

Summary of Messages on “Key” and “Keys”

A consolidated thematic and chronological summary of Key Word Summary

Purpose. This document summarizes the entries in which “key/keys” function as a spiritual image, instruction, authority, strategy, or means of access. Repeated copies of the same passage are consolidated into one summary. Incidental uses of “key” merely meaning “important,” “off key,” or “key components” are not treated as separate messages unless the surrounding passage develops the key/door theme.

Executive Synthesis

Across the messages, the image of a key develops from a single piece of revelation into a broad language of kingdom access, authority, discernment, healing, freedom, and commissioning. The recurring movement is: receive the key, discern the correct door or gate, turn or use the key in obedience, and then release what God intends behind that access point.

- Keys unlock revelation and hidden things. They open secrets, mysteries, scrolls, treasure, the vault, the Word, and understanding that is portrayed as having been concealed or reserved for a particular season.
- Keys are closely tied to authority and sonship. The strongest formulation is that the “master key” is the believer in the authority of sonship. Later messages speak of keys of authority, the Key of David, and keys to the Kingdom.
- Keys repeatedly lead to freedom. They are said to set captives free, unlock generations, release people from prisons or systems, restore inheritance, and open a tidal wave of liberty.
- Keys and doors are inseparable. Many messages present doors, double doors, gates, vaults, rooms, portals, and realms that require a specific key, while other doors are opened by faith, proclamation, obedience, or prophetic action.
- The key theme shifts from receiving to training others. By 2021 the language expands to “key smiths,” a “Master Key Maker,” and a school or shop where others learn to make, recognize, and use keys.
- The later messages emphasize revival, glory, healing, and provision. Keys open the glory realm, revival, healing, the river, storehouses of provision, evangelistic boldness, and new levels of kingdom power.

The Main Progression of the Theme

Phase	Primary image	What the key does	Dominant emphasis
2003-2012	Key + doors	Opens progressive revelation and secrets	Discovery, revelation, freedom
2019-2022	Sword key / master key / key smith	Unlocks land, inheritance, sonship and realms	Authority, training, transition
2023-2024	Key of David / double doors / vault	Opens revival, healing, provision and kingdom activity	Heart after God, faith, unity, commissioning
2025	Keys of authority / glory-realm keys	Releases liberty, healing, revival and new realms	Mature authority, glory, multiplication

Chronological Summary of the Key Entries

Entries below are consolidated by message or session. Where the source repeats the same word later in the document, the repeated copy is not listed as a separate item.

Foundational Messages: 2003-2012

December 11, 2003 - Aslan's Place

The first major "key" word presents revelation as progressive. A key has been asked for and is now being "picked up"; entering one door will lead to more doors. The revelation concerns a deep generational/dimensional bondage and is linked with the fire of God, future revelation, and people coming to be set free.

March 9, 2005 - Mimi Lowe / Hawaii word

The repeated instruction says the key is "in the pawn shop" in Hawaii and must be redeemed. In the surrounding message, the assignment is tied to Hawaii, opening wells, repentance, urgency, and going to the land. The key is therefore pictured as something that belongs to the assignment but has to be recovered.

August 8, 2007 - corporate ministry notes

A golden key appears inside manna, together with a red heart, and is followed by a gold door that can be walked through. The imagery connects provision/revelation ("manna"), the heart, resurrection/third-day themes, and access through a door.

March 20, 2009 - Dale

A key is given to "crack the code" of a complex generational system described through DNA, numbers, vibration, frequency, colors, quadrants, cubes, and a combination lock. The key also gives permission to unlock a guarded gate, retrieve a missing piece, and reverse what was stolen. The emphasis is decoding, recovering identity/inheritance, and entering a formerly inaccessible place.

March 29, 2010 - visionary notes

A long visionary passage contains the name "Lokey," but this is not a developed key symbol. It is retained in the source search results but does not contribute a distinct teaching on spiritual keys.

January 7, 2010 - Mimi / Lake House

The group is commended for accepting "keys" or truths that others rejected. The message links receiving these truths with taking land, church, ministries, and possessions out of Sheol and with a birthing place for new projects, strategies, and revelation.

May 12, 2011 - Paul's dream

Five ordinary house keys are hidden in the rafters at Aslan's Place. The dream is brief and unexplained, but it suggests multiple reserved access points already present in the house/ministry and waiting to be found when needed.

January 31, 2012 - Persis, "Doors and Keys"

This is one of the clearest foundational key words. Doors and keys are intertwined; many keys, large and small, wait to be discovered. They unlock secrets, release revelation and knowledge, set captives free, and function as weapons against enemy plans. The message calls for searching, pondering, and fresh engagement with the Word in order to understand and use them appropriately.

