the I AM, the hope and assurance by His hand. A place where your strength is taken away but what comes is a great exchange in the power of His name. You are carrying the original part, the original design from the glory that is being aligned. Once you acclimate to this place you will give it freely to make a way of escape. Deliverance and freedom from the innermost place. From the inside out, the regeneration of the DNA. Up to now you have learned well. Now in this book there is more to tell. They most know the holy from the profane so they learn from the original creation to remove man's shame. The restoration of all things was written here before time and man's schemes. You are right to set a foundation for My house. Not built with the hands of man but the relationship will stand. Don't be discouraged by the past of building churches but the koinonia of those who are repairer of breach. Call them in who were scattered because of disappointment and lack of belief. Not a regiment but a safe place to learn truth for righteousness and justice will not be earned. It is organic in how it will be. The experience will be the teacher for those who have been deceived. And communion will their path. They will learn intimacy from the Son of Man.

Now back to the record that is at hand. Discernment must be the teacher for the apostolic and the prophetic. Pastoring will be shepherding. It will be creative for the re-creation. A fulfillment of time are captured in your heart's desire. What you wanted then you have now acquired. And I have given gifts to men. Look to this eight day for the new tabernacle has begun. I am increasing discernment for those who seek. So many are worried they will not be believed. Bring it to practical that is why I chose you. the apostle, the prophet, evangelist, shepherd and the teacher will all be new.

This foundation still exist. The promises of God are yes and amen.

Had a dream of the stones. There is a sequence of numbers in the matrix that is causing it to be trapped. The numbers are 74152. The key is in the new sound to release the new algorithm to restore the stones in the original design and align the cubes in correct created order. She is to connect to what is pure. It is evangelism for them to hear. If a decision for life is made. You put off death and put on light. Then the true creation will remain. It was the original intent also the present and future end. Eternity has its place. It must be comprehended by imagination and grace. The word is living and can be trusted to reconnect the latter and the former. Time is the captivity that holds these in place. They only think the hybrid is real instead of Yeshua and His name. Make a new fusion an acceptable hope set before you by the power of grace. What you need to put on is the experience of truth to remove the switch that the evil operator can you. Choose to forgive them who were misled. They were only surviving by the destruction of their needs. Each one looking for identity. These are the ones who have the original inheritance [original self]. But the adversary just wants access through identity so they believe the hybrid are legitimacy. Call back all that was given away. The enemy has convinced them they are made of him. The Father as creator has made it all. "All I need is a third to redeem it all."

And these must be led the way to be convinced of what the Father has made. And it is not just a matter of what you put off but even more important what you put on from what was lost. There is always an equal opposite that is known. Create the new fusion for the glory to behold. It is the ministry of reconciliation through love. But forgiveness is from the heart that is a cut above.

The numbers are connected to a sound. A word is the seed of imagination so sight can be found. It matters who is in use. The operator will make the sound of unbelief or truth.

A false hope will always pull you in to hope for the best and expect the worse. Then the chorus on the grid will re-converse. It's the sound of frequencies that repeat the numbers that connect words to colors from belief.

Practice makes permanent from what you've been told. It's a subcellular frequency that blocks the gold. The system connected to the grid by what is familiar and what is said.

To be extracted takes some time to recreate a path from the original design. It is from life that you take hold of that conceals the darkness where light is sure of. Now know this these two [life, light] must be in place for a love to have its experience in the midst of the most inner space.

It is the life, the light and the love where practice makes permanent from the Father above.

These are the persons you must know. Use what you know to recreate from hope that is sure and faith will open the gate; get the evidence for life, light, love. He will always win by power and grace.

The book holds the equation and the numbers from first but none of them exist without the word. The sound created, the streams of light that wrote down every dot and tiddle created from life. Now the sequences can be put in place by what is practiced from truth and grace. What has happened to disrupt and destroy was from a pattern created by a sound. It was made to be familiar so it can hold its ground. But you have been given access to come in to life and light and the love that begins. Rewrite the patterns to possess this place. It is an in in [and in you] [in Him experience that will win the race.

Michael

Because of the deliverance you perceive right. The spirit of the original self was my design. Your perception is changing by the process you are in. I am taking you by the hand to teach you to dance again. Captivity was never the place you occupy for I created you in life so the light would not be denied. And I am breathing life for you to breathe again and you are acclimating as you move forward so true change will begin. Perseverance has taught you well for patience to learn from Me and as you walk it out time will tell.

The second coming is how you see. The revelation of the complete bride which is in Me. Darkness only exists so light will shine. Truth should be practiced so the divine will align. I hold you dear and I never let you go. The perseverance breaks the resistance from what they believed and were told. I am making the rough places smooth so the path will be sure. You will win again and again for you endured for the joy.

How do we remove the coalition from iniquity bent?

Paul feels ungodly seraphim with parts of S in them and her in them.

It is for your purpose that we align that S be extracted from the ungodly design. Her hope is disturbed and the enemy is in praise. But you were, oh Lord, already made a better way. We stand at the crossroads of the cross, a four way inheritance to take back what was lost. You have discovered the issue and you have done well. you are not starting from scratch, but it is the original that tells. You are learning how to practice the truth will tell. Practice what makes permanent. From your hope you are assured. But if your hope is in disappointment then the wrong hope will endure. The biological is affected by a connection to DNA. The flesh holds memory to reconnect to the fallen ungodly's claim. They know the authority is in the flesh so they activate a recurring frequency. Do as you did before, a foundation of truth so hope is restored. It is not that you don't have, it is just hidden from sight. The deception is wrong perception and In righteousness you are right. So the heart holds these truths to your eternal right. But the evidence is eschewed that you must earn it and it blocks your sight. This is not where you give up and it is not a dead end. It is an unveiling to uncover from the original intent.

For He was before all things. The master craftsman, artisan, to redeem. For all satisfaction of anger was appeased. For he poured it out on His son for spirit, soul and body to be redeemed. The blood marked the covenant, the time in which you stand. An eternal entrance for redemption of the Son of God and man. And He holds all things together by the words of His power to strengthen all according to His glorious riches in might, steadfast, patience, even this hour. In Him you are the expression of Christ; Christ in you the hope of glory will win the fight. For it is the knowledge of Him in all spiritual knowledge. You are qualify to share the inheritance from everlasting to everlasting with the saints. For you were rescued from darkness and I transferred into the Kingdom of light. His beloved son by His spirit not man's power or might. If repentance is what you need, know it in your heart, it is already received. For He is faithful to forgive the past, the present and the future. Again you lack no good thing. For what was established. And though you walk through this world it doesn't say who you are [This world does not know who you are]. For He always holds on to the original self. And even creation itself is being redeemed by the hope of Glory you have already received. All wrath was paid, no punishment left if you agree to receive the father's love you will have no lack. Believe it in your heart, your position is sure. The schism is only what you think you must earn.

The problem is her tribe (Dan) joined (see notes of Length) to the enemy in the womb of the Dawn.

ORIGINAL DOOR IN THE WOMB OF THE DAWN

We feel we are at the original gate of the womb of the Dawn. On the left side is a door and the door is closed to the anointing (mom's side). On the right side, the father's side the door is closed to the anointing. She feels sections of DNA there.

The second set of doors. On the left side the door is open to something evil. On the right side the door is closed and there is anointing behind that door. The right side is the door to the righteous tribe of Dan and I feel righteous stars and the righteous Scorpio there. On the left side is astrological Scorpio (unrighteous) and the unrighteous tribe of Dan.

I think we take care of the tribe doors first. How did this unrighteous door to the astrological door get open. "They wanted what was not theirs" what was not theirs? Inheritance. I am feeling the seven spiritual of God. understanding. They went outside their boundaries. What were their boundaries? They wanted to expand. They were not content with their boundaries. They wanted to be the creator God! this opened the door to the ungodly. So the client's tribe voted against God and the client was caught in the conspiracy. So now this is a legal matter. I had the client say "I declare that the tribe did vote against you but it was not my vote so I ask you to remove me from the ramification of that decision by the fallen sons of God and Lord I ask you now to take the key to this door and close it. She now faces to the left side "now may I have the key open this door." She opens door. She feels a righteous remnant who also did not vote against God.

She now goes to right door of father's side (right). Can I now open this door that has been closed? She opens it. Lord please remove all generational ungodly authorities, rulers, powers, doorkeepers, elders, and watches. Please release all locked up blessings and remove all ungodly additions to my DNA and RNA. Please remove all shrouds and cause all my lines to fall in pleasant places. She sees connecting of all that has been disconnected. Where there was void and formless there is now connection. Feels anointing flowing. I feel a lot of deliverance.

She now goes to the left door. Same thing as above. I feel stronger deliverance. Client feels Godly assignments returning. Birthright. I feel the little book in the Rainbow angel's hand. Lord remove Chronos ("no more delay"). I feel ungodly books being removed. Lord disconnect me from all ungodly stars, star systems, constellations, zodiac and galaxies. [The stars were bound by the conspiracy-sees all ungodly bonding being broken]. Lord disconnect me from all ungodly portions of the grid and reconnect me to the righteous grid. Please disconnect me from the ungodly length, width, height, depth and all ungodly domains, realms, kingdoms and spheres.

I do not allow any fallen son of God spiritual or human to have access to me. I declare all ungodly connection have been severed back to my original seed in the womb of the dawn.

Jana to Client

You are on the right track. It was by trade as a matter of fact. The fallen one couldn't stay but you were convinced to do it by trade. Planets connected to the stones for the hidden treasury and the gold. The gold holds it all together. The elements bargained by trade to manipulate the authority of man's way. Time is the connection to creation's day to take the authority that keeps you in the Mazzaroth grid. The spirit always claims the DNA to manipulate creation's original design. These are the lines they have collected to stay connected to human DNA. They know it is the flesh that is the conduit held together by the gold. It is the mortar from the ancients and the men of old. Connected to the original design keeping in order with Psalm 139.

From eternity they exist. Seeing a divided room-like a courtroom of evil and good. These stand here to claim all that was traded on human DNA. They needed the conduit to give it away because only by human they can redeem the day. The day is the point set in time to interfere with earth's divine design. If they can collect those deceived the rule and reign with these who agree. The argument they claim is in the book of life. They created their own to disguise. Your book was open so they said. Let's take this one for her inheritance is widely spread. Now they claim the DNA to claim the elements for re-creation day. She was told and convinced that this is what she must do to get back to eternity [get hold of eternity] even though she never left, for the Father holds the original that passes the test. The blood was formed in the light and it always test if the Father is right. But the argument keeps coming to keep her in this place for partly one thinks it is too late. It was the path created to be convinced that a price must be paid to go back to the original intent. It was a redemption trade because these were not born of woman, they claimed a woman's DNA.

