

Message from I AM – Briana Lassiter - Jan 26th, 2024

Stop becoming distracted with pain and pride and fear Lay down these resistant distractions that attempt to keep you entrapped in a repetitive cycle Repent for your participation in the trap that distracts

For we are all here for one single reason Now is the time, now is the season To stay steady, alert, sharp witted with me, Intimacy will break the power of the enemy

Be intimate with Me and your brothers
Why have you refused to share your heart with others?
This is the strategy, this is my key.
Before the universe, there was always Me.

Go back to Eden, and before.
What really, were you created for?
Are you here to see my face? To be friends with Me?
Only here will you find the key.

The key that binds the enemy, that overcomes their strategy.
Look at Me, look at the One.
Look at the 3, the 3 in One.
Look at the 7, look at the 12.
Look at the 3 repeated in 12.

It really is simple, the mystery you see.
It can all be found in Me, in unity.