Land, Sonship, Wisdom, and Training: 2019-2022

May 20, 2019 - Liza / Angel over the Island of Hawaii

A "sword key" is given to go into the land and unlock it, specifically in connection with Mookini and the history of human sacrifice and polytheism. The key combines authority/warfare (sword) with access/release (key) and is explicitly land-focused.

July 25, 2021 - Persis

The enemy is said to have no key to Kairos time. The practical emphasis is to rest in God rather than be distracted, because God will reveal further secrets. The key motif here differentiates God's appointed timing from manipulated or merely chronological time.

March 4, 2021 - Michele

The language expands from receiving keys to becoming "key smiths." The locks already exist, while God has established keys in people and calls them to discover new ways of entering. Paul is called a "Master Key Maker" and "Key Master," with an image of opening a school or key-smith shop where students learn to make keys. This turns the key theme into a training and multiplication mandate.

March 3, 2022 - Michele

Different realms are described as requiring different keys; discerning which realm, gate, door, or window one is dealing with is itself part of the key. The name "Ain Soph" is proposed as one key for unraveling complex systems, and "sacred keys" are portrayed as divinely given strategies that unlock people from layered captivity.

April 6-7, 2022 - Rainbow Angel notes

A "little book of numbers" associated with the Rainbow Angel is proposed as one of the keys for overcoming a multi-layer beast/dragon system. The emphasis is on receiving hidden strategy and understanding from God rather than using a single universal technique.

April 8, 2022 - Larry

An "ancient key" unlocks an ancient treasure chest containing godly inheritance and birthright. The key is connected to sonship, awakening, authority, and a new prototype that opens a door to what has been deeply hidden.

May 13, 2022 - Michele, "7 dimensions of Wisdom"

Unity is called a key, and the "keys of wisdom" are used to enter a hidden vault. Wisdom, unity, and inward access are linked: the vault is portrayed as hidden within, and the keys enable entry into further truth.

May 23-28, 2022 - ministry/session notes

The source includes the short label "Key to DID" within a larger set of exploratory ministry notes. It is not developed into a full key teaching, so it is best understood as a working-session marker rather than a complete prophetic explanation.

July 24, 2022 - Larry Pearson / Revelation of the Vault

A "bigger key" is released for seeing God and becoming free. The central statement is that the "master key" is the person operating in the authority of divine sonship. This key unlocks movement out of an old era into a broader realm, a new beginning in the church, greater manifestation of the mind of Christ, and power intended to set many free.

July 25, 2022 - European client session

Keys are given "to turn the tide as you turn the key." They relate to trapped messages, sending and commissioning, places inside and outside time, and the restoration of righteousness so that God's intended sending can occur. The key is a transition mechanism that reverses captivity and restores assignment.

August 21, 2022 - Joshua / Rob

In a promised-land/Jericho framework, the message says to look for a key by the edge of the sea. This key opens the door for a "great outpour" and is tied to Haili Church, lava tubes, fire, and the Big Island. The key is geographic, revival-oriented, and connected to a breakthrough that spreads through the island chain.

October 24, 2022 - Brianna

Faith, obedience, and belief are named as "the three" that form the key opening the door into the next season. The message stresses cleansing from fear, unbelief, disobedience, and distorted beliefs about God so that forward movement is not hindered.

December 28, 2022 - Rob / Gabriel

Paul and Rob are entrusted with a key that opens double doors into the Kingdom and into “rooms within dimensions.” Turning the key is linked to increase, new hope, urgency, revival, and the fulfillment of what God has promised. The key is not merely access; it initiates a new season of kingdom movement.

Revival, Generational Freedom, and the Key of David: 2023

February 26, 2023 - Rob / David

Paul and Rob are told they have been given the keys to the Kingdom. The key associated with David is identified with having a heart after God. A key is manifesting that will open the door of revival, lead into “the more,” open double doors, and produce a dimensional shift.

March 30, 2023 - Michele, “Lion’s Key”

Brotherly love among men is described as a key for breaking the strongman and restoring a bond damaged across generations. The “Lion’s Key” is connected to freedom in God, healing male identity and relationships, and releasing strength into nations, homes, families, and future generations.

April 11, 2023 - Paul, Grace and Faith notes

Enduring faith is described as key: not simply the amount of faith, but faith sustained until God’s timing and order are fulfilled. The reflection connects the Key of David with a whole heart after God and asks whether the “double doors” of Isaiah 22:22 may be grace (God’s part) and faith (our response).