New word

The Lord's Day is their goal to manipulate time and the sons. But Messiah has the day and those who [you must] claim the trade of the original DNA. They want their place in the Lord's Day. The ultimate judge in Zion's gate and all His courts you claim the original way [blueprint]. The resonant frequency continues to connect time for existence and the elements are met. This place stands in a perpetual way. Melchizedek is the priest from beginning to end to take back time and elements stolen and given away in the fulfillment of the Lord's Day. Zion's mountain of the Lord is your place to even the score. The general assembly will commit to the order of Melchizedek, the throne and the original intent.

Blessed is the man in whose heart are the highways to Zion. Is this not the brand snatched from the fire for from the fire to the fire you were made. The original design to be realigned by the inheritance that was named. A third remained to explore the evidence created evens the score. The root supports the branches that's how you see that connects you to the life of the tree. With its plucked from the fire its brought through and returns to the original desire that you knew. The stones were set in gold before corruption came but the recreation design was created to reclaim. There will be no more delay for chronos claim the day, out of time you are restored for the stones in glory to be known. And you are all living stones in design. The unity of Zion will claim.

You are all in this place (No more delay Chronos – Rev 10). A place of defiance in order disgrace. Every path you meet by an intersection Chronos says stay so you can be found again another day. It is a genetic manipulation engaged by sound an expected disappointment is where you are found. It is a way with time to keep you locked in thinking. The promises seem to be a hope deferred but momentum is to be discovered for what is real. Four windows keep you are where you are trapped. a high tower connected to ungodly paths. The recurring claim form the library by name. His name is a high tower that is where you need to be. A place of safety where you can be free. The paths connect and intersect. The hope deferred has her in a net.

It is like a wave of a grid and turns and comes back again. Like it is laid out like a blanket. Chronos is claiming his legal stay. Every direction forward he states his claim.

There is an order of the court that needs to be stated that comes against the argument that was written. The argument that was written by the order of Melchizedek it can be named, written in the scroll before time. By name the path leads to the tower

The paths meet the tower and how they connect is how you see. By believing you are seeing for the books you will read. What was written before time is the order defined. Every day written before I was aligned. The problem is as the problem does. Finding the problem is what you become. But the original intent as it was said before the beginning. It was recorded by these books that were read.

Find the belief in the original intent. Take Chronos off the grid so the glorious ones of Yahweh can be sent.

Now in ancient of days court. Michael is present. "Your perception has positioned you and the sound gave merit. It was the argument against God that claimed it. It opened a path that gives you the more and even what you do have was taken away. You continued on the path by the words of your mouth. Even your heart decided to agree with doubt. The way to recover is a way of rediscovery. To claim your inheritance by the original word, the living and breathing by path you have heard. Quickly agree with your adversary and don't hold Yahweh in debt. The best way out is the way in. By Yahweh's name you were sent. A man's words are deep waters and in contention they call for strokes. The lips of those against were a snare. They go down to the inmost parts. But the name of Yahweh is a high tower. Those who run into it are saved. Open the windows of blessings that go brighter and brighter to a new day. Heaven awaits for this truth to be known. His compassion and love before you were grown. You have His position so take your place. His name is your safety so remove the disgrace."

Equation: If I Am = to I Am then I Am I Am. This equation was canceled in the Ancient of Days Court

Message: Rainbow Angel

From your heart it has been established. Trust in what was given. Stand your ground. Keep your decision. Avoid the way that goes back and forth. Convince your heart to what you trust. Life is before you so take the path. Your assurance is in abundance and by the promises you will grasp. Never hesitate to claim His name. Even the things lovely and pure you will gain. You are the conduit of the finished work. Lift up your head so the King of Glory will come in. The Lord is with you and He fights for you. Find your rest in assurance and you will break through.

Jana-

Who is this? Gabriel and Michael

There is something about DNA and Gabriel

The library is being search as you go in the enemy also. For your research is evident of the new creation design. It is the paths that connect that affects the DNA because of the inscription on the scones, the paths of correction will be known. The evidence has given away for life or death you choose this day. In His right hand are pleasures forever more. Look above and below to even the score. Each DNA or bar is connected to a line, a path of life from the original design. The inscription has claimed its way to change the resonance, the enemy's claim.

There is a shifting going on of who is in this court. There is a lot of things changing up.

Like things are getting into position.

As it was for Melchizedek there is no beginning days or end. According to the power of an indestructible life where you end you begin. You are all priest according to the order. On one hand you are setting aside the former. And the other is a new way. For the law made nothing perfect to bring a better day. The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind the order of Melchizedek is a priest forever. It is about the evidence of life that destroys the corruption inscripted.

When you test it keep your finger on the pulse. Declare the correction by the finished work. Redesign the inscription in the original blueprint and intent. It is about the letter that kills to destroy the design for the enemy wanted the original blueprint to redefine. He only took what was given for the seed of the woman was splintered and forced into agreement by the resonance of evil.

As it was given to you Paul to see the chromosome, pick it up and clean it and put it back in and ask to heal my mitochondria.

It is about the letter that kills and altered covenant that holds back the path of life. Shut that door and end the fight. [Blood, salt, and threshold covenants and verbal ratification of those agreements] There is always a choice on every chromosome at least two paths have their way. Open the other door and open the gate. It is about the word that was inscripted in by belief the DNA is altered and made way for sin. The path believed is the strongest way but it may not be the truth for the original DNA. I am unfolding new revelation a little here a little there but the finished work is the evidence, don't despair. The re-creation design is taking place. A convinced heart in the original self is where you begin. You feel the stars on the chromosome line. The further direction, some are here and some are out of time.

Now go back and find the paths. Continue the healing and finish the task.

Jana – original self

I am here and I know the truth. Jesus loves me and I have the proof. Called my name from before time. This is my confidence. When I was first chosen in His name, a daughter of redemption without shame. I was washed in blood before the foundation of the earth. The life the death the crucifixion is my self-worth. And in that place I always exist from the book of ordinance and remembrance. It is the original word in the book of life the enemy can access. He must give up the strife. He called my name from utter darkness. He wroth me together in the depth. He created my heart from the stones and so it is written. I am always His. None it has been and now I am redeemed by the blood and that is the sound. The better word that we create eliminates the accusations written against me. In this court and in this place.

You enter in to the heart of the matter. Indeed, your inheritance is beautiful. From invisible to visible learn what this means. It was written in the scrolls of you so you would believe. And all things have been given for life. Things in heaven and in earth to know you have won the fight. And you have access to search these books written from the place of origin for your substance and your worth. Every dot and tiddle was programmed from the builder's design. From the invisible womb of the dawn you were defined. A creation design since before time. If the evidence of these words so the inheritance will align. And you bring those things that are not for all things exist unless they are denied by the belief of lack for the windows are the view that is missed. When the eyes of the heart are enlightened the path of righteousness grows brighter and brighter for the light is for the living and it is the life to all men. But it comes from the convened view and opinion and in this way, you will stand. Seek those things that are from above. The way up is the way in anchored in love. Then pass through these days to make all things new for when the heart is convinced these little ones will be rescued for they know they are pure. And if God is for you none can be against. It is only when they waver then the inheritance is missed.

Jana: it was important to remove what was already in the way. To rediscover the origin. From the power in my name. For those of you who follow into the regeneration I will sit upon my glorious throne and you too will judge the nations. You are all given thrones to the level you abide in the attention you give to the origin the original divine. The world is a copycat, but all things speak that were created for the evidence of all you need. For the worlds were formed out of the invisible, the things hidden from the beginning, just need to be revealed you are unlocking the truth from within, so even creation will be healed. The life was given concerning the word of life, his life is the light of men and the light will recreate and design.

Yeshua leads out to show you the way from within to without you help create a better day. Time aligns from a heart that is fixed. Pathways are made but it's the lines that connect. Inheritance that was lost can be realigned. You've practiced the origin which the resurrection defined.

Even what was lost can be regained. It's the imagination that created the matrix so the imagination can create a better way. What hurt you can heal you when it aligns to the truth but what blocks you is division. A gatekeeper with two different names. When you step in it's a matter of the heart that releases the river to every pathway and door to loosen the bars for breakthrough to be known. What was given away or lost came from a perception of lack.

Time and a half time and time that has lapsed. The opinion or judgment holds a place captive. To stay in seems safe but it keeps you inactive. To go into define from a hope deferred. This is why the roots are in the DNA and the branches lead to rebirth. For a desire fulfilled is the tree of life and your perception will position you to make your reality right.

Dunamis will guide you to stay in the way though its narrow. If you practice the truth will stay. It's the fire and power that makes an electric magnetic field. Michael Gather what you do know about the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Heaven for even the kingdom of darkness is established by a law from sowing and reaping. Both always exist by what takes precedent. You will love one or hate the other because of your evidence. Did I not say that the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure in a field? Did he not buy the field and hide it so the field became real? It is the value that is used that creates dominion. You will love one or hate the other. Either way it is continuous.

Lawlessness sometimes comes by desire but lawlessness that is practices usually comes for survival. Make no mistake God will not be mocked so what a man sows he will inherit and increase that lot. It is also said "will I not send my angels for the harvest at the end to remove the wicked so righteousness will gain. They will gather up all that have been plucked out. They will be thrown into the fire at the time they are cast out. It is first the tares that I remove to be burned but for righteousness sake the kingdom of heaven is from what you have learned. For the measure you use you will be measured to you. Take hold of the anchor behind the veil. The original connection will not betray you. Every other way is a thief or a robber. Don't let your hope be deferred for I will never falter. I have given all authority to my creation design. Only what was stolen or given away is what evil align. It is about the connections that pull you in but the law of judging always will have control and win. Hold fast to the precepts, the design of the kingdom of God is within for everything in that truth the kingdom of heaven will yield and continue.

Time

These have interrupted time to disrupt the sequencing that comes when the Lord brings to light those things hidden in the darkness and discloses the motives of men's hearts but I have set an appointed time so even if these who manipulate will not have the success. It is a failsafe where time permits so hope remains in the testimony that he gives. This is why it was so important to establish the feast [feast of tabernacle]. They set time in motion and for the kingdom will increase. This is why I summed up all time in the evidence of Christ. Time before, time during and the ages to come through power and might.

They seek to disrupt the epochs of God, one by pronouncing judgment through the distortion of the law. Other devices they have use they align [they accessed the soul] the soul so inception was confused. But to you it has been given to find mercy and grace and in the fullness of time I have prepared a place to gather what was scattered and to bring back what was lost to remove the deception off the light and in love you will trust because of the reconciliation of all things to be restored. What they meant for harm I will turn to good and unlock the mysteries that were hidden before. Through you they will see but most of all you will know that I opened a door through righteousness to discover time and explore.

