Archangel Angel Over Nevada

Rob

There will be an explosion for the chosen. The chosen ones will be assembled. There will be a trembling and a rumbling. You are my chosen ones that will go into the land. You are my chosen ones who will take a stand for it shall be revealed at the end of the month what the enemy's achillea's heel is. Look for the throne room for it shall manifest in your midst. First you will discern the cherubim and then the throne and the glory shall fall and the enemy will be revealed. The achillea's' heel shall be revealed and the Lord shall strike with lightning power for this is the hour of Baal perazim breakthrough. There will be a cataclysmic shift that will lift the Lord's chosen ones out of the pit. The upcoming conference will take you back to your first love and ignite a great commission army that will storm the gates of Hell. The Lord is going to extract during this conference people's parts out of a cesspool of the enemy's domain. My chosen ones stand to your feet and receive your marching orders to go into the land. The river of God will flow as you go. You can no longer sit. It is time to go. The Lord's chosen ones will burn with the Father's fire and desire. Put your boots on and every step you take shall awaken with the glory of the Lord for you shall receive power and authority that will bring His story to life for the seven thunders will quake to awaken His chosen ones and thrust them out of the doldrums. This will result with an acceleration and an urgency like never before. Nevada will be the epicenter of this explosion that will go outward.