August 11, 2023 - ministry notes

A “universal key” is described as able to unlock many generations, shut many doors, and open healing. The key is used in generational healing to reverse stealing and close harmful access while opening restoration.

Undated 2023-era vault word

A key is received for a vault in heaven, and opening the vault is associated with releasing the Lord’s glory and “new wine for a new time.” This contributes to the growing vault theme: keys do not merely open doors but release stored spiritual provision for a new season.

October 26, 2023 - corporate word

The simple declaration “the keys have been released” appears in a message about eviction of fallen powers, a court case, restored authority, and “Your kingdom come.” The key theme here signals released governmental authority and freedom for both people and land.

Keys of David, the Vault, the Word, Unity, and Provision: 2024

January 15, 2024 - Persis

“My Word is the answer, My Word has the key.” The Word itself is presented as the location of the needed key, placing Scripture/revelation at the center of discernment and breakthrough.

January 26, 2024 - word on intimacy and brotherhood

The strategy and key are found in intimacy with God and with brothers. The key is said to bind the enemy and overcome the enemy’s strategy. Relationship and unity, rather than technique alone, become the operative key.

February 22, 2024 - Larry

A golden key opens a new door into the Kingdom and into a new level of the sevenfold Spirit. It also gives access to an old scroll that had been hidden and locked in a library. The emphasis is fresh access to ancient/hidden revelation for present conquest and calling.

February 26, 2024 - Rob

Keys are given to release gridlock caused by division. Unlocking the lock allows the “high desert” to bloom and the vault to open. Unity is explicitly identified as the factor that brings physical liberty and removes barriers to glory.

June 8, 2024 - Dawn Bray / apostolic-center word

Discernment - knowing what God is doing - is called key, and “the key that unlocks the healing.” The message connects training, discernment, maturity, and healing ministry.

June 17, 2024 - Rob

The door has opened, but the key instruction is “go.” As people go, the golden oil flows. The key is therefore obedient movement and outward mission; the river of fire is tied to reaching the lost.

July 9, 2024 - Rob

Paul is shown holding a key that functions like an ignition starter. Turning it activates Kingdom Institute students to share the gospel, releases boldness, and shifts attention from inward focus to evangelistic mission.

July 14, 2024 - Acts class / KI

The same ignition imagery becomes experiential: the key is placed into the ignition of a gate, followed by strong waves of power and prayer. The entry reinforces the idea that a key can activate a gate and initiate a corporate release of power.

July 30, 2024 - ministry notes

The question is raised whether “the will” is the key that was hijacked at the beginning. A key in Paul’s hand opens a contaminated gate/cube and releases a baby symbolizing “will.” The working interpretation links restored will, rightful authority, and freedom from corrupted access.

July 31, 2024 - Rob

A storeroom door is unusual because it is not opened with a key; instead, it is opened by speaking/prophesying to the door. This exception is important: not every kingdom door is opened the same way. The storeroom contains gifts, insight, wisdom, and treasure for the Gospel of the Kingdom.

August 5, 2024 - Rob / Key of David

The Key of David opens a realm of desire and the fire of a heart after God. The message says the realm contains additional keys, that every person is to receive a Key of David, and that this heart-level key is “the key to victory,” releasing revival and restored desire for God.

August 5, 2024 - Rob / vault and fire

A related word says the key is “in the vault.” The vault therefore becomes not only a storehouse to be opened but a place where the next key itself is found. The surrounding message connects fire, glory, careful documentation, and future “fire starters.”

September 17, 2024 - corporate word

A multitude of keys is given, but the Lord must demonstrate how to use them. These keys access abundance, supply, provision, and “storehouses” of God’s love. This emphasizes stewardship: possession of keys is not enough; proper use must be taught.

October 9, 2024 - Michele

Trusting God is called the key - even “the only key” truly needed - for fulfilling the call, overcoming opposition, and walking in righteousness. The emphasis moves the key inward: dependence and trust become the essential means of direction and victory.

October 11, 2024 - Michele

The “keys of the Trinity” are said to contain further answers, while God is described as the “true key” who unlocks the direction of the Trinity and gives what is needed to dethrone opposition. The ultimate key is not a technique but God Himself and continued communion with Him.

Keys of Authority, Glory, Healing, and Multiplication: 2025

January 18, 2025 - Yuk Lyn / Michael the Archangel

Paul is pictured before a vault and is given the key/numbers needed to unlock it. The treasures inside are said to have been saved for him to release “piecemeal” because they are difficult to digest. The key therefore represents stewardship of advanced revelation and the timing of its release.

February 18, 2025 - corporate unity word

Unity is again called a key. Bringing burdens to God and becoming one in Him removes the enemy’s advantage; unity is the key that permits God’s love and truth to flow freely through His people.

