I am in Winston-Salem, N. Carolina

Dawn Bray Friday morning before Academy

1 am

Feeling the burning and power

Heard:

My presence is upon you burning one

My power is coming to rest on you

The weight of my glory

Who can withstand the weight of my glory? Those who are oil and fire My burning ones

Thought of

Malachi 3:2 who can endure...

Refiner's fire

8am

An elder

The fire, the fire

The glory and the fire

The power

The power

In the glory and the fire

It is not know by man

the power of the fire and the glory in My hand I am about to release it across the land Moses, Joshua, Jericho too experienced My glory, took off their shoes I am coming I am coming Like a cloud that brings rain Moving faster Moving faster Will you jump on the train The train of My robe It fills the temple The burning, the presence It really is simple I AM the ground wire I AM the fire I AM the power That you desire Healing and miracles Raising the dead Do you really believe I will do what I said Then come jump aboard my burning flame Together we will ride My glory train