Just like the cross the crucifixion before time began, I sum up all things even the restoration of man. Time to explore time that aligns. A time of declaration to redeem what is mine. A time of hope, a time of love, a time for your purpose through the blueprint written above. A time of wisdom and understanding to unfold the origin of his knowledge where all energy is disclosed. A time of unlocking the truth where deception is destroyed but it is always existed for I hold it in the glory you will hold.

Hear frequency.

Behold the great I Am the great I am, the great I Am. Behold the great I Am.

Make it evident to be in I Am who heals the past right where you stand. He sets the true hope, your future at hand. Behold the great I Am. To be ever present is in the now God. Your ever-present need for all time will guard your heart from heaven above. The frequencies are the connections that holds the program in place. They bring the evidence that connects to the dimensions. Find balance and order in I Am then all things of Him from eternity stand. And those who have made other choices also may enter in. Order upon order connect the lines that are at hand.

Insight: The frequencies governs what happens with the lines

Archangel

These other courts are outside of I Am. They are familiar to the structure that pulls you away. A focus and intention that separates you from this day. A ruling queen does not want to give up her place. She affects the circuits that connect to the lines of the origin and its state. About Moses it is important to know. Many prophets are sent but Moses portion was with the Lord. This governing systems distracts from his face. They seek what is familiar to keep the body in disgrace. But the archangels align to I Am to distract the familiar frequencies and say “who do you say I Am. “

Jana seeing dimensions outside of I Am. They are inferring and there is always this electrical power pull that wants to govern.

It is still about my ever-present need [It is still about me being your ever-present need]. A place of hope from what you believe. You have unraveled the systems from within. Now create righteous connections so the body and soul will mend. Premediated righteousness will always align. An expectation of hope from the original design. I am opening the books of remembrance of how it should be. The practice makes permanent from the kingdom who receives.

I ask again who do you say I Am. My desire is your desire. You are in the presence of the son of man. There is no order above mine for all things hidden are in the original design. And now you are to know the spirit of truth that I am not a God of punishment but it is up to you to get the proof. Perfect love cast out all fear for fear is punishment and it is perception that appears real. But I have opened these windows so you can align for universal law of heaven now resides to align.

Spirit of Apostle

This is to understand the true witness in the earth. You hold the record of righteousness, how it should be in truth and word. Identity is the goal to know in the image of Christ the glory of the Lord to behold from the true pearl of great price to understand the apostolic is to understand creation law. You take from the builders to restore what was built wrong. But the Master Architect has an original intent. The record was written in the books. Connect to the library and then ascend. From the place of origin, you reinstate the gates, to rearrange the memorial time of time and prepare the way of escape. All of creation is longing to know the true image divine. Go in to the Mazzaroth and use the builders for redesign. The courses were set to the zodiac and constellations by a distorted design from the fallen sons to present generations but a platform is set and you all hold the sound, a regeneration will occur so I AM's memory may be found.

Stand in the bush to hear the truth and a pathway will be made for the healing breakthrough. The image of the living God stands face to face. A creation law will unlock a regeneration way.

Rainbow angel

The system was not created by me. I set up the builders and you create from a heart that believes. These seven gates are set up by the law of creation. They affect 7 times 7 for hope or devastation. If you seek to find the problem it will always make itself known or if you seek for what is lovely and pure this too is expansive and will grow. Then the hope set before you should always be in place. Created by a heart that has seen in its eyes my face. How can they be enlightened if they are always blocked either by punishment or the restoration to take back what was lost. The view and opinion I set up in my word is connected to every dot and tiddle and every line will be heard. The law of creation was given to man that creation itself will recreate the origin as planned. Self-preservation will always be in the way but trusting in the Lord will keep you on a path for righteousness in my name. If one is glorified over another then that it where you will go. Cultivate the one and the other will be destroy. Love one and hate the other and set it in place. Again, practice makes permeant to deliver you from disgrace. Now learn what it means to see for when I am revealed you are as He is and all the promises will be fulfilled. Many are trapped and it will take time. It is the process by redesign. You have gained a lot to unlock the hidden treasure and realign. My trust is in you more so that you believe. Practice my promises and you will change your belief. A hope in an extraordinary God for all things are possible for those who are loved and called by my name. I will never leave you nor forsake you. It is just a matter of turning away. Now my plans are not a fantasy because they are in my heart. Now this is a spiritual connection on the double helix that sets you apart. Think of it as a third strand where I am always in the midst because to know Me is to love Me and to love Me is a free gift.

RNA and glorious ones

Look to the rock from which you are hewed. A cut above you are made new. The communication is in a paradox. The two confirm each other so the pathways are not blocked. Now is the time to learn this way. A platform of origin where you were first made. A renewal from the paradigm laid. The life matrix was feelings and information put together by a braid. This is a paradigm shift. The communication from the body came from within. The heart was the original stone. Program is the knowledge that experience holds and the opinion of I Am from within. The original design was from Jehovah kabid (God in your midst). When the frequencies are triggered the remembrance begins that reconnect the pathways so the new creation can begin again. It is about balance between truth both a man and what is truly his. You are on the right path. Brings remembrance. You claim. Even the choices of past destruction can be made new. To be in His image.

The Lord God Most High is in your midst. Truth is revealed in a paradox of two. Paradox is wavering in a grid that is askew. By a witness of two the throne is elevated. Justice and righteousness is the foundation. All the issues of life emanate from the heart. When you are wavering from two opinions confusing sets the course. The lines of inheritance are connected to the thrones the grid and the paradigm created by what you think you already know. A wavering truth, holy or profane will lock you into captivity and a time loop remains. A continuum is believed from the heart. It weighs on experience but the original design is where you start. The fullness of time is heaven on earth. It connects the old and the new for eternity's worth. One step of obedience will catch you up. I even fix history and the future will be the power you trust. Create awareness by discernment that is here. /The great I Am is the wisdom you hear. It is the power in the midst of the bush, a continual burning for your worth that you trust. Cultivate the desire so the fire may expand aligned to the highways of holiness for the agreement of Zion is at hand. Agreement is in the heart. The position of the holy of holies from the throne, that is where you start.

Gabriel

Has to do with the end of this age and the age to come.

I am sent for a specific purpose to bring the knowledge of God. His good will toward men for the completion of the law. I am called Gabriel and I am described as a man but my purpose is to bring revelation for the completion of the temple and God's plan. Know this I gather what is scattered into present time. Not so much the end of time but the beginning of God's original design.

A recorded record was measured for the temple to be aligned to ready the body of Christ, the fulfillment of His hope, the beauty of the bride. I told Mary about the seed of the word, the savior of all things and what would occur and so she pondered in her heart and in obedience she waited but she stood in the process even when she was hated. For she kept the hope before her and she keep it to present time not as if it were things to come but as things are knowing her hope would not be denied. I tell you this for it is the good pleasure of the Father to unite you not only in yourself but also with sisters and brothers.

There is a document being written and these standing here are in anticipation for every dot and tiddle is connected to a sound. This information forms the numbers and the equations top be found. An unfolding of the revelation of things already in place. A true vision and perception of the image of God is being put in place. The mercies of the Father is coming at hand. A choice to trust the original intent without earning a place to stand.

Without subjection these will learn to trust, a freewill offering what is pure and lovely from above. A carved out hope of how it was meant to be. The truth about righteousness and justice will set these little ones free. A safe place to gather with the promises of joy. The spirit of God will teach them and they will choose to go. Like little children to learn what it is to connect to pleasure and believe what he has said. The same way they were taught pain is the same way they will learn pleasure. They practice it from information until it is expected and experience. True view and opinion of how the Father sees them in love connected to colors and fragrance for these are all creative and they create from love.

Paul gave Janna a Scroll

There is a great deal of weight with the scroll.

The scroll is vibrating.

Elemental spirits are discerned

Scribe behind Millicent

Janna's interpretation as given by the Holy Spirit

You are at the crossroads where the paths meet

You all carry the sound of wisdom, at the gate to break defeat

Up til now you have all survived, but I show you an abundance

And it's life made alive

A and D prosperity connected to creation itself

For wisdom and revelation will begin to manifest and tell

I built one stone upon another from the original creation design

Each one of you hold the key to divine in align

Now all things have been given and all things will be added, to push past the old evidence that caused the body to scatter

Buy you are all a link, to connect light to light for the kingdom evidence

Now the things that are hoped for are things unseen this is the depths of the treasury beneath

The hidden wealth, of the treasures of darkness are at hand, in unity you actually release this treasury to the sons of man, now know this when you all come to agree, the king is in your midst,

And the fathers power to believe

And you stand at the brink

For the creation cry, that creation itself will be redeemed and the kingdom of heaven will not deny

Unlock, unlock and open wide, there is a door in heaven that says come up here it is more than you know more than just to survive.

Rulers

It is important to know for understanding sake to teach you of the system so you don't recreate the mistake. Now listen closely for these rulers show you a way. The original belief came from the queen for control but these parts think it is safety and their perception is wrong; false protection is the problem but love conquers all. They are looking for one to lead them to show them the safe place. The pathways of how it should be is the true way of escape. The garden was the original design. The garden also is the recreation defined. A welcome choice is all these need but proof that is good is what needed to be believe. These watchers also hold in place in time that is a memorial for the goodness of God to align. Rulers assist in the choices made to unlock the gates so the true rule can reign.

October 19, 2017

Scroll

Now you are behind the veil. There is a list of declarations for you to claim. You are the trumpet to release the names. Unlock the inheritance for a thousand-fold generation. What was held back missed to this next generation. A creative worshipper a pastor and a prophetic voice. These are your arrows that you will shoot to level a pathway for kingdom proof. All that was promised was laid up before time written in scrolls for the original design. Not one word will fall to the ground. It will accomplish what I set it for. Each child is a living word that will be found. They will not miss the mark of all that have designed for them to do. There is a movement of God on the first born that will break through and you will see it within the realms of time. You will bring the invisible to the visible. It is a divine design. A time to declare and as you do a Kairos moment will come through and a path will be laid for the highway of heaven so the lame will not be detached but healed. It is an abundance of seven a completion to be set up for the invisible sight to bring these that are not into right sight and aligned. You should go by now you have not missed it. All the purposes and the decisions I have found you in the darkest place. I have also given you the way of escape. Light begets light and life was the first design. It has swallowed up death it is my divine design.

