Delivered by Sarah Victor

The windows of heaven are opened and the floodgates.

It is going to be Biblical in the coming days and months and years as the secrets of the deep and the deep darkness are revealed and in the midst of the revelation the storms. An entranceway is being provided into these places. The realms are opened and the light of God comes shining through into the deep places that have never been disclosed before and no one knew that they existed.

And I AM is found in those places. He who was without beginning and without end. As He stretched out the firmament upon nothing and uprooted the deep magic of prior times and brought order into the chaos of the deep and brought law into (the) lawlessness. Yahweh is His name and His glory is lifted up.

Miracle upon miracle and signs and wonders. The Kingdom is advancing and so are you. My people find a way forward and straighten out the times and seasons and bring into order and bring the government of God to the earth.

For He stands upon the waters and brings them under His dominion King of Kings and Lord of Lords and His rule is extended over all the earth and the realms of the heavens.

Who can forget His works of old? His fights against the dragons of the deep. Awake O arm of the Lord and extend it against Your enemies. Vanquish those who have risen against You and bring them to order.