February 22, 2025 - Larry / Jesus as Son of Man

A key emerges from God’s river to unlock people from a prison associated in the source with infirmity and spiritual wickedness. The result is restored inheritance, clear perception, healing authority, and an upgraded apostolic mantle.

February 26, 2025 - Rob / Moses

“Keys of authority” are released to open multiple doors into the glory realm. A manifested vault contains a key that will set the recipient free. The message marks a transition into greater authority, glory, revival, and freedom.

May 31, 2025 - Rob / KI Archangel, Abraham, Peter

Paul is given a key that will unlock a “tidal wave of liberty.” He is told to discern the door, take the key, and unlock it. The result is accelerated collapse of strongholds, purifying fire, and movement into something genuinely new.

June 3, 2025 - Rob / Mt. View Archangel

A key opens a door into the glory realm; entering the vault is connected with setting captives free, new levels of authority, healing, liberty, fire, and a strong river-like surge of God’s delivering love.

June 25, 2025 - Rob

During a journey, the instruction is to look for the door and key and open it. Doing so leads not merely into an anointing but into a realm of healing power. The word also connects the journey with the vault of heaven, Isaiah 45 treasures, the river of God, and the pool of Bethesda.

August 12, 2025 - Prayer to Remove the Diseases of Egypt

The prayer states that the number 591 had been identified as key to unlocking coding of DNA/RNA and resetting the body’s “correct hertz.” This is presented in the source as a specific prayer/ministry claim rather than a developed general teaching on keys.

August 30, 2025 - Rob

Understanding why the flaming sword is at the front of the church is called key to unlocking a blaze of kingdom power. The Lord’s glory is then called “the key to unlocking everything.” The word links sword, cherubim, throne, glory, gatekeeping, and a major dimensional shift.

October 2025 - Larry / Fire and Cloud material

A key is released to burst out of a restricting “bubble/matrix” and enter a new heavenly horizon. The language presents the key as enabling corporate emergence into something new and releasing the knowledge of God through the chariots/fire imagery.

November 1, 2025 - Fire and Cloud online meeting notes

A new key is promised to unlock new realms, explorations, and habitations in heavenly places. It appears in a context of training to reign, grace, dominion, and partnership with the seven spirits.

Recurring Key Motifs and What They Accomplish

Motif	Repeated function in the messages
Revelation / secrets	Unlock secrets, mysteries, hidden scrolls, codes, the Word, wisdom and advanced revelation.
Freedom / deliverance	Set captives free, unlock generations, restore inheritance, reverse stolen things, release people from prisons/systems.
Authority / sonship	Master key of sonship; keys of authority; keys to the Kingdom; Key of David; governmental authority.
Doors / gates / double doors	Move from one realm or season to another; enter rooms, dimensions, glory, healing and revival.
Land / nations	Unlock Hawaii and specific land assignments; restore land; release outpouring and revival through geographic doors.
Vault / storehouse	Release stored treasure, provision, revelation, glory, new wine and assignments reserved for the right season.
Heart / relationship	Heart after God, brotherly love, unity, trust, faith, obedience and belief repeatedly function as keys.
Training / multiplication	Key smiths, Master Key Maker, key-smith school/shop; learning how and when to use many different keys.
Timing	Kairos is portrayed as inaccessible to the enemy; keys are released for specific appointed times and transitions.
Healing / revival / glory	Later keys open healing realms, glory doors, rivers, revival, boldness, liberty and the fire of God.

Overall Summary

The central message of the collected “key” words is progressive stewardship of access and authority.

Early messages emphasize receiving a key and discovering doors; middle messages define the key in terms of sonship, wisdom, land assignments, and training others; later messages connect keys with the Key of David, the vault, unity, trust, evangelism, healing, glory, provision, and revival. The recurring instruction is not simply to possess keys, but to discern the correct key, the correct door, the correct timing, and the correct way to use it under God’s direction. The mature form of the theme is relational and governmental: God Himself, His Word, sonship, a heart after Him, faith, trust, unity, obedience, and love are repeatedly presented as the deepest keys that make the other forms of access effective.

A notable development is the move from individual discovery to corporate multiplication. The “key smith / Master Key Maker” language anticipates a ministry of equipping others to recognize, make sense of, and use keys. By 2024-2025, the emphasis is increasingly corporate: keys activate students, open glory realms, release revival and healing, unlock provision, and give access to stored revelation for the benefit of others.

Source handling note: Repeated copies of identical or substantially identical words were consolidated. Brief working notes (for example “Key to DID” and the 591 prayer reference) are included but identified as notes rather than expanded prophetic messages.