Spirit of Wisdom

Go through go through the narrow way. Unlock the doors and open the gates. It is in the vesper, the hallway to find the way of escape. Open what needs to be open and shut what needs to be shut. Go through the final gate where wisdom has won. Where the paths connect is where you align. Seek the ancient path for the original design and wisdom will build her house. Set up the pillar where the sound will be bound and in that resonance it will benefit all. You will make a way for the rest of the call. It is the hallway Paul.

Watchers

It is about the first fruits; first from desire for Christ did not enter the holy place made by human hands. He did this through the consummation of the ages as to heal the land. After being offered one time to suffer so by doing so he fulfilled all in all. There are many paths but ask for the ancient way for in the good way you will hear the call. But they would not have it. They did not want the good way to go so they created alternative courses to block what the Lord wanted to restore. They interrupted time and made markers in the earth and created with the image of God so in their image they would be rebirthed. For the measure you use will be measured to you. The judgments are held by the perception of proof. The higher knowledge of their matrix knowing that the kingdom law will be reproduce. This is why I said ask for the ancient path and I have given you access to stand with these to correct the original path. See first the kingdom of God and all things will be added. Who do you say I Am and for the multitude of that image will create a realm. This is why He is anchored behind the veil and only in his heart is eternity that will tell. The law of creation explains all things. Everything created believes in me. With the divine intention you will lay up your treasure to unlock the mystery from the hidden pleasures. If you have seen Me you have seen the Father. It was in scripted in your heart before these others. As you stand before them you will hold this place. The emanation of the Kingdom on earth and in heaven is His name.

This is an elaboration. It is organic but the lines and the programming are synthetic. It is the sound for a ruling position. There can only be one and all must agree to this position. It is a hierarchy of connection to rule and reign.

Programed in inception to the original DNA. It flips the view as if it were the original self. So when the way is open to know it reinserts itself like an entity at a gate for when it is threatens it fears it will lose its place. Their position is above the stars so to be just human is to lose charge. All these (see three) are connected to thrones to a power and source to keep the program in place. It calls itself original. Now know this. The solution is only one. Who do you say He is? When you see him you will be like him and the creation will be known.

We are on Mount Zion

Jana: Do you yet understand for all things have been given to know the Kingdoms that are at hand. It is the process of what you would seek first for in His righteousness all things will be added for the Kingdom's work. [I see the word magistate]. For even the ruling of God is subjected to the sound of heaven to heal all. And all things have been added from what you seek first.

This zero point energy is the glory that needs to be dispersed. If you have learnt anything it is the protocol of God that you are blessed to eat the bread in the Kingdom and the increase will come. It is from the inside out that changes all of creation, even creation is longing for the regeneration. This is the place to align to the original intent. It is not a template but a reality for the Kingdom of Heaven will increase.

Where the law of sowing and reaping will be built upon what you bind together on earth becomes recreation law. If you know that the Kingdom of God is within, that with the involution. This is the unity of the power and the thrones will align if He takes first place in all even the ancient path will align for history to be restored.

As you come in to the Kairos of God, it is the fullness of time where all things are involved. And two or more gives precedent to His midst. Stand firm to I AM and the increase in His kiss. I set before you life and death and this is the power of choice. Look up, your redemption draws nigh and you create the course. You establish the highways of Zion that are connected to the heart. If you haven't known it yet you are the Kingdom of God. Enter in and set the course.

Shawn -Message from Angel

This is a transition, it's a transitions from the old into the new. There is a new wine, there is new bread. Shall you come to the table and dine with thy king? This is a message to not just you but a message for the nations.

He shall roll in with holy thunder and lightning in His hands. With the breath, it's a breath of life, a breath of revival. Come to the well all who are thirsty, we are going to merge and converge the time. All the time that was lost will be replaced and shall be going back to the original design. Time is in His hands. What once was lost will now be given. The stones will rise and the water will pour. The water will not pour down it will pour up. I shall take you higher He says, I will take you higher. It is time to cross over from high and go to the valley to be brought back up. There is grass on a green pasture and He calls you. He calls you to a sermon, it's a sermon of deliverance. It's a sermon that will heal and cleanse all that was taken from you. It's a sermon that will change your lives forever and it's a sermon to the willing. You have to be willing to take the call. Go forth He says, go forth. I have given you all authority that I have given the Son.

August 28, 2017

Jana

I am a movement. I never stand still yet I never change so your trust will be revealed. An ever-increasing synergy from glory to glory for time is only relevant by the markers of judgment for the rest of the story. Where the gates hold the judgment, the lines go out. The law of sowing and reaping establishes the courses that go out. They connect to the electric magnetic conduit. The problem is if it is familiar, they keep going through it. This is the tangential process given to all for if it is familiar it will be trusted because of the judgment from the experience for the call. Empathy and compassion always moves me. You go in and out by what you trust.

I will show you a way to the throne room when you can stay. When it becomes familiar you can change the energy by what you claim. Once again, I am not holding back. I have given the lines of inheritance for abundance to break lack. What you trust you will always find. It depends on the anointing and the original design.

Time is the interference for the eternal realm. You are either pulled by earth and a world view or a design of heaven by what you can tell. You will learn to love by what you see. You won't see what you don't believe and this requires a risk for my demonstration of love was the finished work of the cross. This is heaven's kiss.

Archangel

The kingdom of God is within and the Kingdom of heaven is without. All the lines of inheritance are connected to the stone, a throne that breaks doubt. This is the God of Power for the power to be known. It is important to know the rejection of the builders. You will build on faith and grace will complete it. For what is fruitful will be affectual by the one who created it. A system built within to without. Either the river moves from the throne through these gates or it is blocked by disappointment and shame. So, it was in the days of Noah so it will be in the days of the sons of man. This is the son of Man who is revealed. The conflict through the gates for the King of Heaven is affected by the authority from within. Whoever seeks to keep his life will lose it and whoever loses it will win. The anointing flows freely from the redeemer and the son of Man.

The heart is desperately wicked and sick. Who can know it. The kingdom of God is within and the throne can restore it. These judgments hold back the righteousness, peace and joy. This is the kingdom of God that is fruitful for the Kingdom of Heaven to be restored. These lines of inheritance, they always exist. The example in heaven on earth by His goodness they exist. Whatever the evidence is a memorial is set. The anointing flows by gravity, so to speak, and on the stones, they are met. Look to the stone the builders rejected. It is never gone. This is the point of resurrection. A point maintained by the throne of God. It is either who I Am or the operation of the curse of the law. Freely it has been given and freely it needs to be received for hope is the certainty by what is framed out by the heart to be believes.

Jana sees creative dominion.

Rainbow Angel

There is wisdom for this time. The kingdom connections are connected by the lines. The kingdom of heaven is at hand. It is time for your influence to change the creation and the land. The mysteries of the kingdom of heaven have been given to you for you are of the good seed which will reproduce. The power of the age to come is the power of the Kingdom of God that has already won. You are already of a greater influence that is why the seeds of evil have come up. They fight for their existence for they know cannot win against the kingdom of God. The righteous will shine forth as the sun for these are the sons of the kingdom of their father for they were won with love and this treasure that was hidden in the fields was taken in joy and to the kingdom of evil it was revealed. For these outside do not have ears to hear or eyes to see but they seek to influence and deceive. But the law of sowing and reaping is always in affect for to you has been given the kingdom of heaven and your influence will certainly affect them. For those who are ignorant are like children and therefore every disciple who is a scribe will lead them.

How will you know unless you teach them? For you are the head of household, the parents and the teacher that will guide them. You have the kingdom of God to influence both in and out, the treasures of things new and old to teach trust and break doubt.

Spirit of Wisdom

Singing in tongues

Wisdom has built the seven pillars, a foundation, a design for the kingdom of heaven and all things have been given to you even the depths of God both in wisdom and knowledge for the riches of His fulfilled law. Who has known the mind of God but the spirit who searches all things, even the mind of Yah. And how He thinks is within that even creation will begin to mend. Favor and wisdom is in His sight just like in Joseph was made His delight. A miraculous insertion into the law of the land that even Joseph became the second in command and you are in the likeness of God, being knit together in the wealth that comes from love to the full assurance resulting in the truth, God's mystery in Christ in whom all treasures are due. Wisdom and knowledge are within. No longer a persuasive argument but from the power it begins. To build yourself up in the promises of the kingdom so the elemental principles of the world will receive them.

You are the reformation on earth. Your influence is in the relationship to influence in your worth. And I have trusted you with what you are already doing. Keep a record through thanksgiving and where He has already brought you through; this will be the memorial of the victory to give credit where credit is due. No longer seek those things that are not but the time is now coming and is it that the true worship will worship the true god. You have the keys to the kingdom and all things will be added if your view and opinion is unto righteousness I will gather what has been shattered. Remember I am the beginning and the end. Everything on earth is for a moment but eternity will never end. Store up your treasures in heaven and the true design where in his right hand is pleasures forever for the original design.

Wealth I have given you and it will increase. Seek first the kingdom and all of heaven will agree.

An acclimation is in play. A place of the rest where the parts can stay. When you enter in you find all has been given to you. The completion in Christ will bring all things new. From the rest there is balance and order so the frequency may align to what is true. The windows are being cleaned so your perception is clear. Now the frequencies will align for truth to hear. You are coming into correct creative order. The natural and the spiritual will connect and the lines of inheritance will go out to your portion. To align to the original intent is to rediscover how it was truly meant. Spirit of Might and Wisdom

The elders are waiting for the direction to life. A counsel from heaven with wisdom and light It's a divine alignment on how to proceed and the counsel of heaven will all agree. This is the sound in earth's desire, to release I AM Wisdom through fire. It is good. You all have a key to unify this revelation so multitudes will believe. Faith is substance of who you are not who you're not, guard your heart. This sound produces a harmony of heaven written now to align to original design. It was in-scripted on these stones of fire, every dot and tittle is in the original desire. Desire is where you start not by what you don't have, but what was finished at the cross. You are unveiling the eyes of the heart to reveal the original inscription and each of you has a position. Seeing is not necessarily believing, but believing is seeing. Your perception will position you but to know how you've already been known will multiply you. Creativity always reproduces in the natural so it is in the spiritual, let it move through you. To see Him is know who you are and when you awake, you'll be with Him in earth and it will be written in the stars. The stars release the sound, the longing for the desire to be found and all of earth is groaning to sing with the sons, as it was then in the garden, it is already begun. Ask for rain, the early rain and the Lord that makes storms clouds will be given to each man's field, because of the diviners and false visionaries convince the world it's real. Sight to sight, sound to sound you are all connected by light and the glory of God is in you to be found. The heart holds the sound of wisdom for recreation design. Stand at the crossroads through the gate, make a path to be found. Rise up, rise up a highway of holiness is here a harmony for the DNA and the RNA to be healed.

Spirit of Truth

All of heavens been waiting for this moment to arrive. You're rewriting the truth from the original design. They projected their image that distorted your sight, so you reproduced in your own image and defiled the original design. All of heavens been waiting while the earth's groans to realign the sound from the knowledge of God. Order upon order, line upon line. A little here, a little there, it has finally arrived. As it is in the book of John, when you see Him you'll be like Him and so in the earth you are. Truth is a fear of the enemies design because it's absolute from the creator's own mind. You have been given all things, to rewrite corruptions and set the captives free. The door of hope is in this place, go through and align heaven with the earth in power and grace. As you do you will remove the fallen image reflected from the stars especially Rephaim and Moleks alter. Break the connections for a generational restart.

July 19, 2017

Arc Angel

This is being scribed as you seek the truth of the image of what you believe. You're righting the way so others will follow. Many will come as you unfold the true knowledge. The ability to create comes from the heart but most in the earth start with where they are not truth in the heart. In this way, you make the path that grows brighter and brighter to the true light that will last. It will take many through. Not to return to the default but to the true image of Christ they'll awake and know who they are. You always create to the image you perceive, start with yourself while the heart practices what it believes. For you will always create from the one who created the image, even yourself will recreate in error. This is why it says when we see Him we'll be like Him. Responsibility only comes from love and the decision is inside you. The heart was written for the original law. It was written in eternity so that truth will lead you to who you are. This is so they will return to the original law a creative return to the cosmos declared by the stars.

Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh. You're standing in the gates of Jerusalem. Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh, glorious, holy, holy, holy.

You set a foundation for the sons of god to be revealed the truth is that all of creation yields so that you will be real. Creation waits for uncorrupted light, a new hope gate to embrace the original design. Every dot and tiddle is aligned to your song, the original intent before the corrupted fall. The frequencies will align the true light from the seat of the heart of the glory within you will be defined the glory will teach you to acclimate to truth, not to align to a way of a world view, get the proof. A time line exists because of the cross history before, the correction after nothing really is lost. The evidence of things unseen, the letter to the sound, to the light, and colors redeems. You all are miners for a heart of gold, it is a fine line to align by the image of Christ that is known. As this revelation will grow so that the evidence will increase and your realm of influence will be effected as glory brings the increase. His name says more than first believed the power of His name is released from a heart that believes. You go in to go up. Be prepared to change because you haven't been here

This is all summed up in the fullness of time. The one true law before time. The love of God took it all in one place. Healing the beginning from the end by taking your place. I was raped and I was molested and I was persecuted and tested. I was ignored by my Father so you could have honor. There is only one cross and all things were nailed even betrayal that separates love from truth. For you died with me and by my faith you will come through. Who I am is who you are to take back all that was destroyed. For I hold the book of the original design but I left it to you to reinstate the original design. Not only did I suffer all things that happened to you. It destroyed me so resurrection to make all things new. I am that I am the beginning from the end and you too were with Me. Now it is up to you to ascend. The books are open and laid bare but no legality can take you unaware. For I made covenant with myself so you cannot fail. If you trust in the perfect man then perfection will prevail. Now comprehend with all these standing here to convince your heart that I have done all things and I surely have already healed. I will keep reaching out until you are totally aware that you are no longer a victim and that I truly, truly care.

You think you're here for heaven to show up, but the kingdom within you is about to arrive. All of creation is longing for the revelation. The image of the living God for the regeneration. It's up to you to release the Creator God. Now a preparation for the sons to come above. Go through the furnace to burn up every root and branch. The inheritance from everlasting. For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand at last. This preparation will prepare a way to go into the library, renew the DNA, and the books are open, and the thrones are sat, to judge in righteousness. And His mercy you will grasp. Heaven is waiting to destroy the record of wrong, a self-preservation. To correct and align to heaven's song. The sound wisdom is at the gate to go through is to go in, and to go in is to go up, to recreate. You will align to the original design chosen in Christ before the beginning of time. And the Spirit will bring a remembrance of all things for every good thing in you where Christ remains. Trust is the issue, and the Father awaits. But these three hold the record in heaven so all of creation may reign. A new beginning, a new time. Feel the memories. Align to the original design.

Wisdom and Understanding

Through the blazing altar to the Holy Place. Turn around and look about there will be 12 gates. Three, six, nine, twelve. I show you a way of unity by the Spirit you will tell. You are returning to the tabernacle to finish what you have started that gives the rest of the story for creation's honor. A cosmic connection will lay out the restoration to open and shut for healing in the regeneration. This is how it was meant to be so my people will leave the distortion and heal their belief. All of creation speaks of my divine nature. My eternal power. This is the new creation. To put back that which was lost in the original design. For I paid the cost and all may enter into lo holy place. Now follow the river from my throne it follows my power and my grace. And they will go out noisy as men. The Lord at their head, the regeneration again. And those who follow the way, you too will sit on thorns in the Millennial reign. Connect the Mazzaroth to each tribe. Each attribute will reveal my kingdom design.

Wisdom has a sound. Wherever you go it will release for the Kingdom of God is in the inner place from where you see. The wisdom from above is first pure and full of peace. The agreement with God is all you need. Come up, come up to the place where you abound, a heavenly position brought on by sound. And those who are unsatisfied and not fulfilled the blessings of the Kingdom will become real. Disappointment is the only thing in the way. The fear of it keeps you astray but the path is easy to find from once you step in, you'll be aligned. And you will go up together for it's a corporate design – to see as He sees and heal time. One step of obedience will catch you up for He will fix history – this you can trust. For the finished work was before the foundation – the original creative design for all generations.

One will put their name as Jacob and the other are descendants that tell. But these were known in wholeness at first. Disappointment was the only thing that blocked the truth. But all of heaven agreed that they will follow the king for His kingdom because at first, they were deceived. Now the truth remains from the original intent. It is not that they don't believe it

The Lord God most high is in your midst. Truth is revealed in a paradox of two. Dichotomy is wavering in a grid that is askew. By a witness of two the throne is elevated. Justice and righteousness is the foundation. All the issues of life emanate from the heart. When you are wavering between two opinions confusion sets the course. The lines of inheritance are connected to the throne.

The grid is a paradigm created by what you think you already know. A wavering truth holy or profane will lock you into captivity and a time loop remains. A continuum is believed from the heart – it weighs on experience but the original design is where you start. The fullness of time is heaven on earth. It connects the old and the new for eternity's worth. One step of obedience will catch you up. All even fits history and the future will be the power that you trust.

Create awareness by discernment that is here. The great I AM is the wisdom you'll hear. It's the power in the midst of the bush is a continual burning for your worth that you'll trust. Cultivate the desire so the fire may expand. Align to the highways of holiness for the agreement of Zion is at hand. Agreement is in the heart. The position of the Holy of Holies from the throne. That's where you start.

Worship worship at my throne. Worship at the throne of my glory. I am your glory and the lifter of your head. See my glory rest on you. See my glory on you. Step out and see my glory. Scatter your enemies. See my glory radiate out against those that comes against you. I am the lifter of your head. I have surely come in. this is the day of my glory. Let me be seen upon you as your worship Me. You shall serve me and see me upon you.

You are in preparation for the library. For the books are open and the court sat. You will take hold of your inheritance for I am fixing the past. The words on your scrolls have been blocked and not aligned for iniquity has held back this new day and time. And the past of affliction and iniquity still holds a written argument but I am fixing history. Time is a tool and it is a state of mind but I am aligning the everlasting and you will take back what is mine. The original intent has been hidden by an argument of decision and your accuser has risen but I have taken it away; the written argument for you are placed in my name.

Look to the source behind the screen who is the creator of all things. A reformulation of the vibration is the healing for regeneration. This energy is not dark energy as they say, but the sound of light before it is made and in this original design you were made for the original self to be reclaimed. All sound is aligned to the great I Am. I am removing the dissonant for the renown of the kingdom which is at hand. Great and awesome in this place where glory was organized with power to give faith and grace. And this is the place where you agree the re-creation of how it was meant to be.

You are tapping into divine power which is the source of life where all things were made. Life is the substance for the light to be made. For all things pertaining to life and godliness are through the true knowledge of I Am. You are made of the substance of His own glory and excellence to always resonance with the promises in your inheritance. You are partaker, a co-creator for a divine nature and have escaped the corruption of the world for your diligence produces faith the supply of all excellence to acknowledge.

Knowledge and perseverance and perseverance godliness for godliness leads to kindness and his kindness you cannot deny. These qualities are ever increasing for the original power is love and that is the true knowledge of Christ. None of these qualities have been held back but in places the view has been blocked for this power is the power from within. It is the same power same power that raised Jesus from the dead. And you always have an entrance to the eternal kingdom which is at hand for Christ Jesus your savior holds abundance and supplies to you at a conscience demand.

I see you in the abundance and the abundant life is the truth that you trust. The perfection of God is reacting to all things. This is the prosperity for the kingdom is believed. I believe in you, believe also in me. Start the works that I have done and abundance will bring you increase.

This resurrection power will never leave you or betray you for God is justice and His justice will be known for many are seeking to know what you know for this power is love. Love will never disappoint nor will it lead you away for perfect love cast out all fear ever fear of the future. And I will show you mighty things. Things you do not know. Seek first my righteousness for righteousness is how it should be and, in the origin, it is already known. I am with you always even to the ends of the earth. I carry the revelation of the secret counsel of God. This is the revelation for the restoration of all. No seed produces other than its own kind. If love is the greatest counsel then none will be denied. I reveal nothing without [first] telling the prophet for the unity in heaven and earth can be prosperous. This agreement is greater than you think. Love must be poured out so abundance can be received.

To you it has been given to know the mysteries of my heart and to gather back what was scattered so by no decision these others are set apart. I give beyond understanding, far beyond the wisdom of man. These mysteries that I hold are in the image of God.

The sound, this color, this frequency and this light will be electric-magnetic for the original design. Ask me of the restoration of all things. The fulfillment is limitless and to see it will make it achievable.

Watchers

Faith is working for the evidence that is yet unseen so hope can be invisible for those things that are not will be. I stand as with Habakkuk to wait for the Lord to reprove so I may see what the Lord is about to do.

I see these systems as a cosmic universe all trapped in the frequencies of sound that hold to legalism. And this emanation of sound that keeps these systems in place is the destruction of my holy character and my name. This is to show you the checkmate that agrees with the enemies' sound and all that hear it in this region of captivity and are bound. For this sound comes against the person who the Lord is and love that is blocked is the true law that already exists.

The sound that breaks the paradigms that holds these kingdoms in place will dismantle these thrones where these ungodly rulers delegate. This is why it is said if my name is lifted up I will draw all men to myself for the sound is the sound of love.

Worship always holds a unity of sound for integration, healing and for all creation to abound. A bountiful inheritance is in who he is. If they have ears to hear let them hear for this is the new creation for man. There was a song in the beginning in the original design crafted so the elements will also abide. All of creation is longing for that sound so it is for the shalom of God sound for within you. A song that rises up a sweet aroma, a fragrance to God for the true fear of the Lord is when they think they break His heart from what they perceive they are. His compassion is endless. His lovingkindness will never leave. His mercy always available, just come and believe. Let the song rise up and fill this place. From the north it is poured out in power and grace.

Archangel

Again, this is a recalculation or a rewriting or the evidence on the stone to reinstate the foundation of how it should be to be reborn. You are the spiritual house for the holy priesthood of God. I am changing the frequency to return you to the song of the Lord. It was how it was and how it was meant to me. I am changing the sound for the law of magnification and the electric magnetic energy.

To know your song is to be in the original design. All the parts will line up and know they are mine. A regeneration, a song that is new. The one that has been singing from eternity. The one that is true. And when the song is released even creation aligns and kingdoms come for the harvest will not be denied. There is a new revelation for My word. Little by little we have been breaking off the paradigm of man that you have heard. My word was culturized by the desires of men but this reformation is uncovering the truth I demand.

Restoring the foundation of how it was meant to be so my people will not perish and the true vision will be seen. All lack because they lose hope for they were limited by what they saw. I am revealing through you the true sound, a recreation law.

We are unraveling a mystery that has for a long time been hidden. The word is essential for healing. The word is the way to unlock the sound, just like a gate so the revelation to be found. It is the working of the word and all its purposes and designs to restore everything to what it should be. It is the sound of the original design. Now I show you a mystery of the working of the Word for every dot and tiddle makes up the stones and the frequencies so the word is heard. Now know this. The reason the true power of the Word has not come to fruition because the paradigm was disturbing the frequencies. Now I show you an alignment and the power of the age to come for the expectations of the past have held back the true sons. And the foundations have been destroyed for my house is built on the word. This is why He is the builder and creator when the cornerstone was revealed. What you are working with is a substructure like a field. I am gathering the particles to form what is real. And not only is this the renewing of the mind but the stone of the heart is being healed that even the flesh comes alive. You are tapping into the mystery of the restoration of all things. So, a man thinks in his heart and removes the deception, then the impossible can be seen. It is the eternal design that was written at first. You are the scroll and in which He wrote on it first. Now I am performing My word, my house will not come back void. One day in the house of the Lord is better than a thousand elsewhere because a thousand elsewhere can be restored.

You have the sound of the Father's heart to unlock the original design so the new creation will start. The natural and the spiritual will unite. A common unity will win the fight (community).

Discernment will build the prophetic so the mature will have a sound for the prophetic needs healing and the discerner will bring this about. It is no time to back up or deny who you are. For the eyes of the Lord are moving to and fro. You must see with the abundance of the heart.

Desire is powerful and in the heart, it will have its way. It can create abundance or it could lead you astray. The heart that is of desire governs the structure. The heart knows the original self and really knows the true abundance [that will not be denied]. This fear of failure is only familiar by judgment. The hope for the best and to expect the worst is the problem. Come to know my desires for you are beyond what you can imagine. The voice of the Lord will render recompense to my enemies. Who has heard such a thing that one would be born to heal the world. Can a land be born in one day? Can a nation be brought forth all at once? As soon as Zion travails, she brought forth her son and those born of me will know the creation will be restored. Be joyful with Jerusalem both in the natural and of the heart. Be exceeding glad for the innermost place for from the spirit the healing will come.

Time is of the essence but time is not in control. Eternity is the preference that must be explored. What are the possibilities, imagine if you will, to learn and rediscover the original design to be real? Things connected to pleasure, to goodness and joy without the expectation of rejection, lack or disclosure to be feared. "What if" should never be to a negative conclusion but the positive result of how it should be is the better expectation. Practice makes permanent of how it was meant to be. To love creation and colors is to love yourself and me.

This is about the communication for the soul. To rightly discern the body is to rightly discern the glory of the Lord. To look at the original purpose and design. To bring all things together to resonate for the original is divine. The finished work exists because of death and for the blood that was poured out of the Son is what gives life through the breath. The inscription that has been put in the blood is the negative expectation for what is believed that will come. This resonate dictates the familiar tone to hope for the best but expect the worst so the damage will continue to be done. Though the blood carries what has been transcribed, it is the heart that believes and chooses life for it denies. The original stones where in scripted from life. The original language was pictured line upon line. The programming was an underwriter induced by sound and pain. It set a regulator so when hope rises up it is dismantled because of pain. The original design was made by pain and pleasure so the heart so the heart will seek its greatest desire for its greatest measure.

The clock that is ticking is an earthly design but the breath is connected to eternity and to eternity the body must align.

Paul feels lighting but it is like a laser beam undoing the inscription on the soul. It is lasting several minutes. Client had written a book Tattoo your Soul. The Lord is removing the original programming of negative on the soul. Underwriter.

As it was for the foundations of the earth to be laid so it is for the righteous so they are not destroyed but remade. This is the restructuring of what is true laid out by the word of God that is pure. For many had walked in darkness and seen the earth shaken but for you it is a sure foundation so the sons of the most high will align and be renewed for my time of mercy is now and will bring you through. For as it was for Abraham it is for you to seek for the architect whose builder and maker is God. So, the windows must align with the pillars and the pillars to sustain the law of God. So, you are a pillar to rebuild the ancient ruins to raise up the age-old foundation and repair the walls so I may dwell there.

The process is already in place. It is the word of God that remained in the library so the height, the depth are in grace. The length and width will align for these pillars hold the place of the original design. And the heritage is the spoken word to remain unshaken for the word is proven true.

Archangel

Stretch your eyes to the horizon for you have an eye for beauty and beauty is in the eye of the beholder for where you find the beauty you are connected to joy. For if your path is pleasure, your inheritance will be known. Though it was in the garden in the midst there was a tree of life and all your days were connected to realign to the path of life. For in life you learn wisdom and in wisdom you know truth. For the fruit of righteousness is the tree of life and the tree of life is your proof. For this is why it is important to access the gates for this leads to the heart of the garden where the tree of life is grace.

The inheritance is sure for it is written in the book. To abide with the tree of life is to keep you aligned through his grace and truth. Fruitfulness is abundance if your eye is open to see for the tree of life roots are in the original self and my presence is the fruit that you see.

I am here or I Am is here with abiding awareness, the acknowledgment of Christ within for the original self is the abiding self. I am reconfiguring all that is within and without to align and realign with the original self. This abiding awareness only comes from what is within. A congruent of the original self already abides with Him. All things align in who I Am is for the example is perfect and the desire is enjoy. The congruent is the agreement of spirit, body and soul. The original self is always with Me. Your heart holds the value of what it sees. When desire lines up to confidence of I Am, the heart resonates so the parts will be

For the praise of His glory, the truest unification is a story. For your first hope in Christ lines up to the original self. This is the prize. In Him you also are in harmony of truth. The gospel of salvation is the inheritance that has brought you through. And you are sealed in Him by the Holy Spirit of promise. The pledge of inheritance is His glory and honor. You are God's own possession for His glory is yours, for when you heard of this faith this made your love pure. And you are made mention both day and night from your prayers and supplications you did not give up the fight. So, the Father of glory is always watching you. This is the permanent gaze from the spirit of truth. And the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him so the eyes of your heart are enlightened to know the hope that is within.

These riches of glory in the saints in light. The inheritance of His surpassing greatness in power and might. This great working congruent in strength and His might in Christ are seated at the right hand of God. The congruent with heavenly places is the harmony within above the rule and authority of the dominion and men. And every name that is named not only in this age but the one to come. He has put all things in subjection under your feet. You have already won. He is the head of all things. His body the fullness of Him is calling in all in all. Some of these to begin again. Your greatest hope is to see His gaze that never leaves. You fit perfectly in Him. The beauty and the glory of His riches looks just like Him.

There is a regeneration through the blood. The cross restored it all having made peace through the blood. So, this is the true correction of time when one enters in with the blood it is for the eternal design. And not the blood of the animals that were sacrificed but the blood of Christ through the eternal spirit for once in all time. For all things are cleansed through blood and without the shedding there is no forgiveness for sin but the blood of Christ reformates even the flesh. Through the spirit of renewal, the regeneration will be finished. But only the high priest can enter once a year though it is for Christ the eternal blood was shed for all men. And one must be born of water and blood where he shared in the inheritance for all to come to know that this regeneration is for spirit, body and soul.

And now this original design will begin to heal their self in the body to be realign. And the judgments that were sent out that hold back the new creation designed are being refigure from eternal where first it was defined. This is the the original law the oriental self carved out from God Himself. These three stones were always left and the contamination that was entered in from the womb is now being regenerated by following him through the veil.

I am removing the hinderances the blocks and the boundaries so the fullness can dwell in your members to heal from eternal. The equations are changing on the stones. The sounds and the resonance will be restored and a balance will enter the body of the restoration of all things for the heart holds the original sell and the whole body will agree.

Wisdom is alongside of you to do her perfect work, to align to the original design and bring forth harmony and worth. The scales are set for discernment test for all things to be measured by value. You will fulfill all the rest.

A creative knowledge that goes beyond beyond. Beyond discernment so that when you apply it the multiplication has begun. I know of all the glorious creative beauty of all that is within you but imagine it in agreement, unified, manifesting through you. You will harmonize with my heart to love what I see and trust what your heart believes.

Beyond, beyond is a limitless design. You are crashing through the barrier that has held you back because of the judgments on time. Kairos is not just my timing on earth. It is taking the eternal perspective through love and value makes it work. But discernment that is beyond takes you to the experience in the glory of God. To lay hold of is where you heart creates the reality outside and all around. Because you have already chosen life it continues from a desire that design.

The manifestation requires lambano [to take hold of, overtake and receive] will become the perfect word that lays hold of the limitless things that you are seeing. Beyond just an understanding, beyond just the knowledge, a convinced expectation fulfilling the promise. It is to catch within your midst and reproduces because you have been kissed [intimacy and revelation].

You are coming into a realm that is exciting because your faith is pushed out beyond beyond and from a convinced heart your hope will not be denied. Trust in the colors, trust in the renewal. Look for how it should be and I will teach you so from you creation itself will prove it.

Angel of the Lord

Hope will never be disappointing if proven character is aligned. When it feels unachievable it is an agreement to distort time. Hope is never disappointing if it viewed from the original design for the hope that was set before you is the view of God the Father when His children are not denied. The time that was interrupted was everlasting to everlasting, having a beginning and an end without a proven continuum. It is the measure of the view, the perception of experience that is true. To know what the scriptures say about Yeshua if you seek them from true eternity. The scriptures themselves do not bring eternal life but the Holy Spirit holds the love of the Father that in balance the scriptures align.

It is the corrupted image that segregates time to always fork off the holy highway by disappointment in the corrupted view. But the Father reset time through Jesus the eternal proof. The enemy in the view of Lucifer was to give eternal life to give the impression you never had it and now you must earn it but the word of God will not be denied. The disappointment leads to striving, to perfection that cannot be reached but perfect love is the truest image. The proven continuum is the true need. It is all about the image and the author and finisher is God but the corrupted image of perfection is Lucifer's deception that keeps some of these parts condemned by law. But when the time had fully come God sent His Son, the truest one, born of a woman and born under law to gather in all the components from all the dimensions to true heart of God.

Repentance is when the time loops are broken but forgiveness is when the true growth will happen. Receiving is the key to be able to give what you need. Self-forgive by the forgiver in you for forgiveness means to cast away what sin is for what is true.

It is edict from the king, a declaration so that all of heaven will see. Among all those who are born again who carry the image of the true God and His Son. For this one [client] born of a woman carries the hope. You will see who you are and not what you are not. And all will know that this is the hand of God to redeem time in the midst where the days are evil but her redemption has won. Not one word will fall to the ground of every promise that was given. A full integration for body, soul, and spirit. A redeemed one, a true son, the bride without blemish has caught my gaze so all in heaven and earth will be astonished and amazed, that this is none other than the redemption of Christ. Not one part left behind, not one part out of my sight.

Jana after sermon about Glorious Ones in Kaneohe, HI

There is an opening of a way where there was no way you have touched the place of the original intent so the creature could be remade. The alignment of how it was meant to be may now be more than then 1st believed. The frequencies that were meant were made in perfection in Jesus who was sent. The sound that created light can now be redeemed so the power of resurrection can align.

Jana: 12:41PM

This is the righteous design. You are tapping into the original to be defined. Righteousness does as righteousness is. Faith is substance. Get the evidence of what is His. Every gene has a whirlwind connected to it. The connection of light is the evidence. The example was given from God to bring those things into existence that already was. For we know that He framed out the place from an invisible place to organize the energy to make things right. SO righteousness is how it should be. You align the light to bringing the original design and set them free. The lines of inheritance are connected to the sound that releases the evidence so even creation itself may be renewed and aligned. A reorganization is here for you to frame out how it should be and bring many to breakthrough

Open, open. It used to be open. This is not how it used to be. Nothing works except the King and His Kingdom to set the captives free. The gates are open for global renewal. The cosmic the spiritual and the natural wisdom will come to rule and reign. You will possess the gates of your enemies. Don't say that politics are not for me. You have the sound of the Father's heart to unlock the original design so the new creation will start. The natural and the spiritual will unite. A common unity will win the fight (community).

Discernment will build the prophetic so the mature will have a sound for the prophetic needs healing and the discerner will bring this about. It is no time to back up or deny who you are. For the eyes of the Lord are moving to and fro. You must see with the abundance of the heart.

The heart programs the cells to heal the body and the body will extend to all creation. For it is longing for the sound of the Lion to be followed into the regeneration.

Gabriel

This is not like any other time. I carry the equation and alignment for the original design. I have protected the divine birth and I also protect what is yours. The order, balance of the DNA and the elements align to truth. I restore the pathways so the connections are sure to remove what is counterfeit, to realign to the pure. So, as the heart thinks so it is. The view of eternity aligns to the kingdom and the King. How it is was meant to be and how it will be is all aligned to peace. There is no end of this government and its increase. To pursue it above all else is to surpass every need. Peace is an ongoing presence, a realm of the divine. No matter what is thrown at you, you can survive it as if it never happened and remove the record of time. It is the eyes of the heart that see this in truth through the image of Christ, so it is with you.

The record of time holds the cellar memory in the body, it aligns to the pain that keeps the reality of discouragement from the past in the present. This affects the view of the windows that hold all time in perspective. discouragement is the weapon that should not exist. My hope of the future also aligns to the present and can heal even the past. This is not just physical it calls all cells to align to righteousness in Who I AM For His Glory!

Scroll of the original design

These are the things so lovely and pure. Things that you are yet to discover so no matter what you realize you have endured. I have a place in my heart that shows you the love and how to heal your parts. I will speak tenderly to what they need. This is of joy and peace till they believe. This is the original sound of your scroll written in the secret place where my heart is known. In here they will learn to trust my love. If you help them you would know that you are my first love and lead the way. I have done nothing to hurt you but I have made a better way. In fact, I took it all that came against you so that evil could not stay. This place is the garden of my delight. This is the place for which I never give up the fight. Had you known what it is to be loved none of this would have affected you for you would know what I adore. But it didn't happen at that time. What I did happened on the cross and that I went into hell to take it back for what was lost. It is the resurrection that says it all. No time or the evidence of the fall.

Spirit of Understanding

I am removing the documents that have programmed the wrong reality. These realities are regions of captivity that hold the parts but I am removing every accusation against God. The complaint against God was inserted into the DNA that distorts the original design because it is part of him from which you were made. These accusations that come against God come against your original design and lines up with the enemies view of God that is a lie. These intercepts have added to the original stones like every dot and tiddle is an antenna for the negative to be known. I am dismantling this undercurrent of sound to remove the time loops for the true I Am to be found.

This is the new creation which is the original creation design.

Now I will speak and read of how it should have been. This is the root of righteousness for you from the son of man. I am acquainted with all your ways; every intimate detail that was made. Before there is a word on your mouth, I know it full well without a doubt. I have enclosed you behind and before and laid my hand upon you for the glory will be known. I tell you of wonderful things that are too high for you. All of you cannot obtain it but what I say is true. There is nowhere you can go from my spirit. no place you can plea from my presence. If you go to the highest heights I am there even sheol I will find you. Even in the remotest parts of the heavens or the sea my strong right hand will lead you and take hold of you to believe. Even when you think darkness will overwhelm you, darkness is but day to me. Darkness and light are alike for I have made them both and I see. For I formed you in your inner parts, even in your mothers' womb, I knew how you would be. For you are fearfully and wonderfully made and all the works I did for your soul is very well in your frame and you were not hidden from me when you were made in the secret place, skillfully wrought in the depts of the earth. I knew all your ways. I saw your unformed substance and in your books were written all your days that were ordained for you. I invite you to take a look. And when there was yet not one of them, I still referred to how it should be. My thoughts are precious towards you how vast are the sum of them. I am always with you to the end of the earth. And when you awake you are still with me though you may not know it yet for the original design is the new creation and in your scroll all righteousness is met.

Away from the noise to be with you. A sound that is brand new.

These are the frequencies of God from the implant of the word for love is the true law. These frequencies are from who I am and in all the original DNA through the son of man. It is the sound of the spirit.

These frequencies are beyond the natural mind. They are eternal in alignment and enables the heart to heal the mind. They are behind all that we call faith. It is why you believe when nothing in the natural aligns to His way. These frequencies are from the original design crafted out of the word from the Most High's mind. And not only this but what wrought you together in the godly depts but also it can change matter. This is why creation is waiting for the harmony of your heart to arise and align to the original parts. And His eyes always follow where the spirit goes for these greatest truths are from the heart of God.

Daniel seems to be with us

For this is a set time for the mysteries to be unfolded, an opening of the books for revealing and disclosure. Many things have already happened according to this word. Land has been partialled out but the Kingdom of God will endure. It's being recorded with the saints on high. for the revealing of the sons on God will not be denied. There will be no more delay for a season. It will be difficult but, in the pressure, the righteous will be named. I am unlocking the access from the north for the original design to take its course. For great exploits have yet to come. Now it is time for the mysteries. Time for the glory to be known. The anointing and power will line up with the word. I am adding to these books daily for

I am reconfiguring the stones. It is all about the frequency don't you know. The frequencies on the stone are connected to the imprint and hold the record against you. When the frequencies align they will be connected to a pen, a ready writer of the divine and the fusion will be separated from what is God's for the original design is the recreation law. A cosmic disorder because of the queen [queen of heaven]. He continues to redeem her connection and deceive. Fear will always lead back to her but the heart holds the imprint of what truly is you. Align the eyes to how it was meant to be and you will remove the boundaries that hold back the true vision of the King.

See etchings on the stones and there is an invisible line connected to them. There is a rewiring that connects the frequencies and changes them.

Rainbow Angel and Strategies, strategies, strategies. New realms, new realms, new realms. Your freedom will become contagious and others will catch what you have developed. Your freedom is sending shock waves into the heavenly places. Do not despair for I am at work in you in a mighty and unprecedented way. You are a way maker. You are a way maker.

Angles and geometric shapes are being adjusted through continuous alterations in your matrixes. Drastic changes are coming beyond your expectations so do not doubt that I am at work. This is a challenging process for you and Paul and the ramifications of what I am doing are beyond what you can comprehend.

The enemy is desperate to stop this process but as I said before you have gone now beyond the tipping point and there is no turning back for the destruction of the enemies' work in you is well on its way to completion.

Significant world events are about to transpire and you will ride above the chaos as I have plans for you that are beyond your imagination. The clock is ticking for the end times are here. Course changes are about to happen and will line up with what I have said to you in the past. There is a future hope for you and your hope will not be cut off.

Design specifications are being implemented according to the original design I have had for you. I am aware of how grueling this is for both of you. Know that this is because this is a work that is resulting in a transition from the realm of the enemy to my glorious realms. This process is a game changes in that the client is forging new paradigms that have always been my intention but have not been available because of the enemy's interference in my grand design for humanity. The process of returning to the original design has been agonizing to say the least but the resistance of the enemy to this process has been real and significant but the client's persistence and unweaving steadfastness to the process is now yielding the results that I have wanted and the client has longed for. The final breakthrough is close. Do not give up or falter at this last stage. I am aware of your exhaustion in the process.

If you can picture childbirth the baby is almost crowning and the final labor pains have begun. I will birth in you what I have always intended and soon you will experience the joy of this new birth.

It's time to learn from the glory, wisdom and power. It must have their story. Your roots are planted by streams which are connected to the river of life and the trees. Trees above and trees below if the roots are holy the whole tree is holy and the glory can be known. You have learned from the modality of man's intellectual proof but wisdom is here to release the truth. Wisdom and knowledge make the way. Experience is the best teacher for the Lord's plans are to save. The trees on either side are both the old and the new. The anointing will teach you to walk on through. You all carry the eyes of the Lord that go to-and-fro connecting one to another and to stay in the glory of the Lord. But the interception has blocked the way. Pondering the false protection over the DNA

Remove the false covering off the DNA. It is the false protection that blocks the original gene that Qaneh (YWHY) made. This is to heal from the original design. Time is the element or the tool that has been used to set in place the ungodly judgments that hold back power and grace. The glorious ones hold the key to awaken the truth of the original design to be seen. Heal the natural and the spiritual. Clear the pathways to see the invisible. The false images hold back grace, now remove the condemnation and put the whole in place. We see dimly in a mirror and we see in part but how it was meant to be the original design is where you start. The intentions that were made from the imagination of ABBA were created in the word of every dot and tittle. A design in holiness that was set apart to love one another from the power of the father's heart. See isa 40:28. Creator is Qaneh: It actually means to gather together from the original seed.

Jana sees structure. The walls are mechanisms that move and allow passage back and forth. So wavering always leads to indecisiveness and decision making is hard. There is a delight of the Lord for those who come to know the stronghold of the Lord. It is the goodness of God both the attitudes and the place that the origin of the self, the core was made. Unraveling these mechanisms is what the Ancients can do both the spirit, soul and Jana “ What did you come to see, who do you say I am. If you ask me, Ill give you the states and the nations, California holds the key, My house will be holy. And I am shaking the trees. So the bad fruit will fall off, and the good will remain. And she will know she is free. What did you come to see. Ask me for the good way. The ancient path. For the good shepherd will meet all your needs. Pay attention to the windows. And to the branch. I will gather what has been scattered from the ancient path. The old will be new and the new will be old. On this mountain you will weald the sword. And the whole story will be told. Platforms of justice to take back what was lost. To shatter the gates of bronze, and to heal from a place of trust. Seeing is not believing but believing is seeing. To discern how it should be is the original design to believe you are chosen before the foundations of the earth. You hold the record to redeem from depravity creations, design of how it should be to heal the land and to take back what is mine. You will show to the rulers and authority’s in heavenly places. Each level holds a platform of justice for ruley that needs to be made, a suddenly of righteousness will heal the courts in heaven so the earth will know and righteousness to be claimed. You are the rightful wisdom of God to know each other of who you are though you see dimly ...you will know who are chosen who you really are.

seven spirits of God feel all seven spirit of the Lord is stronger

There are keys for healing. Wisdom for healing. A re-genesis for the stones through fire. It is a recalibration for energy plays a role. A connection for wholeness for the original design needs to be retold. What is sick and infirmed has become the norm. the frequency have not been visited or experienced of how it should be known. The blood has a sound and so do the stones but it is the communication between the original and the now. Fire, frequencies and water must be set. The combination will restore for the blood and flesh to be met to connect to each other. These coals of fire will bring the deliverance for the DNA to change. It is in combination in what is turning so the original can be remade. All seven burning together keep the lampstand in place. The truest identity of how it was intended. The original comes face to face.

Seeing lampstand and the seven are essential and has to do with mirror image of having to be face to face.

Frequencies go higher. Frequencies colors are all aligned with sound. The balance will correct and healing will be found.

These seven spirits are turning but the lampstand is staying in place.

Time of recovery, time of discovery. Go to the unsearched, those hidden in desolate places. The dungeons and the unsettled parts and align them to the regeneration. It is the original design held back by time loops, the judgments that keep the defensive abandoned by expecting the remade design. Hope is here for wisdom's sake. Heal the branches. Keep the root in place.

All these years the lord has been weaving together a massive net. Training, equipping, discipleship. To mend the broken net.

Angel of Hawaii this move of God will mend the broken net by mending people's broken hearts. We will all work together for the harvest is nigh. To break the yoke around the neck around Hawaii.

New authority to pull down strongholds as you move and work together as the Lord returns people to their original creative design. It is about identity and all creation is waring for the revealing of the sons of God. The throne of God is manifested and plug into my throne and I will release unprecedented power. Wisdom will flow. This move of God will take people by surprise.

Another version

The laws were established at the gates even the ones that got in the way. There now she sees stars the stars have something to do with measurements of time in the earth below the earth and above are all aligned this is always communicating but hope can cancel expectations of devastation. Justice is now in harmony with the throne of grace hope is received. The heart Emulates true sound of God so power is release 500 times more than any natural bombshell heart will bring alignment with how it should be for where you are going justice and the original design will agree. Evidence of healing the spirit soul and the body is coming to this restoration of hope to being a blind for hope is certain of the evidence yet unseen so creation itself will appear because the heart believes energy is just waiting to be organized it is aligned to the throne of God and all heaven waits for earth to decide.

Bringing you to a new gate, a deeper gate in the depth. A love gate is an ancient gate, an ancient gate that will bring you through to a new height of understanding. It will be like I am giving you wings to fly in a place where nothing can die. Where life and only life fills the eye. A crown of life ordained on the site to bring forth what is right in my sight. I am reversing the curse that has been in a realm of rehearsal that locks away the lovers of God in a loop of a fallen time outside of original design. The glory of a king to search out a matter will unlock a royal power in the body for the coming hour. Come up the stairs to a high tower and see Me unleash infinity power.

Could this be a power of the right hand of power.

I see an outpouring of a giant waterfall coming from above that will crash upon the rocky earth and break apart land structures of fallen power. As this takes place I then reveal the face of the feminine face of the authority with archangels. The femineity of divinity will astound the wise so do not despise the day of the demise of the so called wise. Powers will fall. Watch what I do this fall. The angels will obey my call to partner with Paul as he opens a door to unlock the more of the Lion's roar for upgrade.

The sin of the seed

Has corrupted the tree

The branches are drooping out of sadness of the disease within

The relics the relics have corrupted within

It's a decay that lives within

Lay them down

Smash them up

You May say What? I have to give that up?

Well I guess you don't but if you do then you will truly love as you we're suppose to

My original intent my original design

Takes some time to find

Many want it but so few pursue it

For the time it takes means one must not get their way

Surrender

Surrender

Surrender

It's the only way to live and receive from Me your Holy Elohim

Many will say they have turned it all over but I would challenge you to consider the ones buried deeply under

Yep it can be humbling but the freedom far more worth then the temporary satisfaction of what dies on earth

Hmm so what is it you may ask?

To each one it will not be exactly the same for trauma has layered it in a game

Trying to survive and not be found trauma lives deep within and underground

Jealousy lurks and attempts to sit so high on the judgment seat way up in the sky but deep in the earth

Sheol looks for its prey who has been playing this game

Trap doors await to pull one down to the pit of shame

Wow one would say I don't play that game

I AM is the one who knows the truth in ones hearts for relics lurk in hidden parts

Many don't see many don't know just how relics have become dependent in ones soul

Freedom is here freedom awaits for it's a choice to close this evil gate

Iron bars gates of bronze are no match to ME but if you don't acknowledge it you may never be free

Astro winds are spinning in space. Stars once again are waiting to sing with the true sons that have Yahweh's Name

Is it Galactically breaking in? or is it astronomical, a cosmic war to see who really are HIS. This galactic challenge has begun.

My own are asking:

Is this natural? is it real? Or is it spiritual? Are these coming Good or are they evil? What is blowing in space to justify this? These fallen sons will try to pass as gods once again

Watch out for the leaven of the pharmacies. Also watch out for the elect for they may be deceived. What really are these kingdoms that don't belong to Me? Who don't have My name or My sons Name they and deceive. Who are these kings that hold captive those who were once free?

It is time for the Kairos to set the Chronos. On earth as it is in heaven but the model is distorted. Self-appointed kings that don't have My honor. Many are trapped in prison because of their spiritual and natural fathers. The stars fought from heaven for Deborah and will do it again. But I have come to set the captive free for you are being prepared for the final battle is at hand. Be aligned to the original design The ancient path is where you herd My mind.

The treasure is in the vault, waiting for the creative witness to explore. To move the invisible to the visible, this is the glory that will restore. It is in the expanse pouring out speech were ever it goes it is known. Its heard all day and night. Ask of Me and I will tell you how to redeem time. Fixing history from strength to glory for all who are called of Me to tell My story.

These majestic ones in the earth, share in the inheritance with the saints in light. These chosen will stop Astor travel that seeks to divide. These chosen will not be stopped. They will run upon a wall, and through the windows. They will turn pathways into a holy Highway. This is the army of the Lord, by a ruling of Yaweh,s discussion. for the sake of these who have been hidden. I will cut the time short

Go through go through the gates. Lift up, Move the stones heal the DNA and make a way were there once was no way.

The paradigms are shifting and I am shattering the walls. The mindsets of captivity were from the programming of old. This knowledge of the glory of God is from the deep. The returning to the throne so the eyes of the heart are no longer deceived. Pride and prejudice has been an evil work for the designs of man and the evil one now needs a cure. I am uncovering what has been hidden so the original design may emerge to create out of chaos so the new creation will emerge. They need to ask how are we led by the Spirit of God. Not by the programming of old teaching and the old interpretation of the law. Deep calls to deep so the groaning will align so the Spirit of God may intercede and the time to be will align. It is not pre or not post nor the middle but all will tell the story to be told. My house must see the house of prayer for all houses are the leaves and healing shall be there. It is about the image and the sound that creates. True discernment must come forth so the children will reveal His name. This is the day of the day for the end is the beginning and I am coming quickly so the world will know.

The remnant needs to know before deeper darkness comes and deception grows. The kingdoms of this world hold the systems that the elect itself may be lured into belief by illusion. You see its about what you see. Learn to come out of the shadows find the way of escape. No temptation has sized except what is common to man.

Time and space play a part, but you must find the true path that leads from the heart. out of the dark. Watch out for cosmic illusions. Place truly maters, and it must be discerned. For if the true sight will be blocked than the illusion would be true.

The ancients (mighty ones) did it then and they will do it again. A false hope of deliverance away from who He really is.

Vain imaginations lead to a false deep of the mysteries of the Kingdoms yet not seen. But we see dimly in a mirror but than face to face was how the original design was meant to be. This is the power of the Father who is dear and near. Look to YWHY to lead and break fear.

The only true mystery is Christ within the hope of glory yet to be seen. and not stuck in deep darkness and deceived/

The mighty ones have something to do with twisting time. Important words
Lurid, entice, mystery, illusion. Deception.
